

THE NEBRASKAN

Vol. IV. No. 5.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA, LINCOLN, OCTOBER 25, 1895.

PRICE 5 CENTS

U RAH RAH, U RAH RAH

OUR BOYS ARE VICTORIOUS

Our Ancient Enemy Given a Severe Drubbing—
Second Eleven at Hastings—Foot Ball News.

Our boys are back from their western trip all in good shape. As they came in Sunday evening there was no demonstration on the part of the students, but the boys may be sure their victory is appreciated. The following account comes from one of the players.

The lineup:
NEBRASKA DENVER
Whipple..... Kennedy
Thomas..... Downing
Wilson, Capt..... Galup
Keller..... Field
Bud Jones..... Shaeffer
Dungan..... O'Brien
Shue..... Davis
Thorpe..... Smith
Shedd..... Good
Jones, H. N..... Toomey
Hayward..... Heller

Packard and Wiggins were substituted for Whipple and Shue soon after the game started.

Nebraska won the toss, taking advantage of the sun. After the kickoff the ball was advanced 15 yards by Nebraska, and by systematic bucking it was brought nearly to the middle of the field. By a neat criss-cross 25 yards was made, Whipple taking the ball. Bucking the line again good gains were netted, Bud Jones and Wilson making gains of 3 and 6 yards each time. The halves also made gains easily by end smashes and finally Shedd was pushed over the line for a touchdown, from which he kicked goal. Time, 10 minutes.

On the kick off Nebraska brought the ball nearly to the middle, where it was lost on a fumble. It was picked up by Toomey, who started for a touchdown. He had a clear field before him but was outrun and brought down by Hayward within the five yard line.

Here the referee gave Denver four downs, in which they made a touchdown. They were held within six inches of the line for three downs, but despite vigorous kicking, the referee gave them another trial and they pushed it over. An easy goal was missed. Time 25 minutes.

Nebraska kicked off and took the ball on downs within 25 yards of the goal line. They were started for another touchdown when time was called. Score, Nebraska 6, Denver 4.

THE SECOND HALF.

Nebraska kicked off and Denver took the ball, bucking it back nearly to the middle. Nebraska took it on downs and on Hayward's punt 40 yards were gained. They took it away from Denver on downs but lost it again on a fumble. This did not net Denver anything as they could not advance it, and Nebraska took it again on downs. After a few plays Wiggins, aided by some fine blocking, scored a touchdown. Shedd kicked goal. Time 15 minutes.

Denver kicked into touch, and the ball was brought back by Hayward. Denver forgot her rules and expected a punt. Instead, Hayward touched it down, and blocked by Bud Jones, made a gain of 30 yards. The ball changed hands a couple of times but neither side scored, and time was called with it in the center of the field. Score, Nebraska 12, Denver 4. Touchdowns, Shedd 1, Wiggins 1, Toomey 1; goals, Shedd 2.

NOTES ON THE GAME.

Toomey and Heller, Nebraska's old enemies of Baker and Ottawa fame, for the third time came to grief at our hands.

Bud Jones was always good for the five yards gain and when other plays failed he took the ball as a last resort.

Denver was very confident of winning the game, judging from our defeat at Butte. One man was heard to remark that he did not think Denver would run up a score of over thirty.

Packard put up a stiff game and left end was not noticeably weakened by the substitution.

The Denver game was free from slugging. Our western friend learned this kind of a game did not pay two years ago.

THE HASTINGS GAME.

Last Friday the second eleven played the Hastings athletic team on their grounds in Hastings. At the close of the game the score stood, Hastings 14, Nebraska 0.

The boys returned Saturday morning and were anything but downcast over their defeat. They had many ways to account for it. The most prominent was "too much Johnson."

The game was called at 3:30, Hastings winning the toss and choosing the north goal. A strong wind was blowing straight down the field, giving one side all the advantage.

For more than twenty minutes Nebraska kept the ball in Hastings' territory and no points were made by either side. At this time a serious fumble was made by Hastings and Cameron securing the ball went through for a touchdown. It was a pretty pick up, a fair run, and a legal play, but the umpire did not see it that way and the ball was brought back. This was the only time Nebraska took the ball over the line. They continued, however, for some minutes longer to stop Hastings' advances, and kept the ball from moving dangerously near their goal.

But a few minutes now remained of the first half when Brouette, Hastings' left half was disabled and Johnson, the big 'un, was taken out of the center to play his position. This was the turning point of the game and from then on Hastings located in Nebraska's territory and made touchdowns at their leisure.

It seemed impossible for the Nebraska men to stop the rushes of this giant, Johnson. The Hastings line was heavy and the other two backs were well built men, but the superior playing of the university boys overcame these difficulties. When Johnson came at the line, however, puffing like a locomotive on an up grade, it was merely a matter of how soon he could be stopped. He was bound to gain.

Unjust decisions of the umpire took the ball from Nebraska several times when good gains were being made. The game was slow and uninteresting, as may be seen from the fact that Hastings held the ball nearly all the time and made only three touchdowns. One of these was made in the last five minutes of the first half and the other two in the second half.

The Nebraska boys all played a plucky game against odds that were dangerous to monkey with. Cameron did some especially gritty tackling and saved many yards for Nebraska. No one was seriously hurt though many of the boys bear marks of violent contact with Hastings real estate.

The lineup was as follows:

McKay..... Heilet
Boothe..... Nellis
Pollard..... Garver
Humphrey..... Johnson, Parker
Kindler..... Carruthers
Sargent..... Finley
Bowman-Bliss..... Dungan
Sponner..... Phelps
Oury..... Brouette, Johns'n
Cameron..... Rohrer
Phillips..... Barnett
Umpire: Will Wigton. Referee: Jesse Reynolds. Linesman: George Letson.

NO CAPS AND GOWNS.

An interesting meeting of the class of '98 was held yesterday afternoon, about forty being present. The meeting was called to hear reports of the two committees appointed at the last meeting. The report of the reception committee was adopted and the reception to the Chancellor will be held about the 30th of next month in the conservatory parlors.

The insignia committee reported in favor of caps and gowns, but this was rejected. Three more members were added to this committee, which was instructed to find something else to distinguish them from the common herd.

THEY ASK A CHANGE

SOME COMPLAINTS RAISED

Members of the Faculty Say Athletic Affairs Are Run in a Slipshod and Unbusiness-Like Manner.

From the opinion heard expressed by members of the faculty there will be a general turning over in athletic affairs. Some of the professors are very much displeased with the way things are managed. In their opinion there is no business method about anything. The managers of the various teams have full sway over the exchequer. There is no auditing committee, expenses are contracted and money paid out without accounting to anybody. Money is collected in the same way, nobody given any credit, no record kept of it, and whether the collector has any authority for doing it no one knows. These things must be changed, they say, and think the initial step must be taken by themselves.

This state of things seems true to a large extent, but it is extremely doubtful whether any money has been collected or spent which cannot be legitimately accounted for. Such matters are run in rather a slipshod manner and some change to more business-like methods would be very acceptable to all concerned.

OMAHA CLUB RECEPTION.

The old members of the Omaha Club will receive the new members who entered the University this year, in the parlors of Van Denburg, the O street caterer, Friday evening, Oct. 25, at 8:30. The tables will be arranged in continuous order, and aside from an enjoyable social time which is expected, a number of toasts will be responded to. The program is as follows:
The Omaha Club, Chancellor McLean
"O. H. S. '90"..... A. F. Montmerency
"O. H. S. '91"..... A. W. Saville
"O. H. S. '92"..... A. O. Peterson
"O. H. S. '93"..... Miss Edith Schwartz
"O. H. S. '94"..... E. R. Davenport
"O. H. S. '95"..... Miss Nellie Randall
Omaha Enterprize—

The Co-Op..... W. H. Oury
The Monitor..... H. P. Leavitt
The Nebraskan..... F. T. Riley
The Club's Future..... J. H. Kubus
P. W. Russell will act as master of ceremonies. H. C. Parmelee will receive the guests.

A LIVELY MEETING.

The debating association held a meeting in Union hall last Wednesday afternoon to consider whether an amendment should be added to the constitution debaring any person who had won a previous contest from entering the debates any year after.

It was nearly 2 o'clock before a quorum was present and then a lively session ensued. The motion was brought before the house, and during the course of the remarks several gentlemen became very heated. One faction claimed that certain persons had no right to vote because they had not signed the constitution, and the other faction claimed that certain other persons had no right to vote because they had not paid their dues.

The chair finally ruled that owing to the fact that none of the members had signed the constitution, the proceedings up to this point were entirely out of order and all action was null and void.

At this point McNeal and his crowd left the room. They returned, however, and then a fight nearly ensued. A compromise was soon effected by those present signing the constitution, and the meeting was called to order again. The amendment was put before the house, seven voting for and four against it. As the motion required a two-thirds vote in order to carry, it was declared lost.

THE GREEKS ACTIVE.

Beta Theta Pi initiated J. R. Burks of Beatrice, D. F. Burks of Fairbury and M. A. Hartigan of Hastings Saturday night.

After the initiation the boys had a good time disposing of a bountiful spread.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon chapter initiated three new members Friday night. The boys are now settled in their rooms in the Harris block on N at between Eleventh and Twelfth. The initiates are J. S. Corby, G. K. Bartlett and Roy Sawyer.

Phi Kappa Psi will give a reception to their friends tonight at the chapter house.

A SOPH-FRESH SOCIAL.

The freshman class met again the 18th to consider the proposed reception. Everybody wanted the reception, but nearly all the afternoon was spent in discussion. All tried to do the business according to parliamentary rules, but each one differed as to what parliamentary rules demanded. A division was called for after each vote, a point of order raised at every opportunity, and as soon as the chair had decided the point of order, and appeal would be taken. Several good long speeches were made, some sarcasm used, and several talks heartily applauded. Mr. Follmer presided in a way that would rival a Church Howe. Finally it was decided to have the reception in the parlors of the University Conservatory and the following committee was authorized to co-operate with the Sophs and make all arrangements: F. B. Brown, Minnie Clements, Winifred Nicholsen, R. D. Montgomery, and Annie Vore.

BANJO CLUB ORGANIZED.

The Banjo Club was the first music club to get down to work this year and their early start is already bringing forth flattering results. A thorough organization of the players is perfected. Officers have not yet been elected. R. Thorp, Jr., is manager yet and is devoting a large part of his time to it and to imparting enthusiasm to the players. Thorp says that in less than a month they will be ready to make an appearance.

The club consists of Art Chapman and Ed Franklin, banjeaurine; Will Clark and Russell Thorp, 1st banjos; M. A. Hartigan and L. R. Packard, 2nd banjos; J. B. Becher, Foster Beach and Dave Burks, guitar.

Last year the other clubs were very envious of the perfect management and organization and the excellent individual work of the members, and from the start they have made this year it looks as if the same would be repeated.

CHARLES BIXLER DEAD.

Charles Kent Bixler, a member of the class of '98, died very suddenly in Corning, Ia., on the 18th inst. Mr. Bixler was in school here last year and was recognized as a student of unusual ability. His gentlemanly bearing made him many warm friends who will mourn his death. His home was at Hoyt, Ia.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE.

Resolutions adopted by the Maxwell club October 19, 1895:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the will of an All Ruling Providence, to call before that bar of final pleas, just as he was entering upon the work of his chosen profession, William H. Young of Oakland, Burt county, Nebraska, a member of the law class of '95 of the University of Nebraska, and,

WHEREAS, He was a respected and esteemed member of the Maxwell club; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the members of the Maxwell club, extend to his sorrowing relatives and friends our heartfelt sympathy in this, their hour of sadness and bereavement, and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the parents of the deceased and spread upon the records of the club and sent to the College papers for publication.

A. W. MARTIN,
P. A. POWERS,
J. W. RODGERS,
R. E. HANDRICKS,
W. L. WILLIAMS,
Committee.

WANTED THE EARTH

DOANE'S TERMS DO NOT GO

Would Make It a Fight—Everything Granted, But We Drew the Line at Killing Each Other.

The Doane management made us a visit in reference to a game with that institution Wednesday. They came on a high horse and said they would concede nothing. Would not play in Lincoln or Omaha and would only play in Crete, to which we conceded in the hope of making a game. They would only pay $75 for the game, to which we conceded in the hope of a game. Would not let the coach play, to which we consented, because we did not want to have him to win. Would name their own day, November 19, or three days after our hard Kansas game, to which we consented. Insisted on playing Mains, who is postmaster in the town and takes no work in college, and we gave in to that, and it looked as if we would force them into a game, much as they disliked it, but Mains had a strong card up his sleeve. He would play by no other rules except those of last year, which allow the rough flying wedge and mass plays and which have been decided by all to be too rough.

We would have consented to this, along with our other concessions were it not for the fact that we play under the new rules in our league, and as that game would come right in the midst of our championship season, only three days after the Kansas game, when no time would be had to develop the different interference and spoil our own interference for the Iowa game which follows so shortly afterwards. We could not concede. Were it earlier in the season and at the time when we wanted to play them we would have played under any rules they could devise. But why we should stop right in the midst of our inter-collegiate series and change our whole style of play to give a game to a one-horse school like Doane is more than we can see. They will say: "We beat you last year." Yes, so did the Michigan Military Academy tie Michigan in the first part of the year and so did Doane beat Iowa and Grinnell, but how did she do it? By getting together a team of veterans and practicing all summer and then going against these other teams in the first week of their organization. And how did Doane beat Nebraska last year? By playing her coach in a game when the Nebraska team had only been organized for a week and a half. But Doane has a good manager and he writes well for the newspapers and he will probably spread himself to explain those things which he knows are true.

WANTED--ENTHUSIASM.

The interest displayed by the girls of the University in matters athletic is something remarkable. On Wednesday afternoon, the 23rd of October, three fair co-eds dared to view the football practice from the west steps of the main building. Such interest is surely appreciated by the captain and team, but why can't the young ladies take a little more interest and at least know who it is who works so hard to give the University a good team. This interest by the faculty and students, ladies as well as gentlemen, is what makes a winning team. Doane had all her available men on the team, so that it was left to the president and the ladies to furnish the enthusiasm, and this as much as anything else is what makes the men work.

It makes all these smaller colleges, as Baker, Grinnell and Doane win, and why can't we have a little of it? If the ladies will show an inclination to come out to practice the management will gladly furnish them with reserved seats.

Best quality regulation white cadet gloves are 10c at the Ewing Clothing Co., 1115 and 1117 O.