THE UNIVERSITY, 15; DRAKE 9.

DES MOINES, Ia., May 14.—(Special.)—The university of Nebraska baseball team showed what it could do today by defeating Drake university by the score of 15 to 6. The boys put up a stiff game at the bat after the fourth inning, making one triple, five two-baggers and one single off Fouts. Gordon was put in the box during the last three innings. A single, a base on balls and a wild pitch put men on second and third bases, but he struck out the next two men and Kinder took in a liner which retired the side. This was the only time Drake had any chance of scoring. Caughill played third base and Packard went to centre. The score: U. of N. 15.....00005361*-15
Drake 6.....000000000-6

Batteries—Robinson, Gordon and Friel, Fouts and Roberts.
Base hits—U. of N., 7, Drake 4.
Errors—U. of N., 2, Drake 12.
Struck out—By Robinson 4, Gordon 3, Fouts 2, Umpire, Leighton.

AT THE LANSING.
Manager Dowden of the Lansing theater announces for the next attraction at his beautiful theater, on Saturday, May 15, matinee and evening, that successful comedy-drama, "The Pulse of New York." Few companies now on the road combine the literary merit and the realistic scenic effects of this piece and given with the competent caste which the management has secured. Theater-goers of the city look forward to an evening of special pleasure in the play. "The Pulse of New York" has a record of sixteen weeks in New York city, twelve weeks in Chicago and no less than six weeks in the other large cities, and is now given exactly as produced originally at the Star theater in New York. Splendid scenery and mechanical devices are carried with which to reproduce such well-known and fascinating pictures of life in the metropolis as the illuminated Brooklyn bridge, the elevated railroad, Herald square by gas light and the notoriously wicked "Five Points." Two of the thrilling scenes of the piece are a steam pile-driver in actual operation and the escape of a man and woman from death by hanging under the "L" tracks as a train dashes over their heads.

Prominent in the cast presenting this realistic piece are Stella Mayhew, a clever soubrette, and Cris Bruno, comedian, late of Charles H. Yates' "Devil's Auction" company.

Prices for the matinee, 50c and 25c, and evening prices $1, 75c, 50c and 25c. Seats now on sale at Lansing box office.

The following is a clipping from the Deadwood Times of Jolly Della Pringle and her merry company which comes to the Lansing theater for one week, commencing Monday, May 17th:

It can be truthfully said that the Della Pringle company, now filling a week's engagement at the opera house, is one of the strongest companies that ever came to this city and is being appreciated by the theater-going people of Deadwood. The company is drawing good houses and will probably continue to do so throughout their engagement. Their plays are all new and their specialties catchy and up-to-date. Della Pringle is an actress capable of taking the difficult roles and portraying them in a manner that wins the admiration of every man, woman and child in the audience. Mr. Adams' comedy goes well and his specialties tend to enliven and please. It must be said of Richard Saaraden that he is one of the cleverest actors who ever set foot upon the stage of the Deadwood opera house. He has a voice, style and conception which, by his long experience and tact, he can suit to any role that may be assigned to him. Such an actor must be valuable to any company. The presentation of "The True American Girl" last evening was splendid.

Seats are now on sale at the box office. Prices, parquet and boxes, 25 cents, all balance of house 10 cents. Secure your seats early. Don't forget the ladies' and children's matinee Saturday—10 cents all over the house.

"FOR FAIR VIRGINIA."
A dramatic offering of unusual value and interest will appeal to our playgoers on Monday evening, May 24th, at the Lansing theater, when Mr. and Mrs. Russ Whytal will be seen in the former's romantic drama "For Fair Virginia." It is a domestic story abounding in heart-interest and having a stirring background of the civil war. It is a piece that must appeal to every American who has not become blasé and dyspeptic from overfeeding on English society plays and French farces of more than questionable morality. The two love stories which are distinctly interwoven are alternately retarded and carried forward by exciting episodes. The battle's roar is heard but not seen, and the suggestion proves amply sufficient. There is an abundance of novel and spontaneous comedy, in fact, the lighter characters are so effective that it is in one of them that Mrs. Whytal appears. The more serious work is in the efficient hands of an excellent company, headed by such well-known players as Mabel Bert, Frank Doane, George F. Farren and that exceptionally clever and attractive child actress, Lottie Briscoe. A complete and handsome scenic outfit is carried and the play is presented under the direction of Mr. Julian Magnus, whose has brought her many admirable attractions.

This attraction will close the regular season of the Lansing theater. Prices, $1, 75c, 50c and 25c. Seats on sale Friday morning.

through. He caught an almost impossible fly, lined out three singles three times in succession and stole four bases. Reeder put up an elegant fielding game. With two men out in the ninth inning, Sam Crawford sent a liner almost to the fence, but Reeder got there some way or other and cut off Sam's hopes.

Wells' base running was a feature of the game. On the whole, Robinson was given excellent support. The only semblance of an error that was made was a low throw to first by Wells, which did not result seriously.
