Raw Recruit—"Maybe it is natural for some folks, but a negro puts the hollow of his foot down first."

FROM ILLINOIS.

Shall we be obliged to put a guard in the cloak rooms to protect our property? Bah! Can it be we have a thief among us?

There are four hundred and sixty students enrolled in the German department. The beginning class has been divided into seven divisions.

What do you know about Senior gowns? Shall we take up with such a crazy fad? Yes, and let's all part our hair in the middle and wear tan shoes.

Professor Barbour illustrated his previous lectures on glaciers by magic lantern views last Tuesday. These lectures are very interesting as is shown by the large size of the class.

Mr. Philbrick who has been sick with typhoid fever for the last month, came back to work last Monday. He is looking rather thin, but is still the pride of Prof. Allen.

Dr. Woire thinks there is such marvelous force in the inflaming tides of the ocean that some day we may obtain our heat from that same force. That's a new idea—what do you think of it?

The University orchestra met for the third time last night with a good attendance. In another week it is hoped it will be fully organized. There are two or three new members who will be taken in if it is found they are far enough advanced.

The weather bureau is to have a library of its own, all books in the university pertaining to meteorology being placed there. Some very interesting matter is gathered here among which are pamphlets of the weather reports of all states in the union.

Students should examine the mail boxes in the hall once each day, as mail, telegrams, and special notices are always placed there, and should have attention. Much matter goes from the executive offices to these boxes, and notices that parents or friends are in the city are often sent in this way.

Thursday evening the rooms of the Sigma Chi fraternity in the Halter block were the scene of an initiation, followed by a delightful "spread." The initiates were A. A. The pledged members of the local chapter of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity were very pleasantly surprised Monday evening. Their rooms were invaded, and the unsuspecting young men taken to the rooms in the State block. Here an elaborate banquet was prepared, and the destruction of good things began. The rooms have been re-decorated and are very pretty. An initiation will probably take place in the near future.

The university is pushing its extension work in a new direction. This year it is furnishing coaches for the various high schools. The excellent work of the Ashland team is due to the efforts of A. E. Yont. J. H. Johnston is getting quite a reputation along this line. For the past week or two, he has been coaching the Beatrice team and is now engaged in teaching the Falls City boys the mysteries of foot-ball. Nebraska City had engaged him but through some misunderstanding the deal was declared off.

Rifles Drill.

The Varsity Rifles met in the armory last night, and were put through a stiff drill by Lieutenant Pershing. Enough to form three sets of fours were present, but on account of the absence of the others, the election of officers was not held. The boys are showing up in fine shape and with the "Lieut's" assistance the new company promises to be a "cracker-jack." There is now no doubt expressed but that the Varsity Rifles is a sure thing.

Athletic Board Meets.

The members of the board of directors of the Athletic Association happened to meet each other on the campus last evening, and it was decided there and then to hold a meeting. Useless formality was cast aside, and in a few minutes the committee to select the players was appointed. It is to consist of Captain Dern, Manager Teele, and Corporal Oury. Will Hayward was made base ball manager. An interesting play was made at this juncture by one of the team, which immediately broke up the meeting.
