Fifteen of the Omaha boys met in room 3 Tuesday afternoon, and decided to organize an Omaha club. H. P. Leavitt was made temporary chairman and J. H. Kuhns secretary. A committee consisting of Kuhns, Russell, and Burnham was appointed to assist in receiving the members of the foot ball team when they arrive in Omaha Thanksgiving. Everybody was instructed to make up a yell for the Omaha game, and another meeting will be held at 1:30 Friday afternoon to select one of the yells handed in.

Some foul fiend (who does not belong to the university) swiped Sutton & Hollowbush's big taffy sign. The last seen of it was a little scroll of gray smoke ascending heavenward o'er the campus. It is said the phrase, "Taffy, 15c per pound," was clearly described in the atmosphere by the curling smoke. (The fellow that said this must have had a guilty conscience.)

The steam engine which Everett and Robbins hired to follow the procession and make the night hideous with its unearthly noise broke its rear axle at Tenth and Q and had to make the remainder of its racket at that point. Everett, who was riding on top, was thrown to the ground and quite badly bruised up, but he soon recovered.

A report comes from Springfield Ohio that the Rev. Geo. Herron, of Grinnel college, created a sensation among the congregation of the Methodist church there, and that he was as promptly sat down upon as he was at the Lansing last June when Gov. Crouse objected to his socialistic explosion.

There are 419 students from accredited high schools, and 576 from other colleges and universities, attending the university this year. Miss Tuttle has not yet figured up the number of post graduates.

It was four Kansas boys who first started the yell, "Rock chalk, Jayhawk, K. U. I don't think, I guess not, for we forgot Nebraska!" They came under the window of the hotel the boys were stopping at, and yelled it with a will.

If the battalion is uniformed by Monday evening, dress parade will be formed. As there are not enough guns to go around, sabres will be used—with about as much ease and grace that the raw recruit will display in handling his gun.

When anyone finds he must be absent he must first submit his excuse, and if it is accepted he can be excused. Despite the increase in the size of the battalion, it is better organized than it has ever been before.

When the M. P. train slowed up at the depot Tuesday evening, it is said that one passenger, fearing a lynching was about to take place, jumped from the side of the car and ran hurriedly up a side street.

One would not expect to find many flowers in the green-house this time of year, but the west end is filled with some of the prettiest chrysanthemums in town.

John Green's latest scheme is to put a big chime whistle on the high-pressure boiler, and to blow it instead of ringing the old bell.

And didn't Teele smile?

'89—Chas. Wesley Bigelow, of the class of '89, superintendent of the Madison High school in '91-'93, is now acting as Professor of English Literature, and History in the Denver High School. His wife (formerly Miss May Lower, also of '89,) leaves Lincoln this week to make her home in Denver.

And the band played pool and football.

Notes on the Kansas Game.

The Lawrence grounds are said to be one of the finest in the west.

Regent Kaley, of Red Cloud, was a visitor at the University Friday morning.

Ottawa boys wore the uni. colors at Lawrence at the Baker game, the Kansas fellows did the same.

The Kansas students have their yell down to perfection. They have a remarkable yell, which they know how to use.

The Kansas team has not yet acquired the art of taking defeat gracefully. They did not even invite the visitors to inspect their school.

One of the prettiest plays of the game happened in the first half, when Nebraska took the ball on downs. Kansas was right at our five-yard line—the fourth down brought it within two inches of being over. When the whistle blew Dern had his hands on the ball, with his fingers scraping in the lime with a Kansas player on the opposite side trying to push it over the remaining space. We took the ball and brought it nearly to the center.
