A quantity of seed has been sent to the college settlement by Senator Thurston.

Dr. Reynolds of York visited his daughter Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Orry Kelloeg has been appointed corporal, by a recent order of Captain Gullfoyle.

Ben C. Mathews has taken charge of the students' boarding club at 322 North 11th street again.

The Union program for next Friday March 12, will be prepared by the young lady members.

County Superintendent Todd, of Gage county, Kansas, was a visitor at the university yesterday.

French dictionaries can be bought at the book department of Herpolsheimer and Co's, at very low prices.

Professor and Mrs. Kimball will give a reception to Madame Camilla Urso this evening after the concert.

Some one seems to have been appropriating to himself of late, the books to be used in the money course.

A "University of Nebraska" tablet is the kind to use, when you write home. The Co-op has a large supply.

Tomorrow night the Union boys will debate the "Script" bill which recently passed the house of representatives.

Mr. C. W. Poynter who was called home last week by the sickness of his father has returned to his university work.

Miss Nellie and Clifton Griggs accompanied their cousin as far as Omaha Tuesday, returning to Lincoln Wednesday.

"Shore Acres" will be at the Funke theatre next Friday and Saturday, March 12 and 13. A matinee will be given Saturday afternoon.

Miss Neola Morris who visited at her home in Humbolt last week has returned. Larry Weaver has also returned from the same neighborhood.

The university artillery detachment did all it could to help inaugurate McKinley. The regular salute of twenty-one guns was fired Thursday noon.

A suit of clothes worn by James T. Woosley, sergeant in the civil war, was recently donated to the historical society by Mr. Stryker of this city.

Arrangements have just been made for a joint debate between the Maxwells and the Union boys. The debate will be held in chapel in about two weeks.

The latest and prettiest store in the city is Burns and Tuttle's new furnishings and tailoring store at 117 So. 11th street. Call and see their beautiful neckwear.

The Maxwells defeated the "Initiative and referendum" Saturday evening. J. A. Brown and Wallis spoke on the affirmative and Fry and Miller on the negative.

A portion of the library of the state medical association is in the historical library. All books belonging to the association are to be kept in the society library hereafter.

Hayden, the photographer who is now located at 1029 O street, is again offering a special rate to students on all photographs. His name is a guarantee of good work.

The committee have been meeting to arrange plans for the summer school, and have been thinking of extending the length of the term, but have not decided upon it yet.

If you have tried him once you found that Westerfield did the right kind of tonorial work. He has been the students' barber for seventeen years. 117 North Thirteenth street.

The Dolan girls treated the boys to an excellent feed at the parlors of Sutton and Hollowbush last Saturday evening. This was a substitute for a sleigh ride which had been planned by the girls.

Professor Ward has gone to the north-western part of the state to attend some farmers' institutes. He will be gone the entire week. Among the points he will visit are Long Pine and Crawford.

The book department of Herpolsheimer

& Co's. now handle Rolfe's text of Shakespeare. Fountain pens, tablets, dictionaries, translations etc. Pocket edition of French and German dictionaries, cheap.

A file of papers published at Carlisle, Penn., called the American Volunteer, donated by the editor, has just been received by the state historical society. The file contains an account of a trip across the plains in the sixties.

A bill lately introduced in the senate to lower the requirements for admission to the bar meets with general disfavor in the law department. The seniors held a meeting Saturday to take action to defeat the measure if possible.

A minstrel show in which all available talent in the university will take part is to be given soon after the return of the glee club from their trip. The proceeds from the entertainment will be devoted to the interests of the baseball team.

Professor Edward Orion of the Ohio state university has sent five boxes of valuable O.D. specimens in exchange for material received from the Morrill collection in our own university. The collection occupies the southeast wall case of the museum.

Professor and Mrs. Burnet delightfully entertained the members of the professor's second German class at their home last Saturday night. It was one of his characteristic German parties, and besides the amusement it afforded those present it was quite helpful in the way of instruction.

There will be a joint debate a week from Saturday evening between representatives of Wesleyan and the Palladian boys' debating club. It is probable that the debate will be held at Wesleyan. This is the first of a series of debates which the P. B. D. C. has arranged. The next debate of the series will be held about the middle of April at the university with representatives from Doane college.

The terpsichorean sensation of New York was Cissy Fitzgerald's dancing in "The Foundling." She comes here next Wednesday, at the Lansing theatre, and one may be able to judge for himself what all this talk is about. "The Foundling" ran for nearly two hundred nights at Hoyt's theatre, New York, and will be presented by one of Manager Froman's best comedy organizations embracing the players seen in New York. Secure your seats early.

The Camilla Urso concert which takes place tonight, brings to Lincoln one of the best known artists living. Madame Urso has played in every civilized land, and has received medals and praises with out number. Anyone whose soul can be touched by such sweet strains from her violin, and who knows the possibilities of it in the hands of a master would not miss hearing this great virtuose. It is understood that a car load of young people are coming up from Beatrice and other places for the concert tonight. The advance sale of seats has been very large and promises an immense house.

Y. M. C. A.

The Graham Taylor house has been opened again, the scarlet fever scare in its neighborhood being over.

Dr. Hindman, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will address the association Sunday afternoon on "Spiritual Discernment." Dr. Hindman is one of the best speakers of the city, preaching regularly to crowded houses, and will doubtless give an interesting talk Sunday afternoon.

The young ladies of the Y. W. C. A. will give a laundry social next Saturday evening. Bars of soap will be auctioned off to the highest bidders. The proceeds of the social will be used in purchasing a writing desk for use in the Y. W. C. A. room. All the students are invited to be present.

The two associations had a joint meeting last Sunday afternoon in Delian hall, and it was one of the best and liveliest meetings held this year. Steve Corey led and interesting facts about China and the Chinese were given by twenty or thirty of the young men and women. A Chinese missionary from Brooklyn, N. Y., who is spending a few days in Lincoln, on his way to San Francisco, was present and gave a short talk. A Chinese quartet from the city sang songs in Chinese.

The regular annual business meeting of the association will be held next Saturday evening, commencing at 7 o'clock, and continuing for an hour and a half. At this meeting, the officers for the ensuing year will be elected and written reports will be submitted by the various committees. The advisability of amending the constitution in one or two respects will be considered. This is the most important meeting the association will hold this year, and it is therefore necessary that all the members should be present, so far as possible.

Senior-Say, have you noticed how many of our athletes get shot? Junior-Yes and how many get loaded? Sophomore-Yes, and how many get fired? Freshman faints. -Princeton Tiger.

She tried a pair of gloves,
While at the counter sitting,
The dood was hold,
Her blood ran cold,
For she was counter-fitting.-Y. Recor.

Brown-Say Jones do you never hunger for the good old times you had at college? Jones-I frequently think for them, Brown -Life.

When voyaging the briny sea
By sea sickness I am floored;
The cure that always fixes me
Is not to eat a-bord.-Princeton Tiger.

Brighton-McKinley'd never see Wash- ington nex March, Easyun-Why not? Brighton-the's dead, Easyun-What! McKinley? Brighton-No, Washington.-Harvard Lampoon.

We were seated in a hammock
On a balmy night in June,
When the world was hushed in slumber
Neath the guidance of the moon.

I had asked one little question,
And my heart was filled with hope,
But the answer never reached me,
For her brother cut the rope.-Yale Record.

Barber-Have you had any experience in shaving students? Applicant (for job) -O yes sir, I always go over their faces twice with the back of the razor and ask them if it pulls much. Barber-Quite right, but you mustn't forget to strop your razor several times during the operation. -Judge.

'Tis a fearful thing in college
To be pestered by the rules,
Still, we have the consolation,
That it's so in other schools.-Ex.

Yes, there's plenty of room at the top,
But to get there myself I shan't hump any
For I think it's more pleasant to stop,
Lower down where there's plenty of company.-Northwestern.

Mr. Ware-How that dog of yours is panting. What makes him act so tired? Johnny-He ran just once through the parlor where Bessie and Mr. Spoonie are sitting.-Princeton Tiger.

A college course a race course is
With a difference though 'tis said,
For those who trot the fastest pace
Come rarely in ahead.-Ex.

I slept in an editor's bed one night,
When no editor chanced to be nigh;
And tho't as Iumbled that editor's nest,
How easily editors lie.-Transcript.

There was a young lady in Me,
I've forgotten her name, call it Je.
When she went out to walk
All the neighbors did talk,
She was so exceedingly pie.

CHARMING BOOK ON OLD VIOLINS.

Violinists everywhere will hail with delight the beautifully printed and authoritatively written book about old violins just published by Lyon & Healy, Chicago. The fact that this volume contains as an appendix, a list of the old violins offered for sale by Lyon & Healy, and will therefore be sent free upon application (to violinists only), does not detract from its literary value nor from the keen interest with which its fac-simile labels and other quaint illustrations will be viewed. It is safe to say that any lover of the fiddle might seek a long time before he could find another volume whose perusal would afford him such a fund of entertainment. The short biographies of the famous violin makers are wonderfully complete and comprise a host of fresh anecdotes that must prove vastly interesting to violinists, great and small. ("OLD VIOLINS"-272 Pages-Free to Violinists only. LYON & HEALY, Chicago.)
