

LOCALS.

The Y. M. C. A. will give a social in the near future.

Baker and Graham are stumping the state this week for Bryan.

Mrs. Kimball will give a Halloween party to conservatory students next Saturday.

Dr. C. E. Bessey has just been elected a member of the American copyright league.

Dean Reese has posted on the bulletin board some decisions as to legal voting by students.

Miss Bonnie Forbes has been obliged to return to her home in Fremont on account of illness.

Miss Anne Stuart will entertain the members of the Pi Beta Phi sorority at her home Halloween.

The second eleven played the high school team Monday and were defeated by the score of 12 to 0.

The DeLian society will give a political program this evening.

Westfield, the barber. Has done work for students for seventeen years.

A prayer meeting service is held every noon at the Y. W. C. A. rooms in the main building.

Have your tonsorial work done at Westfield's. You will get the latest style of hair cut there.

Last Thursday M. A. Brown of the Kearney Hub, gave an interesting talk to the class in journalism.

Constance the popular barber is located at 1022 O street. He employs the best artists of any shop in the city.

Professor Sherman left for Des Moines Monday to hear Ian McClaren, author of "Beside the Bonnie Brier Bush."

A valuable collection of revolutionary relics has been presented to the state historical society by Mrs. Manning.

Mrs. Manning has been suffering from rheumatism during the past week and has been unable to hear her classes.

Dr. Bentley's lecture on hypnotism was not very well attended Wednesday evening on account of the inclement weather.

The English club meets Saturday evening at the home of Miss Pound 1632 L street. Excellent music will be provided.

Professor Barbour has returned from his western trip, but has gone to Milford Neb., to inspect a supposed gold find.

Leighton's 1213 O street—The best stock of stationery and school supplies in the state, wholesale and retail. Call and get prices.

The Union Boys' debating club celebrates its tenth anniversary tonight. The program was published in last week's Nebraska.

The photographs which E. G. Lloyd sent to Lincoln to be mounted, took first premium at the Irrigation fair held at North Platte.

The students' volunteer mission band will hold meetings at the First Congregational and First Baptist churches next Sunday evening.

Four new members were taken into the Union society Friday evening; Misses Wallace and Jessie Chappell, and Messrs. Harris and Kinkaid.

The literary societies will give a joint program in the chapel next Saturday. It is given under the auspices of the building associations.

Reverend Singly who has just resigned the pastorate of St. Mark's Lutheran church, led the chapel exercises at chapel Wednesday morning.

Rev. D. Fitzgerald of Auburn recently presented to the state historical society a large Indian stone axe and a very curious geological specimen.

A. A. Furot who graduated with the class of '91, will be in the city Saturday, and stay over Tuesday. He would be glad to see some of his old friends. He is stopping at 1448 P street.

Guy Barnes '06, brother of J. B. Barnes '06, has just had an operation performed for appendicitis. He stood it wonderfully well. His early recovery is looked for.

A class in advanced work in the gymnasium has been organized. There are about half a dozen young men in the class at present. It meets from 12 to 1.

The freshman team played with Worthington academy Wednesday afternoon. When the riot was stopped by the rain, the score stood 0 to 0 in favor of the freshmen.

The chemical journal class has started with seventeen members. It meets every Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Each member is assigned a chemical journal upon which he reports once a month.

Professor Caldwell has inaugurated a reform in his history outlines. The classes are now furnished with neatly printed ones instead of the old style of dim and almost unreadable mimeographs.

The Co-Op. has secured some very neat university letter head paper this year with envelopes to match. The lettering is done with a dye, and shows up well. A large stock was laid in so as to supply all demands.

Students who want to get a "good thing" for little money in the way of note books, pencils, fountain pens, and other school and college supplies, always go to the book department of Herpolsheimer and Co.

Sawyer, Bartlett, Morrill and Haughton, have left for Canton to represent the Nebraska chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon at the convention which meets this week at the home of McKinley, who is a member of this fraternity.

Dr. C. E. Bessey has been invited to speak before the northwestern Nebraska teachers' association which meets at Chadron, Neb., the last week in November. The subject of his lecture will be "Nature Study in the Public Schools."

Do you know that headaches and many nervous affections are due to the eye strain, and can be cured by scientifically fitted glasses? Examination and consultation free. H. M. Betts, Richards b'k. Room 32. Hours 9 to 12 a. m. 1 to 5 p. m.

If you want a fountain pen the cost of which is ten cents, you can get it by looking up Herpolsheimer and Co's book department. You can also get better grades from $1.00 to $5.00. Herpolsheimer and Co. are agents for Waterman's "Ideal" fountain pen.

The recital by the department of elocution, was held in the chapel last Thursday night. The lower part of the hall was comfortably filled. The program was short. Messrs. Hugh Walker, G. E. Hager, Henry Nienhaus, and the Misses Smoyer and Wilkinson, took part.

The party which was to have been given Saturday night by Miss Alice Slaughter has been postponed until some night next week. The postponement was necessitated by the death of Judge E. S. Dundy. Miss Slaughter will go to Omaha to attend the funeral tomorrow afternoon.

Owing to the many rumours that Russian thistles had not grown this year because of the wet weather, inquiries regarding them were sent out by the botanical department to different parts of the state. The replies indicate that the wet weather has increased their growth.

There will be a meeting of the Omaha club next Friday, November 4. Important business will be transacted and all Omaha students, whether members of the club or not should be there. Junior Annual business; amendment to the constitution and election of officers will be held.

Dr. Bessey has been compelled to spend a great deal of time lately in answering inquiries as to the better methods of teaching botany in the high schools. The teachers seemed to be very much dissatisfied with the way botany has been taught heretofore and wish to do better work.

Saturday evening it was necessary to postpone the gold-silver debate for want of patronage. The reason assigned was that students wanted to attend the downtown political meetings. Wednesday evening the same was true except that the reason assigned was inclement weather. The debate has now been declared off for good. The country remains unsaved.

The Y. M. C. A. boys are looking forward with pleasant anticipations to the state convention which will be held in this city early in December. C. C. Michener, one of the international secretaries, and W. L. Messer, secretary of the Chicago Y. M. C. A. have both promised to be present and take active part in the convention.

Saturday afternoon four new members were added to the Pi Beta Phi sorority. These were Misses Phoebe Doty, Darleen Woodward, Bertha Quaintance and Ada Waugh. Miss Neva Morris was also publicly pledged. The initiation was held at the home of Miss Kate Walker and was followed by a supper. Boxes of beautiful carnations, the sorority flowers were sent to the girls by their friends.

The department of European history has just received some very valuable additions to the seminar library. Among others is a set of thirty-one bound volumes of the "Monteur," a paper published in Paris during the revolution. It is a reprint, and will be of immense help in getting into the spirit of the "Ar-times. Forty more volumes of the "Archives Parlementaires" have been added. They contain the various documents relative to the different assemblies of France from 1287 to 1792. Forty neatly bound volumes entitled "Histoire de la Revolution Francaise" also grace the shelves.

Chancellor MacDowell of Denver university, a man of national reputation, both as a lecturer and scholar, will, in all probability, address the members of the Christian associations Sunday afternoon, November 15. It will pay the students, no matter whether they are members of the Christian associations or not to hear this man. More definite announcement will be made in a later issue of the Nebraskan.

There will be a meeting of the Nebraska section of the American chemical society on Friday evening at 8 o'clock in room 4, chemical laboratory. Papers will be read by the following: T. L. Lyon, "An Apparatus for Taking Soil Samples for Moisture Tests;" Miss Bouton, "The Mineral Constituents of Some Nebraska Waters;" Professor Nicholson, "Preliminary Paper on Constitution of Ciders." Everybody is invited.

There was a very enthusiastic meeting of the Christian associations in the chapel Sunday afternoon. Messrs Pinkerton, Sayer and Allen, and Misses Mathews, Broady and Auman, who attended the Lake Geneva summer school, gave their reports of the observations there, and gave the members of the associations the benefit of some of the suggestions they received at the conference.

One by one our fraternities are bringing out their new members. Last Thursday evening, the Kappa Kappa Gammas initiated Misses Clara Hammond, Eleanor Raymond and Adeyad Whiting. The initiation was held at the home of Miss Grace Leming. Later in the evening the spread was served at the home of the Misses Gere. Many lovely flowers were received by the fraternity from their different friends.

A lunch room was opened Wednesday in the basement of University hall for the benefit of the students who eat cold lunches. Anne Spurke and Charlotte Clarke are the proprietors. The bill of fare reads: Soup five cents occasionally, pie four cents, tea coffee or cocoa four cents, milk three cents and bread and butter two cents. Sandwiches are retailed for three cents. Doughnuts can be had for three cents also. The girls warrant everything home-made, and are careful to see that every patron is properly treated. The venture seems certain of success.

A fountain pen usually costs from $1.50 to $3.00. We sell one for 99 cents and warrant it gold with iridium point. If you are not satisfied with it bring it back and we will refund you your money. Herpolsheimer and Co., Book department.

The Union boys' debating club will use this yell at the celebration tonight: "We're for silver, we're for gold, ma-ma knows we're ten years old!!!!"

Browning, King, & Co.

"BEST" AND "CHEAPEST"

PLACE TO BUY CLOTHING,
HATS AND FURNISHINGS.

No one in justice to himself can afford to ignore our special values in young men's Nobby Fall Suits. They are marvels of beauty, and are cut and made by our own experienced tailors. You get the same fit and make in our goods whether you pay $5 or $25 for your suit. Our experience of over fifty-six years of clothing manufacturing, wholesaling and retailing should be worth a great deal to you. Besides our great experience our business is conducted on the "honor bright" plan. Everything is marked in plain figures and you will find no "dark cabinet" work in our house.

MEN'S SUITS, $2.75, $3.45, $4.95, $6.50, AND $10.00, WHICH CANNOT BE DUPLICATED IN THE CITY FOR MANY DOLLARS MORE.

MONSTER SALE

on hats this week. Call and see the nobby fall shapes in stiff and Fedora hats.

IT PAYS TO TRADE WITH

Browning, King & Co.,

1013-1019 O STREET.

Big Bargains in

Ladies' Cloaks
Ladies' Underwear
Ladies' Hosiery
Ladies' Gloves
Gents' Underwear
Gents' Hosiery
Gents' Gloves

MILLER & PAINE,

1229 to 1239 O Street.

E. HALLETT, Jeweler, Optician and Engraver.

Dealer in Watches, Diamonds, Clocks,
Silverware, Jewelry, etc., etc.

All goods sold engraved free of charge, and no charge made for examining the eyes.

1143 O Street - - - Lincoln, Neb.

You will save both
...TIME AND MONEY...

By taking the

CITY TICKET OFFICE, 1044 O Street.

TWO TRAINS DAILY

-BETWEEN-

LINCOLN

-AND-

Auburn, Falls City,
Atchison, St. Joseph, and Kansas City.

City Ticket Office, 1201 O Street.

H. C. TOWNSEND, Gen'l P. & T. A.
F. D. CORNELL, C. P. & T. A.

FREY & FREY, FLORISTS...

We are headquarters for choice cut roses and carnations, palms decorations at lowest prices.
Corner of Twelfth and O streets, Funke Opera House block. Tel. 234. Lincoln, Nebr.

Chas. B. Gregory C
U. of N., '91.

Office A
At 1100 O St., S
Lincoln, Neb. H

PRIESTS OF PALLAS PARADE.

(Kansas City Mo. Oct. 8-10.)
The Union Pacific will sell round trip tickets for $5.75 on October 14th to 16th, good to return 11th. Day-light trip, arriving at Kansas City 5 p. m. City ticket office, 1044 O street.

Once in a while it happens.

that the local ticket agent cannot give you all the information you require.
When this is the case, write to me. I have copies of the latest rate sheets and railroad time tables and can tell you EVERYTHING you want to know about the best and cheapest way to reach Denver, Salt Lake City, Ogden, Deadwood, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Helena, Butte, Spokane, Seattle, Tacoma, Portland, or any other western or northwestern city.

J. FRANCIS, General Passenger Agent
Omaha, Nebraska.