

YTERAVIMU
 ABASEN TO YSASHU
 THE NEBRASKAN.
 Personal.

Miss Helen Lau has recovered from her illness.

Harry B. Hicks '91, will enter the law school this year.

George L. Sheldon '92, is attending Harvard University.

Charles Chandler '92, is doing railroad work in Wyoming.

Dan Schell '92, is taking Bible study at Cotner University.

Sam Avery '92, is teaching the sciences in the Beatrice High School.

E. A. Thomas '94, is assistant principal in the Falls City High School.

Miss Nellie Griggs '96, and Miss Ella Cox, spent Sunday at home in Beatrice.

J. B. White '92, leaves soon to take up a course in the Ann Arbor law school.

H. A. Reese '91, has left for Ann Arbor to complete his course in the law school.

Homer J. Edminston '92, is now an instructor in Latin in Cornell University.

Fred Breckenridge is with a surveying party and will not be in school this year.

Supt. Carey of the Fairbury schools, was a welcome visitor at the University last week.

Brook and Porterfield of '92, are at Sheridan, Wyoming, in the employ of the B. & M.

George Sumner '95, is attending the Massachusetts Institute of Technology at Boston.

Miss Ida Bonnell '91, of Chicago, visited among her University friends for several days last week.

E. E. Nicholson and Jesse Becher are at work in the government experiment station at Medicine Lodge, Kansas.

Will Sawyer has returned from Evansville, Indiana, where he has worked at electrical engineering during the summer.

Prof. P. Rydberg of the Wahoo Academy, is still doing scientific work in the University. He was down last Friday and Saturday for that purpose.

Galen Tait, formerly of '92 and now living in Chicago, visited among old time friends at the University during the past week. He will enter the Chicago University.

Corralled.

The University grounds have been greatly improved during the summer.

Manual training is added to the work of the second preparatory class.

The Sigma Ch's have moved into their new quarters in the Montgomery block.

The tools for the manual training department to the value of $1,000 have arrived.

Many of the Lincoln High School graduates, class of '92, are attending the University.

The Union Society will improve the appearance of their hall by putting up new curtains.

The Debating Club will resume its regular meetings this evening. A large attendance is expected this year.

The Independent Club held an enthusiastic meeting last Saturday evening. New members were given at opportunity to join.

The Delta Gamma fraternity has initiated Misses Joy Webster and Helen Harwood. Miss Anna Broady was initiated by the Kappa Kappa Gamma's.

At the reception given by the Christian associations several of the faculty gave interesting talks. Each person attending was given a badge bearing their name, to aid the new students in getting acquainted.

The democrats met Saturday after the Hesperian meeting and organized for the first semester. Their officers are: A. E. Guilmette, president; F. D. Eager, vice president; H. G. Whitmore, secretary; W. F. Wolfe, treasurer; W. M. Johnson, historian; G. H. Hall, sergeant-at-arms. Charlie Skiles wrote up from Cass county inquiring for some oratorical thunder to help him out at Alvo on October 5th. Of course the Univer-