

LOCAL.

Miss Graves of York, is visiting her sister, Miss Nora.

Miss Simpson of Kansas City, is visiting Miss Kate Wilder.

Miss Hutchison visited her sister, Miss Martha Hutchison, last week.

Miss Lulu Dixon was a guest of Miss Maud Shaw for a few days last week.

Mr. Steve Langworthy came down to attend the Junior hop Friday evening.

The Misses Riley, Woodson and Glover and Mr. Lyman, are the latest accessions to the Delian society.

The M. I. C. C. A. society entertain at the home of the Misses Lau, next Tuesday evening.

Mr. Isaac R. Hitt, treasurer of the grand council of Phi Delta Theta, visited Nebraska Alpha on Tuesday.

Professors Fossler, Fling and Barbour were made full professors at the exercises last Thursday evening.

T. E. Wing, '93, came in from Spearfish, S. D., to attend the Charter Day exercises and visit with friends.

Mrs. A. J. Sawyer lectures for the Delta Gamma's at Miss Agnes Sewall's Saturday evening, March 3d.

Mr. T. E. Wing of the class of '93, arrived to-day from Spearfish, S. D. He will be located in Lincoln hereafter.

Miss Laura McDonald and Miss Laura Bridge of Fremont, were guests of Miss Grace Bridge during the celebration.

Owing to the illness of his wife, Mr. Jay Burrows was unable to address the Political Science club as announced.

Mr. Metcalfe, formerly a member of the class of '95 but now a student at the University of Minnesota, is in town for a week.

The students program as given last Friday will be repeated tonight at the Lansing. The glee club will sing "Romeo and Juliet" which was so vociferously requested last Friday.

Prof. W. G. Taylor of the department of political science, delivered a highly instructive lecture on "Prices and Crises" before the class in agriculture, on last Wednesday evening.

At the joint meeting of the Christian associations on last Sunday afternoon, Mrs. Roy Codding, the Misses Merrill and Boutin, E. O. Barr, J. L. Marshall and others of the Alumni, made short addresses.

The Columbia Standard Bicycle of the World, graceful, light, and strong, this product of the oldest bicycle establishment in America still retains its place at the head. Always well up to the times or a little in advance, its well-deserved and ever increasing popularity is a source of pride and gratification to its makers. To ride a bicycle and not to ride a Columbia is to fall short of the fullest enjoyment of a noble sport.

Pope Mfg. Co.,
Boston, New York,
Chicago, Hartford.

A beautiful illustrated catalogue free at any Columbia agency, or mailed for two two-cent stamps.

Professor and Mrs. Fossler entertained the advanced Ger-classes at their home Thursday evening. For the benefit of those who have never been entertained by them it may be said that everyone had a charming time.

Mr. H. K. Wheeler, Mr. E. W. Tillson and Mr. George R. Lewis, all of '97, were initiated by Phi Delta Theta last Saturday evening. Mr. E. R. Churchill of Cheyenne, one of the charter members of the chapter, was present.

You should have heard everybody get up on their toes and yell at the mention of Professor Caldwell's name when he was granted the degree of Master of Arts. It was spontaneous and hearty and showed a small part of the professor's popularity with the students.

The Delta Gamma's give a tea next Saturday evening at Miss Sara Schwab's for Mrs. Corabel Law Boyd, the American member of the world's committee of the Y. W. C. A. Mrs. Boyd is a Delta Gamma from Alpha Chapter at Albion, Mich.

The gentlemen of Sigma Chi gave another delightful hop on the evening of the ninth. Irvine's orchestra furnished the music. Dainty refreshments were served during the evening. Professor and Mrs. Barbour, Professor and Mrs. Richards and Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler were chaperones.

The new members program of Union society will be given in their hall on Friday evening, March 2. A program of rare merit has been arranged. It is exclusively a new members program including, also, the music numbers both vocal and instrumental, which comprise a prominent feature.

The Delta Gamma fraternity was at home to her friends on the evening of Charter Day from 8 to 11:20. Lemonade was served by Miss Hutchison, Miss Kelley and Miss Mullen in the parlors, while Miss Harwood presided over the coffee in the dining room assisted by Miss Sewall, Miss Burnham, Miss Garten, Miss Dewese and Miss Helen Woods. About two hundred guests were present during the evening.

Boiled Oil 55 cents.
Strictly St. Louis Lead $5.50.

B. O. KOSTKA,
Druggist and Painters' Supplies
1224 O STREET.

CHAS. B GREGORY
(U. OF N. '91.)

SELLS COAL

At 1100 O Street.
PHONE 343.

THE A.M. DAVIS CO.
Carpets
1112 O Street.
Furniture
211 South Eleventh St.
LINCOLN, NEB.

WM. GREEN, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon.
1215 O STREET.

Fine Baked Goods
High Grade Confections
Ice Cream and Ices

NEW YORK BAKERY
Telephone 753.
130 SOUTH TWELFTH ST.

Peoples' Barber Shop,
J. M. MORTON, Proprietor.
—SHAVING 10 CENTS.—
Cor. 10th and O Streets. Under B. & M. Ticket
Office, Lincoln, Neb.
BEST OF UNION BARBERS.

Why

Do you buy ready made clothing when you can have a suit to order for the same money?

— SEE —

Wanamaker & Brown's Samples
AT
L. A. BUMSTEAD'S
Lindell Hotel Block.
1236 M Street
Call and see list of Student Customers.

TELEPHONE 270

CLARKSON
LAUNDRY
COMPANY

330-3-4 S. 11th St.

A. H. GLEASON.
Teas, Coffees and Spices.
1234 O STREET.
Coffee Roasted Twice a Week. TEL. 64.

H. W. BROWN,
DRUGGIST,
Books and Stationery,
COLLEGE TEXT BOOKS.

And a Complete Stock of Standard and Miscellaneous Books.
127 South Eleventh Street.

G. W. CLUTTER,
DENTIST,
All Work First Class
—Charges Reasonable.
Rooms 1, 2 and 3, 1134 O Street.