

TEACHERS' COURSE.

Report of the committee on teachers' course:

The aim of this course is to offer an opportunity to all those regular students who may intend to enter the profession of teaching, and who may wish during their college course, by special and professional study, to prepare for positions of supervision and teaching in departments of higher education.

It also offers an opportunity for a large body of qualified teachers who wish to increase their efficiency by a more extended scholarship and a more systematic study of education, but who do not see their way to spend more than one or two years at present.

All regular students will receive the university teachers' certificate with their bachelor's degree, provided they have completed the requirements of this course as outlined below, and have shown such marked proficiency in the special and professional subjects as to qualify them for successful teaching.

The university teachers' certificate will be granted to such students only as have complied with the requirements of the course and receive either a bachelor's or higher degree from the university. Others completing the course will receive a statement of the fact, and be given proper credit for the work toward a degree.

REQUIREMENTS.

The course covers two years' work, or a total of thirteen university courses, to be divided as follows:

(a) Special Knowledge. The completion of work amounting normally to five university courses in a subject or group of closely allied subjects which the student expects to teach.

The ultimate decision as to the group of subjects and the student's proficiency resting with the head of the department most directly concerned.

The above work will include some instruction by the department with reference to the teaching of these subjects in the secondary schools.

(b) Professional Knowledge. The completion of work in pedagogy amounting to two and two-fifths courses and of work in psychology amounting to one and two-fifths courses; the courses to be designated by the heads of the departments concerned.

(c) General Knowledge. Additional work sufficient to represent two and one-fifth courses (exclusive of the above work) to be elected by the student from the departments of the university under the advice of the head of the department of pedagogy and the head of the department with whom the student is taking his special work.

CONDITION OF ENTRANCE.

This course is to be elective to juniors and seniors pursuing regular courses in the academic and industrial colleges.

It is also open for all graduates of the advanced course of the state normal school who have had at least one year's experience in teaching; to all graduates of the state high schools, accredited by the university, who have had at least two years' experience in teaching, and to all others who can satisfy the heads of the departments concerned that they can pursue the work with credit and with profit.

A member of the journalist class strolled into the Co-Op. "This is great," he remarked. "Easy enough to get six news items this week. I have them already." This is what he handed in:

"1. Art Weaver made a flying trip to Falls City.

"2. Tabor Teale took one of his celebrated walks to Milford, Friday.

"3. Jack Barnes spent Sunday at his home in Norfolk.

"4. The campus has been harrowed.

"5. The weather department has two new signal flags.

"6. George Shedd spent vacation at Ashland."

Many will be surprised to hear of the death of Julian B. Field, formerly '95 in the electrical department. He left the university about a year ago to take a position with the New Orleans Electrical Light company, which he was holding at the time of his death. The report says that his death resulted from burns received in a gasoline stove explosion. He was a private in company "A" of the National Guards and was given a military funeral.

It will be remembered that the university made an effort to get the $1,500 lathe offered by the Davis & Egan Machine company to the most popular technical institution in the United States. Word was received from the company the other day that Cornell university had won the lathe. The petitions sent in by that institution were signed by 95,818 persons. Twenty-three different schools sent in petitions. The university was twenty-first on the list in number of signers.

President-elect Davis of the Y. M. C. A. has arranged his committees for next year's work. The chairman of the different committees are: William Axling, Bible study; S. J. Corey, missionary; R. S. Hunt, financial; J. H. Kuhns, inter-collegiate relations; J. W. Searson, college settlement; C. J. Allen, calling and relief; F. E. Strain, religious meetings; S. W. Pinkerton, membership; E. A. Moore, music; J. S. Boomer, city missions; E. H. King, ushering and rooms; C. A. Fisher, social; J. Sayer, advertising; W. T. Elmore, noonday prayer meetings.

A considerable party of students attended an entertainment given the inmates of the asylum for the insane, under the direction of Ned Abbott, last Friday evening. Misses Friel, Abbott, Smoyer and Davison, and Messrs. Cameron and Keene Abbott gave numbers on the program. After the entertainment an hour or so was passed with cards and dancing.

Valetine McClinchy (derisively)—Verbena McNulty, during the first periods of our acquaintance, I had no objections to the presence of a third party during our interviews, but now that mutual admiration has deepened into love, and love into betrothal, this system, at once insulting and suspicious to the disinterestness of my motives, must cease at once or all will be over between us forever.—Truth.

Consoling.

Prohib—Sixty thousand drunkards die every year.

Soaque—But see how many people get the same dose who never have any fun at all.

Too True.

Willie—What does alimony mean, Pa? Does it mean all the money?
Pa (bitterly)—Yes, all the money a man can scrape together, and more, too, sometimes.

Colonel—Oh, yes, your American ladies' costumes are certainly cut low in the neck; but I saw a man in Paris who was cut lower in the neck than any of you.

Mrs. Ray—A man?
Colonel—Yes; he was guillotined.

Logical.

Major—Which games are you the most passionately fond of?

Marie—Billiards and tennis.

Major—Nothing very passionate in them.

Marie—Oh, yes; I adore billiards for the "kisses" and tennis for the "love."

Moral Suasion.

Old Gentleman—Do you mean to say that your teachers never thrash you?

Little Boy—Never. We have moral suasion at our school.

"What's that?"

"Oh, we get kep' in, and stood up in corners, and locked out, and locked in, and made to write one word a thousand times, and scowled at, and jawed at, and that's all."

Forcing the Season.

Mother—What? Been in swimming? And this time of the year? Mercy!

When I went out to-day I wore my winter coat.

Little Johnny (with teeth chattering)—Yes'm, it was so—so—cold we had to jump into the wa-water to keep warm.

Defined.
"Isn't this a cold snap?" said Dusty Rhodes.
"That's what it is," replied Fitz William, and then the two worthies proceeded with their investigation of the honest w. kingman's dinner pail.

Paradoxical.
Jack—I don't think I care for the new woman.
Jess—Why not?
Jack—She is usually too old.

Very Naturally.
Miss Perique—In New York do the prominent social lights smoke?
Miss Caustique—Yes, particularly after they have been turned down.
