

the big picture photos of the year

I had no idea it would look like this. ▲

I didn't know until after I had developed the film because the moment happened so fast, and you only have one chance at something like this. This was taken during the NCAA soccer playoffs, NU vs. Notre Dame. I think more credit on this photo should be given to Karina LeBlanc, Nebraska's athletic goalie, for being to bend her body like that to make the save, than I deserve for shooting the photo. Good luck next year, Karina.

I like the warmth, the serenity.

Quiet simplicity. It was easy to make a nice image in the window-lit, wood-floored dance studio with two talented UNL dancers, Kevin Gibbs and Megan Dant, whose moves complemented the overall mood. ▼
