This alternative rock band from Los Angeles has been playing the local club scene for nearly five years and have developed a wide following. With their incredible new record, the band is ready and primed. Their brand of traditional alt-rock is a refreshing change from the testosterone-laden pseudo-rap that's in hyper-rotation on the radio. The music is real.

SUPERGRASS is a quantum leap from the band's previous worldwide-million sellers, it flows from the haunting strings and strains of "Moving", through to the grammy swagger of "Pumping On Your Stereo", on to the sublime "Mary", and finishing with the sentimental "Mama & Papa". The album defies convention and categorization. It's simply a classic.
