

since Iowa beat them 22 to 0 the last Thanksgiving, so they proceeded to credit their side. Iowa surely has a team that should have a better showing, but a combination of misfortunes has laid them low. Flippin is the mainstay of the local team and made a majority of the plays for his side. His brilliant runs outshone everything else, and it was through the gains thus made that Nebraska got over the line twice. Yet he could not do so well without being well supported by the remainder of the team. Captain Johnston directed the plays in good shape, and showed his ability in this direction better than in outward playing. He was handicapped by injuries received at a previous game.

The teams lined up against each other as follows:

NEBRASKA.		IOWA.
Olliver	.....Left end and right.....	Hull
Howe	.....Left tackle and right.....	Van Oosterhout
Hopewell	.....Center.....	Aldrich
Sinclair	.....Right tackle and left.....	Sanford
Church	.....Right end, and left.....	Johnson
Pace	.....Quarter back.....	Sawyer
Johnston, capt.	.....Right half back.....	Elliott
Mosher	.....Full back.....	Larrabee

Lieutenant Prince of Fort Omaha acted as umpire, while Chas. Wilson of Omaha refereed.

Nebraska made a touch down, and Iowa two touch downs and a goal in the first half, while Nebraska alone made a touch down and a goal in the second.

It was nearly dark when time was called.

Corralled.

Our gymnasium was much admired by the Kansas boys. It is one of the finest equipped buildings in the west, and visitors are not slow to measure its worth.

The young ladies of the physiology and hygiene class were very surprised to have an examination last Friday evening. After this more attention will be paid to the lecture.

Nine hundred and twenty-three students were enrolled by December 1st. The late increase is most gratifying and will make a forcible appeal to the legislature this year for increased revenue.

Last Tuesday Miss Risser gave a party in honor of her friend Miss Snider of Mount Pleasant, Iowa. A conversational programme and "An Art Gallery" made the evening pass pleasantly for all.

Miss Maud Hammond entertained a few friends last week at her home on Seventeenth street. Cards and dancing were the amusements of the evening. Miss Gehan and Mr. Guilmette were the winners at cards.

Iowa college, at Grinnell, wanted to play our team in their city on November 19th, and guaranteed expenses if we would come. Of course it was too near the Thanksgiving game with Iowa to accept.

Several of the Cadets lost parts of their uniforms in the fire at E. Hill's tailor shop Saturday. As the boys had not accepted them on account of misfits, the Pettibone company will be responsible for the loss.

Phi Delta Theta fraternity entertained at their hall two weeks ago. A number of Phis from Kansas were present. A very delightful musicale programme was rendered by the members of the fraternity, assisted by a few friends.

The students of the composition class, English No. 5, are looking for that "dead corpse" which was spoken of in a Shakespeare class recently. If captured, Professor Bates will immediately dissect it with a pen and some red ink.

Personal.

Miss Roberts and Miss Gere visited Rising last week.

Miss Risser was in Council Bluffs Thanksgiving week.

Miss Lau spent Thanksgiving with Miss Burks in Beatrice.

E. W. Brown came back to school from the Norfolk sugar factory, but has been
