

LOCALS.

Fine stationery at Leighton's.
 Junior themes were due today.
 Dr. J. S. McNay, leading dentist, 1136 O street.
 E. F. King has gone to Chicago to see Sarah Bernhardt.
 Company A is planning to have a banquet in the near future.
 The baseball team will play another game at Omaha a week from next Saturday.
 Cliff Norton and Burt Wilson will ride to Peru this week and spend Sunday there.
 Willard Clapp spent Sunday with his parents in Elmwood. He made the trip on his wheel.
 Hayden is making some fine finishes in photograph work. Examine them, 1211 O street.
 County Superintendent Clarke of Saunders county visited his son, Edgar, last Saturday.
 Gene Brown has been on the sick list all week. He is reported as much improved today.
 Wednesday evening the Political Economy club listened to an address by Col. L. C. Pace.
 The last English 4 class this year was held last Tuesday. The last theme is due next Tuesday.
 V. R. McLucas had to move for home Wednesday. He was taken with a severe attack of fever.
 You will find Leighton's a reasonable and reliable place to get stationery, 202 and 206 South Eleventh.
 Edward G. Wyckoff has decided to build a boat house for Cornell university that will cost $20,000.
 Professor Brunner and his assistant, W. D. Hunter, are up on the Platte collecting insects this week.
 J. W. Crabtree attended the state high school declamatory contest at Ashland last Friday night.
 Ernie Haughton, '95, mixed up with a tandem last week. He says everything is injured but his appetite.
 Another large pane of glass, this time in the door of the European history department, was smashed this week.
 The superintendent of the Friend schools will bring a delegation of his students to visit the university next Friday.
 Miss Robbins and Miss Jones will probably go to California together after commencement. Miss Jones will be gone until September.
 The oat field between the walks has been enclosed with a neat wire fence, and the old boulder will rest in solitude the rest of the year.
 The Lincoln Frame and Art company are settled in their new quarters at 212 South Eleventh. It's time you were having that group framed.
 Jack Barnes spent Sunday at his Norfolk home and brought his father back with him Monday. Jack ordered a dress parade for the occasion.
 William Reed Dunroy had one of his poems in the last issue of the Ram's Horn. It was profusely illustrated after the unique fashion of this paper.
 The chancellor spoke at Beatrice Tuesday, April 5, before the literary club of that city. He will speak at Red Cloud Friday and Franklin Saturday.
 E. T. Merrill and G. K. Bartlett were the guests of Captain Webster of Fort Omaha last Saturday. Captain Webster is an old time Sigma Alpha Epsilon.
 The university wheelmen will meet in the law room at 2 o'clock Saturday. After the meeting they will take a run to Beatrice. The club will be headed by Captain Burks.
 The Ashland club will meet next Monday evening with Miss Lena Redford, 403 South Sixteenth street. They will be addressed by Dr. Lees of the Greek department.
 Princeton college will commemorate its 150th anniversary next October. After that time the "college" will be changed to "university" and will be known as "Princeton University."
 The Nebraskan was furnished with lots of "copy" this week in the way of signed communications from cadets de-

OUR STRAW HATS ARE RIGHT

Our negligee shirts are the latest.
 nouncing the action of the authorities in depriving them of bath privileges.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Langworthy Taylor will give a reception to the students in the political economy department at their home, 511 North Sixteenth street, next Tuesday evening.
 The Palladian debating club will meet as usual Saturday evening. The question for debate will be: "Resolved, That the existence of parties is necessary in a free, democratic government."
 An excursion will be made to Weeping Water next Saturday by some of the students, presumably to get botanical specimens. The crowd will leave in the morning and come back in the evening.
 There will be a meeting of the debating association next Saturday afternoon at 7 o'clock. Every member of the association is asked to be present as there is important business to be transacted.
 The Y. M. C. A. boys have been soliciting subscriptions this week for the fund which is used in sending delegates to the summer school at Lake Geneva, Wis. Several of the boys expect to go this year.
 The committee on field day have succeeded in getting a number of good prizes. Besides the articles usually offered, such as sweaters, shoes, etc., medals will be given to those who make new university records.
 Students are inveterate punners. We expect it of them. But when it comes to puns, well, this is what Professor Wilson rung in on a Virgil class: "If you think the te refers to Eutellus, Miss P., we want you to tell us no."
 Mrs. Archie Eggert of Chicago, well known in university circles as Miss Anna Aldrich of the class of '94, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Crandall, on South Fifteenth street. She will remain for a month. Her little boy is with her.
 Dr. W. B. Pillsbury of Cornell, a graduate of the university of Nebraska, has been offered the position of instructor in philosophy. His work at Cornell has attracted considerable attention among those interested in psychology.
 For ten days Dr. H. M. Betts will give students a discount of 20 per cent on all optical work. If you are troubled with headaches you had better have your eyes examined. They often cause it. Hours, 10 to 12 a. m., 2 to 5 p. m.; Richards block.
 The Narragansett Machine company of Providence, R. I., has contributed, for the advancement of athletics in Nebraska, a thirteen-foot spruce vaulting pole as a field day prize. This is a $5 pole and as fine in every respect as can be made. It is worth hard practice and should not be won for a vault of less than nine feet. Two other poles twelve feet long will also soon be here for practice.
 The Union Pacific will change time Sunday, May 16. No. 42 will leave Lincoln at 8:45 a. m., making connection at Valley with No. 5 for all points on Albion, Cedar Rapids and Ord branches and No. 3 (fast mail) for all points west on main line. No. 43 will leave for Beatrice at 6:37 p. m. instead of 6:55 p. m. The Stromsburg branch will have a passenger train and will leave Lincoln at 5:10 p. m. and arrive at 10 a. m.
 A supplemental collection of rocks, minerals and ores has recently been received from Rev. L. P. Rowland of Grand Rapids, Mich., in exchange for specimens he received from the Morrill collection. This is one of the most valuable collections ever received by the state museum. It consists of very large and choice ores of iron, natural copper, pure silver and silver and natural copper fused. The collection will fill a case or two.
 In the light of training and entries for field day, attention is called to the article of the constitution of the athletic board, which says that no student shall engage in any athletic contest without a physical examination. The regulation was made solely in the interests of safety, and every contestant should attend to it before the last minute. The physical director will make appointments after May 16 with all who wish measurements.
ED YOUNG'S
 Cigars and News,
 1207 O Street.
 Telephone L.

An Interesting Conversation.
 Mother—Did you try to make yourself agreeable at Mrs. Hightone's?
 Little Daughter—Yes; I told her all the funny things our callers said about her, and she seemed to be real interested.
Learned a Lesson.
 Mother—Horrors! Did you run against a barbed wire fence?
 Little Johnny—No'm. I was pickin' at a organ grinder's monkey an' the monkey jumped on me.
 "Humph! I hope you have learned a lesson."
 "Yes'm, I've learned never to buzz-saw with a monkey."
 Four good men are employed at Constancer's barber shop, 1010 O street, where you get the cleanest shave and neatest hair cut.
A Dangerous Movement.
 Manufacturer—And what do you do at your Thirteen club?
 Member—Oh! dine thirteen at table, spill the salt walk under ladders—everything to break down all these absurd old superstitions. Will you join us?
 Manufacturer—No, sir! Why, if such ideas get popular, what'll become of the protective tariff?
Expectation Surpassed.
 Parker—I have received very gratifying news of my son who recently went to college.
 Barker—Yes? What news?
 Parker—He's home.
A Notable Case.
 Marigold—What an interminable time it does take a woman to say good-by!
 Clover—Yes; just look at Patti now.
Diamonds Still Tramps.
 Mayden Layne—How does your father pass his time, now that he has retired from business?
 Marcus Sparis, Jr.—Gards are a great comfort to him. He busses der time blaying solitaire mit himself.—Puck Burned Her.
 "That was real rude of Chumpleigh. He dropped a lump of ice down that Boston girl's back."
 "What did she do?"
 "She screamed 'Fire!'"
Off Color.
 Pentweazel—I didn't notice your servant in the parade.
 Cobwigger—He has the yellow jaundice and was afraid to show his face outside the door on St. Patrick's day.
 Don Cameron's lunch counter, 118 South Eleventh street.
The Bright Side.
 Friend—Where are you living now?
 Illuck—Since I lost my money I have been renting a little house in the suburbs.
 "Too bad! You can't keep a carriage, either, I presume?"
 "N-o-o-o, I can't afford a carriage; but in the house I get the same kind of a motion when the wind blows."
A Sincere.
 Henry Newedd drew his young wife to his bosom. His face was radiant with joy.
 "I was successful, my darling," he said. "I secured the clerkship I applied for on the board for securing immediate rapid transit facilities."
 A sweet smile of serene happiness wreathed her dainty lips. She knew then their future was assured. He had secured a position for life!
 Don Cameron's lunch counter, 118 South Eleventh street.
Trouble in Paris.
 M. Worth's Assistant—I am grieved to say that Madame Van Bank of New York has ordered a creation from Felix.
 Monsieur Worth—Morbieu! I do not understand it. And we have done everything possible to please that woman! Is it, perhaps, that our prices are not high enough to suit her?
No Impression.
 Father (meaningly)—Want a new sled, do you? The other day I saw a beautiful sled that a boy no older than you had made himself.
 Small Son—Wot a awfully mean, stingy father that poor boy must have.
A Lazy Boy.
 Teacher—You are the laziest boy I ever saw. How do you expect to earn a living when you grow up?
 Lazy Boy (yawning) Dunno. Guess I'll teach school.
Lenten Diversions.
 Little Dot—Let's invite some little girls here, and have a party.
 Little Ethel—This is Lent.
 Little Dot—Oh, so it is. Well, we'll tell zem to bring their dolls, and zen it won't be our party, it will be a dolls' party. Dolls hasn't any souls to save, you know.

BIG Bargains IN

Ladies' Cloaks
 Ladies' Underwear
 Ladies' Hosiery
 Ladies' Gloves
 Gents' Underwear
 Gents' Hosiery
 Gents' Gloves

MILLER & PAINE,
 1235 to 1239 O St.

E. HALLETT,
 Jeweler, Optician, and Engraver.

DEALER IN
 WATCHES, DIAMONDS, CLOCKS, SILVERWARE,
 JEWELRY, ETC., ETC.

All goods sold engraved free of charge, and no charge made for examining the eyes.

1143 O Street. - - - Lincoln, Neb.

THE PALACE Is the PROPER PLACE to get your Meals.
DINING HALL SPECIAL RATES TO STUDENTS
 ALL YOUR FELLOW STUDENTS BOARD HERE.
 TRY US.
 1130 N ST A. G. OSMER, PROP.

R.I.P.A.N.S
 ONE GIVES RELIEF.

COAL COAL COAL
CHARLES B. GREGORY,
 Dealer in all kinds of COAL

Rock Springs, Pittsburg, Wier City, Lexington, Anthracite, Hurricane, Semi-Anthracite, Canon City, Peerless, Hanna.
 Office, 1100 O Street Richards' Block. Yards, 14th & Y Sts. Telephones Nos. 343 & 345.

ANNEX RESTAURANT
 133 South 12 St.

Calls special attention of the readers of The Nebraskan, to the fact that they can get the best and cheapest meals there of any place in the city. A square meal 15 cents Short orders at all hours. 10 Per cent off on $3 Tickets

L. C. Holaday, Prop.

J. H. EVANS, President. C. C. QUIGGLE, Secretary

EVANS LAUNDRY COMPANY
 Telephone 199. 327-331 North Twelfth St.