

LOCALS.

Miss Nell Lau is still seriously ill.

5c for 10c music, Hohmann's, 1140 O street.

Hohmann's add. See it?

A. W. Martin spent last week in Chicago.

The board of regents will meet April 15.

J. F. Kapper's father paid him a visit Thursday.

Professor Foster spoke at Hickman Saturday evening.

G. M. Castor joined the Palladians at their last meeting.

Popular sheet music 1/2 off, Hohmann's, 1140 O st.

The Ashland club will meet the latter part of April.

Dr. Davis went to Plattsmouth Thursday to inspect the schools.

Large classes in bench work are being formed for the spring period.

Harry Shedd will run his daily paper at Ashland again this summer.

Buck Robinson gave a duck banquet to his fraternity brothers last week.

Tennis balls at Burlingim's. We have the best. Mail orders promptly filled.

It is announced that there will be some changes in the faculty next year.

"Mike" Hartigan enjoyed a visit from his father the early part of the week.

The father of C. L. Spencer was a visitor at the university last week.

Harry Pingado, who has been sick for the past two weeks, is about again.

See the line of picture frames at the Lincoln Frame & Art Co., before buying. Special prices this week. 226 so. 11th st.

Miss Nicholas, who has been visiting Miss Helen Nance, returned to Beatrice today.

The hail broke about twenty-five panes of glass in the green-house last Tuesday evening.

One of the students in the school of music stopped a runaway horse last Tuesday.

The faculty have been having a number of extra meetings during the past two weeks.

Those solid gold '97 pins are going at half price for $1 at E. Fleming's, jeweler, 1224 O st.

J. W. Crabtree is delivering a series of lectures before the high school class in pedagogy.

The horticultural department is now receiving a large lot of trees and shrubs from the division of forestry at Washington.

Professor Caldwell will address the boys of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity Sunday afternoon.

John Berry, a former student of the university, an ex-member of company B, is in the city.

Hayden is the reliable photographer of Lincoln. His work is always first class. Prices reasonable.

R. W. Thatcher was at the university last week. He expects to be in school again next year.

Professor Nicholson has been attending a convention in Boise City, Idaho, for the past week.

Jack Best is back at work again, with his eyes much improved by the treatment which they have had.

W. S. McLucas, '95, was at the university last week taking in the Beta Theta Pi banquet.

Manager Haywood of the ball team has already made several engagements with outside universities.

The campus has been newly harrowed and sown with bluegrass. Several evergreens have also been planted.

Helen Welsh returned from Omaha today. She was the guest of Ura Kelley, a former student of the university.

Professor Flinn will deliver an address in Ashland next Friday evening at the invitation of the Woman's club of that city.

F. E. Strain, '99, has been sick for the past two weeks. On Monday the doctor pronounced his sickness typhoid fever.

Professor Card received a number of evergreen trees from Weeping Water this week. They will be put out on the campus.

The new tennis courts will be the best in the state. Every student who ever had hold of a racket should join the association.

You can get a copper plate with your name engraved upon it and one hundred cards for $1.50 at Burlingim's. Mail orders filled.

The experimental psychology students have been making themselves about as odious as the poster collections during the past week.

The second junior theme is due May 8. Psychology students will now begin to brush the dust from their "Brain weight" essays.

Miss Ellen Hellman has left the university. She will teach the remainder of the year in the public schools of Missouri Valley, Ia.

A good many of the boys acted as judges of election Tuesday. Nearly all of us would skip an entire day for six big, round dollars.

Professor Flinn spoke before the teachers' association at Grand Island Thursday and Friday on the study of history in schools.

The European history class in middle ages will write a historical story this semester, descriptive of the life in the mediaeval monasteries.

The mother and sister of F. E. Strain arrived from their home in Iowa to attend the bedside of their sick son and brother, who is now convalescing.

The Sigma Alpha Epsilon will give an informal dance Saturday evening, April 11. The Beta Theta Pi fraternity will give one at their chapter house the same date.

Boys remember that Frey & Frey's have the choicest flowers. We are taking careful pains to supply the trade for next Friday night.

A special Easter service was held in place of the usual chapel exercises Monday. Willard Kimball has the credit for originating the idea.

Chancellor MacLean delivered the commencement address before the graduating class of the Omaha medical college on Tuesday afternoon.

Oscar Woods, at one time a university student, has taken a position as solicitor for the King, Richardson Publishing company and will begin work in Iowa.

The Pi Beta Phi fraternity will give a reception at 1639 L street on Friday evening. Mrs. C. H. Morrill, Mrs. A. S. Raymond and Mrs. W. J. Bryan are the patronesses.

Julius P. Sedgwick and Bert W. Wilson left Monday evening for Cleveland, O., to represent the local chapter at the national convention of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

Prof. A. M. Wilson has resigned his position in the university of Nebraska and has accepted a position the head of the department of classical languages in the Lewis Institute, Chicago.

In the recent political turmoil we saw several old university lights flying around. They were not all successful, but nevertheless were on the ground and felt to a considerable degree.

Mr. Cosgrove was almost fatally injured in the forge room last week, while forging some steel. It rebounded and struck him over the eye, inflicting quite a severe cut.

Col. C. H. Gould of South Lincoln recently presented the state museum with an excellent collection of minerals, ores and fossils, which he gathered in Colorado, Wyoming and Montana.

Martin Hiltner had a photograph taken of his hand by the X rays on last Saturday. He was obliged to hold his hand in the same place for two hours and twenty minutes, making an almost painful operation.

There will be a joint meeting of the Christian associations in the chapel next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. John McCarthy, founder of the China inland mission, will speak. Everybody invited to hear him.

Best regulation white cadet gloves 10c at the Ewing Clothing company, 1115-1117 O street.

One Consolation.

Jinks—"So poor Puffem was killed in that railroad accident? He was in the smoker, I believe."
Binks—"Yes, that's one consolation we all have. He forgot to take any cigars with him, and if he was smoking one bought of the train boy, death must have come as a welcome relief."

Safety in Numbers.

Stranger—"Suppose there should be an accident on your elevated railroads. Would it not be terrible?"
Mr. Gotham—"Well, I don't know. The passengers are generally packed in so tight that only the outside layers would get hurt."

Francis brothers, proprietors of the Capital Cafe, have purchased a new coffee urn and are now prepared to dispense a delicious cup at any time of night or day.

No Freckles for Her.

Judge Ragdale tells of a Clarkson youth who wanted to marry. He was awfully freckled and homely, but he said asked Sal, and she said:
"Well, John, I want to marry, I know, but I want a man all one color."
—Atlanta Constitution.

Very Accommodating.

Architect—"Would you like plans for a house?"
Gloomy Party—"I have no money to build a house. Our town is too dead for that."
Architect—"Well, I have something very fine in the way of mausoleums."

Remember that Francis Bros. have reopened the Capital Cafe, 121 North Eleventh street. Short order meals are their specialty.

A Rare Woman.

Jinks—"I never saw a house where everything ran so smoothly as at Broadgrin's."
Minks—"Yes; lucky fellow, Broadgrin. He's got a wife who knows how to keep the servants amused while she does the work."

Sales.

The complaining boarder—This meat is about the toughest that I ever came across. The philosophic boarder—Yes, but then there is very little of it, you know.—Boston Transcript.

And, speaking of the cup, the colored gentleman was no far wrong when he said: "Good name for dat boat ob ours, Missey. Shedone keep all de under boats off, so sh'da de fender!"—New York Recorder.

"If I were only pretty," she sighed. "You can easily become so," said her best friend. "How?" "Disappear mysteriously. I never read of a girl who disappeared mysteriously who was not pretty."—Chicago Post.

Angry pedestrian (picking himself up)—The next infernal scoundrel—O, I see! It was a man on horseback. Never mind, sir. It didn't hurt me. I thought it was one of those darned bicyclers.—Chicago Tribune.

Waiter—Will you have spinach today, sir? Guest—Yes, but I don't want it so spunky as it was yesterday. Bring me some with no sand in it.—Boston Transcript.

Got the Cook.

Mr. Newedd—What! No cook stove in the house? I gave you money to buy one.

Mrs. Newedd—Yes, my love, but I found I hadn't enough to buy a stove and hire a cook, too, so I let the stove go. But the cook is here, and she's a treasure. She has just gone out to get us some crackers and cheese.

Drew the Crowd.

Missionary (Gulchville)—Dear! dear! It's too bad. I am told there has just been a lynching.

Deacon Hairtrigger—Yaas, parson; you said you wished we could have a big crowd here to the openin' of the religious revival, and I told you I'd bring 'em. They're all here.

Looking on the Bright Side.

Said the police judge to the prisoner, a defeated candidate just after the recent election:

"Your wife has left you, you have had your head broken, and your eyes blackened, and your front teeth knocked out, and you have spent the night in a cell."

"Well, your honor, it's a poor heart as never rejoices."—Texas Siftings.

Political Item.

A small boy in an Austin, Texas, Sunday school was asked:

"Where do the wicked finally go?"
"They practice law for a spell and then they go to the legislature," was the pat reply of the observing youth.—Christian Intelligencer.

Would Feel Homelike.

"And now," said the Fiji chief to the Boston missionary, "have you anything to request before we proceed with the ceremony?" "Only this," replied the missionary, "please put a few bears in the pot with me."—London Talk.

BIG Bargains IN

Ladies' Cloaks
Ladies' Underwear
Ladies' Hosiery
Ladies' Gloves
Gents' Underwear
Gents' Hosiery
Gent's Gloves

MILLER & PAINE,
1235 to 1239 O St.

E. HALLETT,
Jeweler, Optician, and Engraver.

DEALER IN

WATCHES, DIAMONDS, CLOCKS, SILVERWARE,
JEWELRY, ETC., ETC.

All goods sold engraved free of charge, and no charge made for examining the eyes.

1143 O Street. Lincoln, Neb.

THE PALACE DINING HALL Is the PROPER PLACE to get your Meals.
SPECIAL RATES TO STUDENTS
ALL YOUR FELLOW STUDENTS BOARD HERE.
TRY US.
1130 N ST. A. G. OSMER, PROP.

R.I.P.A.N.S

ONE GIVES RELIEF.

COAL COAL COAL
CHARLES B. GREGORY,

Dealer in all kinds of

COAL

Rock Springs,
Pittsburg,
Wier City,
Lexington,
Anthracite,

Hurricane,
Semi-Anthracite,
Canon City,
Peerless,
Hanna.

Office, 1100 O Street
Richards' Block.
Yards, 14th & Y Sts.
Telephones
Nos. 343 & 345.

ANNEX RESTAURANT

133 South 12 St.

Calls special attention of the readers of The Nebraskan, to the fact that they can get the best and cheapest meals there of any place in the city. A square meal 15 cents Short orders at all hours. 10 Per cent off on $3 Tickets

L. C. Holaday, Prop.

J. H. EVANS,

President.

C. C. QUIGGLE,

Secretary.

EVANS
LAUNDRY
COMPANY

Telephone 199.

327-331 North Twelfth St.