

obliged to give up his studies on account of eye trouble.

Miss Lizzie Bonnell visited in Lincoln a few days last week.

Miss Day of Beatrice visited student friends for two days recently.

Fred Gund lives at home now, as his parents have moved to Lincoln.

Professor Sherman is delivering some interesting lectures on Hebrew poetry.

Miss Josephine Treeman spent Thanksgiving with Miss Martha Hutchinson in Ashland.

Professor Green, dean of the Kansas law school, came up with the boys and saw the foot-ball game.

H. A. Shannon of Omaha and Amos Perin of Roca are circulating among Lincoln friends for a few days this week.

Mr. A. C. Fling, who is teaching in the DeWitt high school, spent his Thanksgiving vacation at the University.

Max Westerman visited in Chicago and saw the Thanksgiving game, and Miss Tuttle witnessed the foot-ball game at Omaha.

Professor C. L. Ingersoll represented the experiment station at New Orleans in a recent meeting of the directors of agricultural college experiment stations.

The foot-ball boys had their picture taken Sunday morning, and while together elected E. O. Pace as captain of the team for '93. Hopewell was second choice for the place.

Miss Sarah Wool Moore read a paper on "Ethnic Limits of Art" at the congress of the association for the advancement of women, which convened at Memphis, Tenn., last month.

The Senior class has a "prominent" member who attended one of the Keene plays at the Lansing Thanksgiving week. Several "prominent students" witnessed Keene in "Othello" at Omaha Thanksgiving night, but the society editor failed to reach there.

Art and Music.

Sir Arthur Sullivan has nearly completed a new opera.

M. Paderewski the great pianist, will commence his tour of this country at San Francisco in December.

Dr. Hans Biilow opened the new Bechstein Concert Hall in Berlin with a piano recital on October fourth.

Verdi's new opera "Falstaff" is to be given in Milan next season. It is rumored that Verdi is setting "Don Quixote" to music.

John Philip Sousa has signed a five year contract as director of a new military band with which next year he will make a tour of this country.

The style of the World's Fair Art Building is of the Ionic of the most refined and classic detail. There will be rich ornamentation of statuary and sculptured friezes.

Mr. Zrellner received the thousand dollar purse offered by the Saengerfest committee of Cleveland, Ohio, for the best American composition. There were over one hundred competitors.

The great work of Dr. William Mason "Touch and Technic" is now completed. It is a standard work, and has superceded all the older works of many writers on this subject. It is in four volumes.

Two hitherto unknown symphonies by Mozart have recently been discovered—one in C and the other in F. They are dated 1772 when Mozart was in Tyrol. The works are said to admit of no doubt as to their authorship.

In Boston there has been formed recently, the "Public School Art League." These people believe that children should have their aesthetic taste cultivated at as early an age as possible, and that the refining and educating effect in the school room of objects of art cannot be over-estimated.