Zoo Bar benefit show helps cooperative group

An eclectic array of musicians will be performing this weekend to help a Lincoln organization attain non-profit status.

The concert is a benefit for the Flatwater Cooperative Urban Sustainability Project.

The project's goal is to build a residential cooperative house in an urban Lincoln neighborhood that will provide information, lectures and workshops about ecological issues, as well as house 12 people.

The concert features modern rock from the Kilmees, acoustic jam rock from More Product, the bluegrass sounds of the Bone Shakers and techno from DJ Gabriel Starr.

The benefit's proceeds will go toward the project's non-profit tax-status application fee.

The event will take place at the Zoo Bar on Sunday from 7 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Bands will take the stage at 8.
