

LOCALS.

The senior class enrolls just 101 members this year.

The Misses Bridge spent their vacation at their home in Fremont.

E. H. Polley had cranberry sauce and other good things at Seward.

Germain Towl was at South Omaha during the turkey eating period.

Cliff Wescott spent his holiday at his home, Sunnyside, in Plattsmouth.

Professor Bruner spent Thanksgiving with his parents at West Point.

Miss Margaret Davis went to Plattsmouth to spend the short vacation.

A complete set of Benjamin Franklin's works has been added to the library.

Mrs. Manning's classes in elocution will give a recital in the chapel December 17.

R. L. Cheney, '96 surprised his university friends by a visit during the vacation.

Tim McCarthy was a visitor at the university during the Thanksgiving recess.

The Union society will have their semi-annual musicale a week from Friday night.

L. H. Robbins is now holding down an embryonic journalistic job on the State Journal.

R. W. Thatcher entertained several of his college friends at his home Thanksgiving evening.

Harry Shears of Omaha came to Lincoln Saturday, and was the guest of Ralph Haggard.

S. J. Corey is rapidly recovering from the injuries he sustained in the Junior-freshman game.

G. W. Dayles was called to his home in Rising City during vacation by the death of his aunt.

Clyde McDowell went home to eat turkey at Fairbury and has been looking cheerful ever since.

Miss Flora Bullock won the prize of twenty-five dollars offered by the Courier for the best story.

The friend of Miss Florence Smith will be glad to hear that she is recovering from her long illness.

Mr. J. A. Barrett returned Tuesday from Council Bluffs where he spent Thanksgiving with his brother.

Captain Guilfoyle was one of the most conspicuous enthusiasts, Nebraska had at the Thanksgiving game.

The English club will meet Saturday evening at the home of Miss Annie Prey Nineteenth and G streets.

Constance the popular barber is located at 1022 O street. He employs the best artists of any shop in the city.

Chancellor MacLean delivered an address before the southwestern teachers' association at McCook on last Friday.

Will McKay is suffering from dyspepsia brought on by a tussle with turkey and other good things he found in Omaha.

Dr. Bessey is drawing plans for a new microtone which will be made especially for the use of students in this university.

J. W. Seanson spent Thanksgiving at Plattsmouth. He expounded the source study method to the teachers of the county.

Professor Taylor will hear the classes in journalism during the absence of Mr. Jones who will spend the holidays in the east.

The botanical seminar will hold an open meeting tomorrow afternoon. The younger members of the club will furnish the program.

Among West Point students who ate turkey at home, were Fred Kruegle, Eva O'Sullivan, J. C. Crawford and J. E. Langer.

Miss May Hopper '96, who is now teaching at Alliance, was elected secretary of the Northwestern teachers' association last week.

If you miss your meal at your regular boarding house, come down to Francis Bros.' restaurant and try a fifteen cent meal there.

Ernest Gerrard has tired of his job of correcting the first year Shakespeare books and Leo C. Smith now holds this responsible position.

This is your time to buy holiday goods at E. Fleming's, the jeweler, 1224 O street. Don't fail to call. You will save money by so doing.

Prof. Card who was chairman of the section on horticulture and botany at the recent associations of experiment stations at Washington, D. C., stopped in Pennsylvania on his way home. He attended the meeting of the agricultural department of that state at Harrisburg, where he gave and received some valuable ideas in his line of work.

At Leighton's you will find the finest stock of stationery in the city to choose from. Our prices are the most reasonable, 1127 O street.

A special college settlement tea will be given Saturday afternoon at the hours of 4 and 6 o'clock, at the home of Daisy Cochran, 1144 D street.

It affords us the most supreme edification to be informed that Mr. Fred C. Cooley attended the game in Omaha Thanksgiving day.

Chancellor and Mrs. MacLean will entertain the senior class Saturday evening, Monday evening an alumni conference will be held at his residence.

John Dixon was seen at the game Thursday at Omaha. A number of other Nebraska City alumni had planned to do there but the weather prevented.

The society of electrical engineers will listen to an address by Professor Browne Saturday evening December 5, at 8 p. m. in Professor Owens' lecture room.

The board of regents will hold their annual meeting December 8. At this meeting they will elect the commencement orator for the coming June exercises.

Professor Fossler and Miss Conkling will attend the western branch of the Modern Language association, which meets during the holidays in St. Louis.

The seniors had a class meeting last Wednesday, at which it was decided to leave the question of wearing sombreros as a means of distinction, to a committee.

Prof. H. H. Nicholson will contribute an article on "The Beet Sugar Industry in the United States" to the Gentleman Farmer, a magazine published in Chicago.

Professor Nicholson has offered the use of the chemistry lecture room to Professor Harbour thus enabling him to use his collection of slides in illustrating his lectures.

G. H. Rose, Chas. Kullman, R. H. Graham and Walter Rhodes accepted a kind invitation from Professor and Mrs. Fling to take Thanksgiving dinner with them.

Miss Sadie Smith spent Thanksgiving recess at Fremont, visiting Miss Etta Gray, '96. C. W. Taylor and E. O. Jones also enjoyed themselves at the same place.

Professor Fling reports a most satisfactory time at McCook, where he lectured before the teachers' association Friday morning. Mrs. Fling accompanied him.

Professor Harbour has been elected a member of the American geological society. He has been invited to read a paper at the meeting held in Washington, D. C. this month.

Have you bought one of those new University of Nebraska, tablets at the Co-Op yet? The lettering is made from a special dye, and they are the neatest tablets yet gotten out.

The specifications for prize stories for the Sombrero have been modified. It will not be required that the stories be typewritten—but a clear hand written copy will be accepted.

Two German classes have been organized in the college settlement, one for the more advanced pupils, and one for beginners. These are in charge of students of the university.

There were over 3,000 baths taken in the university bath rooms during the last month. The record shows that over 7,000 baths have been taken since the university opened this year.

Mrs. A. J. Sawyer will speak before the political economy club Tuesday evening in room 23, library building. The address will be on, "Some of the Economic Causes of the Present Social Unrest."

The preparatory chemical laboratory will be opened one more Saturday before Christmas, for those who wish to make up time. It is desired that the registration for desks be attended to immediately.

John Saville says that he spent a good portion of the time in the kitchen at home during the recent holiday and further says that it is a wonder that he is not dead after all the good things he has had to eat.

When remembering your friends at Christmas, don't fail to examine the many new and useful articles to be found in our book department. You can get articles for very little money that cannot fail to please the most fastidious. Handy volume classics in white and gold, caluloid, silk, cloth and hand painted covers, from 18 cents to $1.00. Some of these are beautifully illustrated in etchings and photographs. Late books in fiction etc. by Corelli, J. M. Barrie, Elizabeth Stuart

Reduced prices on suits and overcoats at Phelps, Ian MacLaren, Gilbert Parker, George Ade and others. Books in sets at hitherto unheard of prices. Think of buying Macaulay's History of England in five volumes for 98 cents, or Dickens in fifteen volumes cloth, for $3.98. Fountain pens in great variety, and at all prices from 60 cents to $5.00. Herpolsheimers and Co.'s, book department.

During the football game in Omaha it was thought that a slight earthquake shock was felt, but it was ascertained afterwards, that it was only Turner downing some of the Hawkeyes behind the line.

Phil Russell is back from his trip to New York and Philadelphia, where he attended the national convention of Phi Delta Theta fraternity, as delegate from Nebraska Alpha chapter. He says he had a "mighty right" time.

The school of agriculture will open December 29, and will continue for twelve weeks. This course is designed to give to the farmers of the state practical instruction in the science of agriculture. No examinations are required for entrance.

Do you know that headaches and many nervous affections are due to the eye strain, which can be cured by scientifically fitted glasses? Examination and consultation free. H. M. Betts, Richards b'k, Room 32. Hours 9 to 12 a. m. 1 to 5 p. m.

At the recent beet sugar convention, a resolution was passed recommending that the state legislature be asked to appropriate $5,000 to be expended under the direction of the board of regents for the purpose of carrying on investigation relative to this industry in Nebraska.

At the last meeting of the athletic board Ike Pace was elected manager of the base ball team, and G. N. Porter assistant. The board talked over the advisability of securing a coach for the team and other ways of booming baseball this coming season.

Many of our modest cadets are complaining of the hardship they have to undergo in wearing their flashy gold chevrons about the streets. They think that the uniform ought to be such that it could be worn at all times and in all places.

Dr. Bessey gave a lecture last Friday night before the Northwestern teachers' association, which held its annual meeting at Crawford Nebraska last week. He reports that the meeting was well attended, and that much interest is taken in educational matters in that part of the state.

The Nebraska Academy of Science, of which Dr. Bessey is president and Professor Swezey secretary, will hold its annual meeting at the university during the holidays. The program has not yet been entirely completed but it will consist of papers written by members of the society on scientific subjects.

In the report of the comparative attendance of the various departments of the university, which appeared in the last issue of the Nebraskan, that of the elocution department was omitted. Mrs. Manning has now enrolled, 145 which is one of the most well attended electives offered.

The Ottumwa male quartet will give an entertainment in the chapel of the university tonight, the proceeds above expenses going to pay off the debt of the oratorical association. The literary societies have adjourned their meetings in order that all their members can attend. Much regret is expressed that the benefit is given the night of the Pershing Rifles hop.

Prof. T. L. Lyon is making arrangements to entertain the State dairyman's association in the dairy building at the state farm, December 17. There will be short speeches by prominent men of the state, refreshments will be served and an opportunity given for all to inspect the buildings and work done at the state farm.

The Minden club reorganized this year with the following officers; Miss Hattie Robinson, president; Fay Rogers, vice-president; Rodney Bliss secretary; Harry McComb treasurer. The first meeting of the year was held last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson, 705 A street. The evening was passed very pleasantly with games and other amusements. The club will meet every two weeks.

Salvation Army Girl (making the tour of large office building): "Can I sell you a War Cry, sir?" Frivolous Clerk: "My dear young woman, I can't afford it. It is all I can do to keep myself in cigars." Salvation Army Girl (passing on): "May the Lord bless you, young man—if possible."—Chicago Tribune.

Railroad Spotter: "You will have to take me off the main line and put me on a branch. The conductors have found who I am." Superintendent: "That's strange. Are you sure they know you?" "Dead sure. They have begun to treat me politely."—New York Weekly.

Big Bargains in

Ladies' Cloaks
Ladies' Underwear
Ladies' Hosiery
Ladies' Gloves
Gents' Underwear
Gents' Hosiery
Gents' Gloves

MILLER & PAINE,
1229 to 1239 O Street.

HOLIDAY GOODS.

WATCHES, DIAMONDS, STERLING SILVER AND SILVER PLATED WARE, CLOCKS JEWELRY, CUT GLASS, GOLD HEADED CANES AND UMBRELLAS, OPERA GLASSES AND HOLDERS, etc., etc., etc.

STERLING SILVER GOODS A SPECIALTY.

I have the largest and best equipped stock of diamonds to be found in the city, which I will sell as cheap as any one, weight and quality considered.

EUGENE HALLETT,
1143 O street, Lincoln Nebr.

YOU WILL SAVE TIME

By taking the

FOR MAIN LINE,
Norfolk, Albion and Cedar Rapids.

BRANCHES: All Points in Kansas.

Keep this in mind when going on foot-ball trips or any vacation.
CITY TICKET OFFICE, 1044 O Street.

TWO TRAINS DAILY

—BETWEEN—
LINCOLN
—AND—
Auburn, Falls City,
Atchison, St. Joseph,
and Kansas City.

City Ticket Office, 201 O Street.

H. C. TOWNSEND, Gen'l P. & T. A.
F. D. CORNELL, C. P. & T. A.

Discount to Students.
FREY & FREY,
Wholesale and Retail Florists.

We always have on hand a choice variety of roses, carnations and all cut flowers and give 15 per cent discount to students ordering as a club. Call and see us. Corner of Twelfth and O streets, Funke Opera House block. Telephone 324. Lincoln Nebr.

When you take

The Nebraskan

You are getting a good COLLEGE PAPER.

First National Bank,
LINCOLN, NEB.

Capital . . . $400,000.00
Surplus . . . 100,000.00

N. S. HARWOOD, President.
CHAS. A. HANNA, Vice-President.
F. M. COOK, Cashier.
C. S. LIPPINCOTT, and
H. S. FREEMAN, Ass't Cashier.

W. O. FORBES,
Livery, Baggage, and HACK LINE.

129 North Eleventh Street.
Telephone No. 31.

Special attention given to party calls
All calls answered promptly, day or night. Hack Nos. 39, 42, 54, 55, 76 and 85.