Mr. James W. Searson, formerly of the class of '95, dropped his professional duties at Weeping Water long enough to come down and visit his university friends during the recess. He has a luxuriant sample of senior dignity and said he would come back next year were it not for the fact that he would have to graduate with '96.

William Reed Danroy, the author of "Blades from Nebraska Grasses," has been requested to write a special article for the Washington, D. C. Pathfinder, about the State University of Nebraska. The article will appear shortly and sample copies of the Pathfinder will be found at the NEBRASKAN office.

Though Julian Field is "away down in St. Louis," he has not forgotten the university. In a letter dated the day before Thanksgiving he says "I hope Nebraska will rub Iowa into the earth tomorrow, and Kansas do the same to Missouri, then 'rah for the pennant and Nebraska."

The unparalleled gall of Omaha enterprise is seen in the following telegram sent to the chancellor just previous to the Thanksgiving game: "Announce in chapel that the Barker Hotel will give special dinner for students. Headquarters of cricket and football clubs."

Professor Sherman will deliver the second address in the lecture course of Christian associations next Sunday afternoon at 3 P.M. His subject will be, "Scientific and Religious Thought in Their Latest Aspects."

We are sorry to lose so early two of our best foot ball men. Capt. Dern goes to Salt Lake City to assist in his father's business. Half-back Yont will depart for Harvard where he will pursue his studies in English.

Oh! the agonies of those first hours spent over that history outline. The immortals watch the proceedings with fiendish glee, while the poor little freshman writhes in torment and whines "where-at-sh-shall-I-begin-at."

For Sale.—A set of encyclopedia Britannica, Ninth Edition, with American revisions and additions, at a greatly reduced price, for cash or on time. Address F. T. Riley care of Nebraskan.

The class in advanced Shakespeare have just finished reading "The Winter's Tale." Professor Sherman will now give his delightful lectures on "Antony and Cleopatra."

Parmelee prepared some hot beef tea for the foot ball team which he served at the end of the first half. It was much appreciated.

Instead of the old way for receiving books, the library will hereafter receive monthly assignments from subscribers.

Professor Clark has added half a dozen magazines dealing with athletics to the Uni. Library.

Charlie Squires, formerly of '97, is in charge of a dormitory out at Leland Stanford, Cal.

How do you like swimming in the lake this time of year, Virgil?

Roy S.—"Don't jump Monte, you must glide."

The final debate to decide our representatives will occur tomorrow evening in chapel. A small admittance of ten cents will be charged to cover expenses. The question to be discussed is, "Resolved, That Canada should be annexed to the United States." The contestants are Messrs. McGuire, E. O. Barr, Weaver, Clint Barr, Whitmore, Skiles, and Sherman. The judges will be Hon. A. W. Field, Hon. Sam D. Cox, and Hon. T. L. Norval.

The State University Dramatic Club meet at Josephine Lottridge's home on Thursday afternoon from 4 to 5 for the purpose of effecting a permanent organization. The club proposes to produce for the benefit of their friends certain modern literary dramas and also scenes from classical dramas. There will be one or more performances each year. The friends of the club wish it every possible success.

Mr. Walter Van Fleet Hoagland departed immediately after the senior-junior scrap for the wild and desolate West. The wind was blowing very fiercely out there and the girls were very particular about the personal appearance of their companions. As a result, our senior friend came back beardless.

The annual state convention of the Y. M. C. A. of Nebraska is in session this week at Beatrice. The following delegates went from the state university: Messrs. Welden, Bancroft, Forsyth, Thatcher, Hitchman, Lunn, Thayer, Moody, Kenton, Stewart, Peoples, Moore, Rhodes, Engberg.

Dress parade was held for the first time Friday before Thanksgiving. As long as the weather remains fair, dress parade will be held every Friday.

The elocution classes have held their first recitation in the chapel. As their recitations are class work no one but its members are admitted.

Every second Wednesday evening a bean supper is given in the Universalist church which is very well attended by Uni. students.

First Freshman—"Say, your watch gains twenty minutes an hour." Second F.—"Well that's the one I study history by."

Prof. B.—"I guess they're playing foot ball up stairs." Voice from the back seat—"Prof. Fossler's got a prep."

The senior club met Wednesday evening for business, but nothing was done except to adjourn until Monday night.

Ed Morrill Hurt.

Last Saturday afternoon when Ed Morrill was coming to the university for cavalry drill, his pony slipped and fell, crushing Ed's ankle in the fall. It is reported a very bad fracture, and he will have to keep his leg in a plaster cast for several weeks. Ed says that what he missed more than anything was the Omaha game.
