THE FIELD DAY EXERCISES.

pled the envelope somewhat, which might have been responsible for some gain in time. The message is not supposed to be torn or mutilated, when delivered. Lau made a good start at the report of the pistol, and Cushman finished with good speed—Time 2:11.

The ten cadets which represented Company C, were, True, Muman, Worcester, Mansfield, Allen, Haywood, Haette, Robinson, Smoyer and Hendy. First Sergeant True started, and Sergeant Hendy finished—Time 2:12 1/2.

Company B was represented by Van-Vallin, Smith, Herrman, Hessler, Ryan, Wilson, Morrison, Fochet, Thorne and Whedon. Whedon started and Smith finished in 2:14 2/5. Dropping the envelope caused a loss of a little time.

Company A was declared the winner. Other events resulted as follows: 3. Running high jump. Entries—W. Anderson, K. Benedict, Ira Kyle. Anderson first—5:34, Kyle second.

Pole vault—Benedict being the only contestant, he won by default. He was obliged to vault once so as to secure a place in the intercollegiate contest.

Running broad jump—Anderson won—16:8. On a practice, Anderson jumped 19:6.

The 220 yards dash was not run.

Shot put—Hansen and Turner. Waa won by Turner, distance, 31 ft. 11 3/4 inches.

Hammer throw—Turner and Hansen. Won by Turner, 75:2.

The mile run was run by Ryan in 5:40. Thompson was second. O. T. Reedy was the third contestant.

In the bayonet race, the contestants were—Company A: Hitchman, Stebbins, Pillsbury and Lau. Company B—Shuff, Morrison, Fee and Whedon. Company C—Hastie, True, Worcester and Hendy. Company D—Helmrod, Steel, Robbins and Johnson. Company A men won in 1:35.

Individual time for the first man, Stebbins, 1:25, company, 1:35 3/4. Time by other companies, B—1:43 1/2, C—1:49, D—1:56.

The sudden rain which came up just at the close of the bayonet race surprised the crowd which ran for shelter in all directions.

220 yard dash—Anderson 1st. Pepon 2nd. Sergeant 3rd.

Standing broad jump—Pillsbury won.

Hurdle race—Kyle won.

BASE BALL BOUNCES.

Several of the professors have remarked that no college team was ever composed of men of such a high standard of scholarship as our present base ball team. A rule has been adopted by the management in this connection, which is certain to remove the prejudices of some of the faculty from base ball. While on the eastern trip certain hours each day will be set aside for study. This order will be enforced as strictly as any order upon the field is enforced.

The players for the eastern trip will not be selected until the day before leaving. Some will be disappointed, but personal feelings must not figure when a winning team is being selected.

The crowds of cheap spongers outside the wires are growing in numbers and insolence. Not satisfied with enjoying gratis pleasures for which they know some one must pay, they break the wires, taunt the guards, and jeer our boys at every possible opportunity. They range in scholarship from the professors' sons, to the dark hued fermenting demijohn from Omaha. From preps to law students and seniors. From the smiling ladies' man to the cigarette fiend. In fact this cheap brigade is composed of all that class of persons who have no sense of shame or decency; no conception of honor. How can a man with the faintest ray of honor or college pride, stand up and watch the college nine, battling for his college—the management struggling in every honest way to raise the requisite guarantees to bring good teams to our grounds—how can a man of any decency sponge such doubtful pleasure, with the eyes of his fellow students upon him? Such a man can not be trusted in the class room or in business life.

The intense interest which many of the girls are taking in the games is a source of great pleasure. The ball boys play better with the girls in the stand. A man can not help but admire a young lady who can appreciate the beauties of a good ball game. The feeling is born in his breast. It is surpassed only by the admiration which such a girl feels for the fellow who escorts her from the game. Tomorrow's game is the last for nearly a month and the ladies' man now has his golden opportunity.
