

LOCAL

Don Cameron's lunch counter 118 So. 11th, street.

Mr. Dunroy's mother has been ill for the last two weeks.

JOERS:—"Well Rob, this sporting life is—, ain't it!"

"Still His Whiskers Grew." For sale at Estey & Camp's.

The Union program for the 19th inst. is to be billed "Chaos."

The library is not nearly so crowded since bench work began.

Frank Beach, of Nebraska Hall, will leave for New Mexico next week.

Time 3 A.M., STROMAN:—"Say fellows, where's the bed? Dumberd if I can find it!"

Our genial Orry Kellog has left for Butte, Mont., and will not be with us again this year.

Mr. Ralph Saxton has been called home and probably will not be back again before June.

R. P. Teele has been out of school for a few days on account of inflammation of the eyes.

Don Cameron has removed his restaurant to 118 So. 11th St.—one door south of old stand.

Professor Bates was about the halls again on Tuesday, but is still unable to hear his classes.

Miss Annie Spureck has had charge of the young women's gymnasium classes during Miss Barr's absence.

The tennis association is making a strong plea that the courts be left untrammelled by the soldiers on drill nights.

John Hay Kuhns expects to go to Omaha Saturday to meet his father who is returning from an extensive European trip.

Don Cameron's lunch counter 118 So. 11th, street. Fish and game in season. The nicest restaurant for students in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. West, of Red Cloud, were in Lincoln this week visiting their daughter, Miss Nellie, who attends the university.

Miss Jessie Bigelow, who left the university two years ago, has returned and has taken up work, and will graduate with the class of '95.

OUR NEW SPRING SUITS. High

grade, stylish, perfect fitting. See them. You'll like the prices.

Time, 2 A.M. Scene, coal car near the Platte. Dramatic Personae, Robbins, Joers, hunting outfit, and a four ounce bottle of whiskey.

Fred Clements, assistant in the botany laboratory, lectured before the freshman class Thursday morning in the absence of Professor Bessey.

The meteorological department began this week to issue the weekly weather crop bulletin, which is published during the crop season.

Mrs. Gosper has the largest trade of any millinery store in the city, because she carries the most beautiful line of goods—call and examine them.

Prof. Bessey is hard at work revising his book, "Essentials of Botany." There is a great demand for it and the book must be gotten out at once.

Notices were posted in the library Tuesday containing a statement of the law concerning the defacing of books or periodicals belonging to state institutions.

We have enough to bear as it is, but when members of the senior class boast that the chancellor's resignation is due mostly to their graduation this June—its the last straw.

The "Pal" and Delian girls are showing the boys how to manage a "slate" this week. As there are more boys than girls there is a prospect that some girls shall have two fellows.

Miss Wilder, who was called to Kansas City several weeks ago by the illness of her sister, will probably be back this week. Mr. Hall has been giving lectures in hygiene during her absence.

The trustees of Columbia College have voted to lend Prof. Bessey the specimens he asked for. A great deal of formality must be gone through with to obtain possession of any specimens from Columbia.

Next year when white duck pants are in vogue in the battalion we will see the Freshmen wearing a pair of spotless duck trousers with cowhide boots, a Prince Albert coat and fur cap.

The base ball suits are expected to arrive to-morrow and will be worn in a game with a city amateur team which has been arranged. The suits are red, with "U of N" across the breast, in white letters.

The question to be discussed by the Wesleyan and the Union Boys' Debating club is, "Resolved, That in labor troubles arbitration should be compulsory." The debate is to take place May 11th, in the chapel, with the Union boys on the negative.

The junior class held its spring election Friday, April 5th. The following new officers were elected: Mr. Elmore, president; Miss May Whiting, vice-president; Mr. Nelson Pollard, secretary; Mr. Bradt, treasurer; Mr. Sedgwick, sergeant-at-arms.

Prof. Bessey lectured yesterday at Weeping Water before the academy students. His subject was "Glimpses of the Vegetable Kingdom." While in Weeping Water Prof. Bessey went botanizing with eight or ten students, securing a fine lot of specimens.

"Yes," said E. H., as he tapped his spurs with his riding whip, "I've been quite a Jay, Eye See when I tried to get the inside track on Maud S. I was an awful Guy not to know she was "sulky" and hard bitted, but I'll keep up the pace now if I break a hame-string."

Mrs. Humphrey Ward's great book "Marcella" can be had for 39 cents at Herpolsheimer's Book Department. New books received "Puddin' Head Wilson" by Mark Twain, "Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush" by Ian Maclaren, "Princess Aline" by Richard Harding Davis, etc., etc.

Hon. G. M. Lambertson gave a lecture on "Money" Wednesday evening, before the Political Economy club. Mr. Lambertson is a monometallist, and is one of the ablest supporters of that theory in the west. Mr. Bryan will probably give the next lecture, and will present the other side of the question.

TH' NEBRASKY UNI'.

Right here while you're a-talkin'
 Le'me say a word or two,
 An' this one thing I'll promise
 That what I say'll be true,
 If you're lookin' for a splendid college
 That is good clean thru an' thru,
 Why this here Nebraska Uni
 Is th' very best place for you.
 She hasn't th' fines' buildin's
 Nor very much room to spare,
 An' as for her outer showin'
 With others she don't compare,
 But when you git down to learn-
 in'
 You'll find that she does her share.
 She stan's at th' head of the lis'
 sir
 An' that I'll stoutly declare.
 Her perfessers er men of knowledge
 But they're also common men,
 They don't live away in cloudland
 An' only now an' agin
 Cum down like gods to mingle
 With th' students awhile, an'
 then
 Go back ter ther misty dreamin'
 In some secluded den.
 Her students er earnest workers
 They work with a steady aim,
 With them th' thought of failin'
 Is counted a thought of shame.
 Thru many an' hard disappointments
 An' trials too great to name,
 They work ther way to'rds th'
 future
 To honor an' glory an' fame.
 Then a health to Nebraska Uni
 An' here's to th' scarlet an'
 cream,
 An' here's to th' dear old chancellor
 An' one for th' foot-ball team,
 Three cheers for them all an' a tiger
 An' while we've got up our steam
 Let's cheer for th' appropriatio
 An' th' men who favored th'
 scheme
 —WILLIAM REED DUNROY.
