

DOUGLAS THEATRE CO.
 www.douglastheatres.co
 Movie info: 441-0222
 Call for Showtimes!
 Coming Soon.....
 "3,000 Miles to Graceland" "Quills"
 "Sweet November" • "See Spot Run"
 "NEW ENEMY AT THE GATES"

Valentines Day
 Wednesday - Feb. 14th
Love Potion #9
 We've mixed up a special Love Potion. Take a drink to see what might happen.
Nuts & Bolts
 meet your match
 Everyone thru the doors will receive a nut or a bolt. Find the person who fits your nut/bolt and both of you will win a treat.
Smacker Contest
 Plant your LIPS on the contest board. Judges will decide on the best looking smacker. party begins @ 9

Lincoln Crisis Pregnancy Center
 Caring about mothers and their babies.
 4247 "O" Street
 Lincoln, NE 68510
 (402)483-4247
 www.lincolncrisispregnancy.com

Free pregnancy testing
 Clothing & furnishings for mother and baby
 24-Hour hotline
 Information about pregnancy, abortion, and referrals for adoption or foster care
 Postpartum and Christian counseling services
 Ongoing support and friendship throughout pregnancy
 Post-abortion counseling

Owusu's blazing 400 doesn't translate into win

BY KRISTEN WATERS

Members of the Nebraska track team took their respective abilities to the next level at the Tyson Invitational in Fayetteville, Ark., on Saturday. The resulting personal bests didn't translate into wins. The stellar competition, which included national powers Arkansas, LSU and Big 12 rival Texas, made sure of that. The case in point was All-

American NU 400-meter sprinter Lesley Owusu. The junior ran a blistering 52.74, just .01 of a second off her personal best, which also was the nation's fastest time coming into the weekend, and still finished second. South Carolina sophomore Demetria Washington took the gold, and the nation's 400 lead, with a time of 52.40. The silver medal didn't disappoint Nebraska Coach Gary

Pepin in the least — Owusu did defeat the defending 400-meter indoor champion, Mikele Barber, also of South Carolina.

"Lesley ran a solid race against great competition," Pepin said. "It's good to see her finish so strong among the nation's best."

Other NU highlights included senior Jessica Thompson, who finished third in the high jump with a provisional qualifying mark of 5-9 3/4.

Junior Jenna Lucas came in third place in the mile with a personal best time of 4:59.74, while sophomore Kathryn Handrup also recorded a personal best time of 10:08.26 in the 3,000-meter, and Leann Boerema finished fourth in the shot with a throw of 49-7 3/4.

In men's competition, sophomore Phillip Lucking finished fourth in the shot-put with a throw of 54-8 1/4, sophomore James Debruch finished fourth in the mile with a time of 4:13.98, and junior Nick Brethouwer finished fourth in the 35-pound weight throw with a toss of 59-2 3/4.

Several Huskers also fared well in Saturday's Golden Spikes Meet portion of the invitational, which included non-collegiate competitors. All-American junior Shaun Kologinczak led the way for the Huskers as he jumped a season best 7-2 1/2 to finish third in the high jump. Kologinczak's leap was enough to give him an NCAA provisional qualifying mark for the second time this season.

Meanwhile, the NU 4x400-meter relay team finished 11th in a season-best time of 3:15.36.

Nebraska will next see action at home as they host the Prairie Wolves Invitational on Saturday.

Bears hand NU sixth Big 12 loss

BY JOSHUA CAMENZIND

The Nebraska men's basketball team received another first-hand glimpse on Saturday of how hard it is to break bad habits.

Barry Collier's Huskers are also finding out first hand that wins are coming far and few between, while the habit of starting slow lingers. NU again stumbled out of the gates at Baylor and fell to the Bears 69-58 on Saturday.

The Huskers, now 11-12 on the season, shot 37 percent in the first half against the Bears and turned the ball over 11 times against the stingy Baylor defense.

The result was a 36-26 half-time deficit that again put NU in a hole it couldn't dig itself out of on the road.

Just as they have all season, the Huskers battled back in the second half to make it a ballgame.

Following a Wendell Greenleaf jam, the Bears took an 11-point lead on NU with 8:17 left in the game. But the Huskers didn't quit.

NU's two heroes of the day, Brian Conklin and John Robinson, led the charge on a 10-0 run, giving the Bears only a one-point advantage with five minutes remaining.

During the spurt, Conklin hit two 3-pointers, and Robinson added two running jumpers to ignite the Husker comeback.

Conklin would lead NU in scoring with 18 points, making five of seven shots from beyond the arc. Robinson would add 12, and Steffon Bradford added 11.

But the Bears weren't fazed by Conklin's 3-point exhibition, nor NU's new-found ability to take care of the ball (only three turnovers in the second half).

Nebraska would go cold from that point on, and its last two points would come on two free throws from Robinson with 1:30 left in the game.

Baylor would surge ahead and grab the win by converting seven of eight free throws. BU capped off the win with a Terry Black alley-oop slam.

Collier said he was proud of his team's handling of the ball in the second half and of the 6-foot-11 Conklin's career day.

"He probably felt as comfortable as he has all year," Collier said on his postgame radio show.

For the game, NU shot 21 of 50 from the field and eight of 25 on 3-pointers. Cookie Belcher, who came into the contest averaging 16.3 points per game to lead the Huskers, was held to two points on the day. NU's second leading scorer, Kimani Pfriend (13.6 ppg) contributed only three points, all free throws.

Baylor was led by DeMarcus Minor's 17 points, and Greenleaf and Chad Elsey added 13 apiece.

Black continued to showcase his all-around game and aerial skills in the contest, totaling 12 points, five rebounds, four assists and four steals.

The win upped the Bears record to 15-6 overall and 4-6 in the conference, while NU dropped to 4-6 in Big 12 play.

Collier said he told his players he appreciated their effort in the game and that type of performance was the one he wanted them to bring to practice on Monday and show in their next game with Kansas State on Wednesday night.

COLLEGE LIFE
not everything you thought it would be?

You do not have to be alone or afraid in the dark
There is treatment
There is light

Are you experiencing...

- ✓ Excessive Worrying
- ✓ "The Blues"
- ✓ Sleep Difficulties
- ✓ Poor Concentration
- ✓ Panic Attacks
- ✓ Test Anxiety

HELP IS AVAILABLE!
National Anxiety Screening Day
 Tuesday, February 13, 2001
 Nebraska Union
 11 a.m. - 8 p.m.
Attend a free screening for anxiety and depression.

Sponsored by:
 Counseling and Psychological Services of the University Health Center 472-7450
 Employee Assistance Program 472-3107
 Anxiety Disorders Clinic of the Psychological Consultation Center 472-2351

EARN MONEY BY PARTICIPATING IN UNL JURY RESEARCH!
 Research on jury decision making will require about two hours. Contact Marc Patry at 472-0483 to schedule an appointment. Pay is $15.

Woven Harmony
 Robert and Rebecca Bluestone
 A collaboration of classical guitar and fiber

Robert & Rebecca Bluestone have found a creative marriage for their differing art forms. Robert is a classical guitarist and Rebecca is a textile artist, but the two often tie their work together. During their stay in Lincoln, Rebecca's work will be displayed on campus, and Robert will be showcased on stage and in classrooms.

Generous support provided by Dietze Music House, Inc.
 A Heartland Arts Fund Program with major support from the National Endowment for the Arts and the Nebraska Arts Council.

Program: Thursday, February 15, 2001 7:30pm
 Johnny Carson Theater

Exhibition: Friday, February 16 - Friday, March 2, 2001
 The Great Plains Art Collection/Christlieb Gallery
 12th & Q Streets

Lied Center for Performing Arts
 Lincoln, Nebraska

Tickets: (402) 472-4747 or (800) 432-3231
 Box Office: 11:00am - 5:30pm M-F
 www.liedcenter.org

Graduating?

Send your sweetheart a FREE Valentine message in the Daily Nebraskan and register for a FREE trip to the Bahamas from eGrad for you and five of your friends...the ultimate graduation trip from your ultimate graduation site! Check it out!

www.egrad.com

Here's how to submit your ad and enter to win the Free Bahamas trip:

Just email your message by 2pm, Tuesday, Feb. 13, to: Valentine@dailyneb.com

You must include your first and last name, email address and graduation date.

Your Valentine message will appear in the Wednesday Daily Nebraskan and online at DailyNeb.com.

Offer is limited to one 25-word message per person. Must be current UNL student graduating in May 2001. The Daily Nebraskan reserves the right to edit or reject any message it deems objectionable. The drawing for the Bahamas trip will be on or near June 15, 2001.

Proudly sponsored by www.eGrad.com and the Daily Nebraskan

Daily Nebraskan and egrad.com

University Theatre presents

The Philadelphia Story

a romantic comedy by Philip Barry

February 15 - 17 & 20-24
 7:30 p.m.

Howell Theatre
 Temple Bldg. 12th & R

For Tickets
 Lied Center Box Office
 402-472-4747 or
 800-432-3231
 M - F 11:00-5:30
 12 & Q sts.

Celebrating 100 Years of University Theatre

$1 Mug Night
$1 Mini Pizza

Every Wednesday from 8pm to midnight upstairs only

2 for 1 Calzones
 All day Sunday

OLD CHICAGO

826 7th Street • (402) 477-2277