An excellent program has been prepared.

A very excellent address was delivered last Sunday afternoon in the chapel by Mrs. Peattie of Omaha. Her subject, "The Influence of Christianity in Literature," was handled in a very able manner. She went back to the very earliest writers, showed the condition of literature before the coming of Christ, took up the influence of Christianity on more modern literature. These Sunday afternoon lectures have been very well attended and have been very interesting and profitable. Dr. Brace will speak next Sunday.

The Junior "laws" have been having considerable excitement of late over elections, points of order, and presidents.

A weather beaten face pushing a mass of "Auburn" whiskers was seen entering the south door of the main hall last Tuesday morning. It seemed to be familiar with the surroundings but no one seemed to recognize it at first. At last some sharp-eyed upper classman, after gazing for several moments at the visitor suddenly exclaimed, "Well, if that isn't Montmorency!" Sure enough "Montie" of '94 was back from the West to surprise his friends by his marvelous appearance.

A good joke on Cooley is going the rounds. It was just after the foot ball season when he was drilling an awkward squad made up of Fair and Thorp. He had explained to them what "double time" was, but neglected to tell them what they should do at the command "quick time." He started them at a good live pace and then very suddenly commanded "quick time." Cooley dropped back to a walk, but the sturdy foot ball players, thinking the command meant faster, "hit the road" at such a terrific pace that the sergeant was left far
