

Exchange.

For the benefit of some of our exchanges we wish to state that the name of this paper is "THE NEBRASKAN"; that it is the legitimate successor of "The Lasso" of last year; and that "The Lasso" is no longer published at this institution.

SHAKESPEARE'S IDEA OF A COLLEGE COURSE.

Freshman year: "A Comedy of Errors."
 Sophomore year: "Much Ado About Nothing."
 Junior year: "As You Like It."
 Senior year: "All's Well That Ends Well."
 —Exchange.

A HINT.

"Your figure petite is ever so sweet,
 And there's certainly no getting 'round it."
 Her adorer was scared, and hence unprepared,
 For her question meant more than she hardly dared,
 But she coyly found voice to propound it:
 "So my figure petite is ever so sweet?
 And you're—quite—sure, there's no getting
 'round it?"
 —Exchange.

There is to be a joint debate at Minneapolis between the University of Minnesota and the State University of Iowa sometime the last week in May. The question is: "Resolved that the United States should own and operate the telegraph system." Iowa has chosen the negative, and Minnesota selects three judges from twelve prominent Minnesota men chosen by Iowa. We trust the result will be more satisfactory than in the Michigan-Wisconsin debate of April 9, where the judges turned the debate into an oratorical contest.

The Round Table from Beloit (Wis.) college, is one of our breeziest, brightest exchanges. Especially good in the last issue was the "Columbus" poem, written by a senior for the Glee Club concerts. The following touching chorus appears after each of the eight verses:

Then blow ye winds, heigh ho!
 A sailing I will go.
 I'll bet my hat this earth ain't flat,
 In spite of what they say.
 Queen Bella she's a brick,
 And we'll make those guys look sick
 Who insinuate that I've no pate,
 And am shaky in the stay.

Socals.

E. A. Blanchard has left school.

Where is our boating crew? It is time we heard from them.

C. J. Wertz, special, has left school, but will return next year.

The Sigma Chi Fraternity initiated C. C. Young, '96, on the 17th inst.

Colonel Oliver, our famous football patriot, paid us a visit last week.

F. E. Bishop, '91, dropped in and shook hands with friends last week.

John Farwell '95 was caught reading the signs in the halls one day last week.

Professor Fling lectured in Fullerton last week on "Rome in European History."

Miss Nellie Griggs' home is now in Lincoln. Her parents moved here last week.

C. W. Hershey of Beatrice, spent a couple of days visiting his sister, Miss Fanny Hershey.

Professor Nicholson is giving a course of lectures before the Law school on the Chemistry of Poisons.

G. H. Ellsworth, '88, has been appointed superintendent of construction on the new Library Building.

Paderewski gave a concert in Omaha, Wednesday, April 19. Many students and others attended it.

Messrs. Yont, Tallmadge and Weaver attended the Paderewski performance at Omaha, Wednesday.

E. C. Ames, '96, has been laid up with a sprained ankle, sustained while attempting to dismount from his wheel.

Professor Nicholson addressed the "Sundown Club" of Omaha, on "The Scientific Aspect of Sugar Beet Industry."

The Freshman Electrical students have completed Graphics, and have commenced work in Mechanical Drawing and Machine Design.

F. W. Marsh, photographer, of Omaha, is making exterior and interior views of the