The enterprising managers of the luncheon room are keeping their bill of fare strictly up to date. Salads, ices, spring vegetables etc., are served every day. One can procure a dainty lunch here and be assured well cooked food.

The Y. M. C. A. will hold its regular meeting next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. P. H. Thompson will lead the meeting. Every young man in the university is invited to come out and enjoy the Sunday afternoon devotional services.

Hear Bob Manley's latest medley sung by the glee club Wednesday night.

J. W. Crabtree of Beatrice who was recently appointed high school inspector for the university, by the regents, was about the university making final arrangements for taking care of his work in the new position. He will begin June 1.

The Y. M. C. A. has secured Dr. Beardshear, president of the Iowa agricultural college, to give the annual address this year. President Beardshear was selected because he was so highly recommended to the association as a public speaker. It is thought that he will give one of the best addresses before the students here that has been given in Lincoln for some time.

The English club will meet tomorrow evening, May 8, with Miss Prey, 1948 G street. It will be the last meeting of the year and promises to be one of the best. Election of officers for next year will occur. The following will appear on the program: Misses Dean, Polk, Walker, Bullock, Henry, Smoyer, Professor Thurber, and Messrs. Piper, Alexander and Sargeant.

The "Bee" song is just a sample of some of the encores the glee club has in reserve.

PI BETA PHI ENTERTAIN.

Last Friday night the Lansing hall presented a pretty picture of light, color and happy dancers. About forty couples had been invited by the members of the Pi Beta Phi sorority, to assist in the celebration of the thirtieth national anniversary of the founding of Pi Beta Phi.

The hall was decorated with the university colors, scarlet and cream; also with the sorority colors, wine and blue. Palms and flowers added their share in beautifying. Mr. and Mrs. Morrill led the grand march. The patronesses of the sorority acted as chaperons.

Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames, Morrill, Kimball, Summers, Turner, A. J. Weaver and Mrs. Lansing. Misses Gertrude Branch of Omaha; Wright of Schuyler, Robinson, Vancil, Barber, Turner, Griggs, Lowe, Ena and Mabel Ricketts, Hammond, Folk, Wilson, McGahey, Nellie Kelsey, Waugh, Ellen and Francis Gere, DuBois, Heakell, Miner, Caracadden, Woods, Parks, Williamson, Tuttle, Cochrane, Broady, Raymond, Mae and Jessie Lansing, Bunting, Morris, Belle and Grace Reynolds, Ames, Woodward, Lytle, Anne and Lennie Stuart, Walker; Messrs. If time permits, a short game of basket ball will be played. Numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, and 9, represent daily class work. These exercises help to strengthen and keep in healthy condition all organs of the body.

PROGRESS OF THE SOMBRERO.

The press work on the Junior Annual is finished and it only remains to bind it. The business managers can speak positively now, that the book will be ready next week, though not until the latter part of the week. The covers are being made in Chicago, and are as neat as any that ever held an Annual. It is unnecessary to repeat to those who have been watching for this issue that in point of neatness and material make-up, it will outshine any previous edition. This issue of the Sombrero contains some thirty odd pages more than the last one, with the subscription price the same. Every subscriber should be ready to take the full number subscribed for at once, that the business managers may be ready to supply any additional demand. Watch the Junior Annual bulletin board in the main hall for the exact date of its appearance. The Sombrero will be on sale before the next issue of the Nebraskan. There is no need of going into details. It is jammed full of good stuff and can speak for itself.

A PREPARATORY SCHOOL.

Some enterprising preparatory instructors of the university have seized upon the opportunity caused by dropping preparatory work, and have completed arrangements for starting a preparatory school which will fit students for entrance to the university. A summer term will be given to permit students to make up work during the summer. The school of music building has been engaged.

The following instructors have been engaged: C. W. Wallace, director; Lon C. Walker, Ph. B., A. M., mathematics; Alvin S. Johnson, A. B., Greek; Kathleen G. Hearn, A. B., Latin; Alice C. Hunter, A. B., Latin and botany; J. H. Beckman, A. B., German; Lucy Green, English; W. H. Rhodes, A. B., history; R. W. Thatcher, chemistry; J. E. Almy, B. Sc., physics.

William Tate, who was sentenced to a four year's term in the penitentiary in 1896 for killing Archie Cathcart at Boh-town church, is now at liberty, the governor having granted him a parole some time ago. Cathcart was a former student of the university.

AT THE LANSING.

Among the many new and startling acts with Maharo's minstrels, which comes to the Lansing theatre next Tuesday, May 11, one of extraordinary talent is Master Hellard Brewer, the wonderful boy contortionist. Aside from twisting himself in all kinds of shapes, he actually unjoins his neck from the body. The minstrels this season are said to be as near perfect as possible. The prices have been placed extremely low for so large an attraction, being 10, 20 and 30 cents. There will be a street parade at noon by the Darktown band.

Everybody Says So.

Cascarets Candy Cathartic, the most wonderful medical discovery of the age, pleasant and refreshing to the taste, act gently and positively on kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the entire system, dispel colds, cure headache, fever, habitual constipation and biliousness. Please buy and try a box of C. C. C. to-day; 10, 25, 50 cents. Sold and guaranteed to cure by all druggists.
