

LOCALS.

C. E. Matson and Leroy Patch spent a part of the summer visiting in Texas with C. A. Turrell.

An article by Leonard H. Robbins appeared in a late number of the Lotos, a publication of very high rank.

The town of Red Oak, Iowa, the only town in Iowa whose school is accredited by the University, has about fifteen students in the institution this year.

C. W. Taylor has been spending a part of the summer working in the stamp mills at Lead, S. D., at big wages. He will be back in the University about the first of next month.

The luncheon room will be started in the same location again this year. Misses Annie Spurek and Charlotte Clark will have charge of it. A week from Monday is the date set for the opening.

Military drill has not yet been inaugurated, owing to the fact that Captain Gullfoyle has not yet returned to straighten out the affairs of the department, make appointments, promotions, etc.

Gymnasium work will be carried on on the campus this year. This is to give students all the advantage of outdoor work. In addition to the regular gymnasium suit the young women will wear an ordinary short skirt.

J. W. Dinsmore, formerly superintendent of the Humboldt schools, is now doing work at the University. J. X. Bennett, former principal of the Chadron High School, is now enrolled also. He has a fellowship in Latin.

The athletic association of the University is called to meet in the chapel at 5 o'clock Saturday morning.

All officers of the association, including the president, vice president and secretary-treasurer, and also the board of directors, are to be elected.

Ray P. Teele has been called to the bedside of his mother at Sloux Falls, S. D. C. W. Weeks, who left for Sheridan, Wyo., last Friday after being in town a few hours, arrived there to find that his sister had passed away. He has returned to the University.

Dr. A. Ross Hill, the head of the department of philosophy, has consented to address the Y. M. C. A. some Sunday afternoon in the near future. Dr. Hill has been quite prominent in Y. M. C. A. work in the Wisconsin state normal, where he taught previous to his acceptance of his present position.

The Christian associations gave a welcome to new and old students in the chapel last night. After a short program, addresses were made by R. W. Thatcher, Chancellor MacLean, Laura Wild, Prof. T. M. Thatcher. Miss Woodford acted as mistress of ceremonies. Misses Edith Shaw and Edith Risser furnished musical numbers.

Rev. H. Dunning, the popular pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, will speak at the Y. M. C. A. meeting next Sunday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Dunning's address before the association last year made a very deep impression upon all who heard him. Every young man in the University is asked to attend this meeting. A special invitation is extended to all new students.

The Palladian Boys' Debating club will meet for the first time this year next Saturday evening in Palladian hall. To all young men who desire the benefits which such an organization can give the club extends a cordial welcome. In all probability there will be no regular debate Saturday evening, but there will be a number of talks and possibly the usual parliamentary scrap.

ALUMNI NOTES.

Grace I. Bridge, '95, is now taking work in the University and tutoring in Latin.

Tom Wing, '93, is in a New York law office filling a good position. John Johns, who is also in New York, is working for an electrical company.

Leo C. Smith, '97, has gone to Champagne, Ill., where he has secured a position in the library there. Don't ask how he secured it.

Ward Hildreth, '95, is now at Butte, Mont. He is expected back to the University this fall.

William Grant, who graduated last year and who has been in Lincoln for some time this fall, has secured a job from the B. & M. railroad and is now out on an engineering expedition for the road.

Ed Adams, '96, is visiting with old friends and his fraternity members of Beta Theta Pi. As this is the first seen of the genial "Ted" since his graduation, a host of friends were surprised and pleased at his unexpected appearance. As he is not decided as to where he will be this year, he ordered "The Rag" sent to his home address at Superior.

CONSERVATORY FACULTY RE-CITIAL.

The faculty recital by the members of the Conservatory last Wednesday evening was well received by a crowded chapel of students and their friends. Both the main floor and gallery were filled and many had to stand on account of the large crowd.

The chapel, on account of it being so well lighted and decorated in light colors, made the audience more comfortable and appreciated the recital more than usual.

The new members of the faculty, Mrs. W. O. Jones and Miss Marian Treat, were received with considerable applause.

Mrs. Jones as a pianist is considered a strong addition to the Conservatory, and to those who are personally acquainted with Mrs. Jones are pleased to know that her interests are closer than ever with the University.

Miss Treat came from Chicago and is not an entire stranger to the University, as she assisted in the commencement concert last June. Her voice is strong and sweet. Miss Treat is tall and graceful, making a very pleasing appearance.

The Hagenow String Quartet were, as usual, very good and well received.

Following is the program:

Allegro Vivace Assai, fr. Quartet in B flat.....Mozart

The Hagenow String Quartet.

Piano solo—Scherzo, C sharp minor, Nocture op. 15, 1.....Chopin

LAW COLLEGE NEWS.

A number of the law boys have put in their appearance and the class of '98 promises to be the largest ever sent out from the college.

The students all come back ready for hard work and seemingly imbued with the one idea of making this year one of advancement in every line. The Maxwell club will soon be ready to enter into negotiations with reference to a series of joint debates and will be ready to meet all comers.

KANSAS, IOWA AND MISSOURI FOOTBALL TEAMS.

The struggle for the western intercollegiate football championship and silver cup promises to be as interesting as ever this year. A curious coincidence relative to the style of play of the other three league teams has occurred. Kansas, Iowa and Missouri have each engaged Pennsylvania coaches. Nebraska, with a coach from Brown university, will have a materially different style of play. In face of these circumstances western intercollegiate football results will be watched with interest in the east.

Woodruff will coach Kansas this year. A training table has already been started and the men have started systematic training. Kansas expects to make as much of a perfectly trained team this year as she has in the past—a point which has been largely due to some of her victories.

Missouri promises to pull herself together and put a strong team in the field. The irrepressible "Ad" Hill is making strenuous efforts to put the association on its feet again. It is a hard task, considering the financial result of last season in Missouri and the adverse criticism that has been so freely bestowed upon this institution owing to the disgraceful finish of the Iowa game last fall. However, Mr. Hill expects to secure enough subscriptions to put the association in good standing. Wharton of Pennsylvania has been solicited to act as coach and the probabilities are that he will accept.

Bull will not be with Iowa this year, but Wagenhurst of Pennsylvania has been secured, and Iowa's last year's style of play will undoubtedly be continued under his direction. Wagenhurst has played tackle for three years and is considered one of the best players in that position in the east. Walker, last year's captain, will be in his old position at left guard. Blackmore is also back and will hold the position of right guard. Meyers and Holbrook, last year's halves, have both returned and will probably fill their old positions. Hobbs will play full back again. Egan, Klingenburg and Gardiner of last year's team are on the ground. Besides men from last year's second eleven, a host of new men have showed up which make abundant material for coach Wagenhurst to select from.

UNIVERSITY FRATERNITIES.

year's initiates, and O. H. Martin, F. B. Humphrey, I. S. Cutter, L. W. Sherman, J. Ricketts, G. S. Smith, Brocton Broady.

Lincoln chapter Phi Delta Phi, the law fraternity, will start in this year with the following members in the class of '98: Messrs. Wilcox, Ames, Ralston, Folsom, Johnson, Du Frene, Imhoff and Tobey. This is a much larger active membership than the chapter had one year ago and good work is expected this year under the able leadership of Consul Wilson and co-operation of the membership.

Kappa Kappa Gamma champions the year with thirteen active and two pledged members. Naamah Lowe of the class of '98 is sadly missed. She will remain in Michigan this winter, but hopes to be back next year. Stella Elliott completed a course in the Anderson gymnasium at Chatauque, N. Y., and graduated with honors. Her work this winter will be in Columbus, at Ohio state, where she will have charge of all the young women in the new gymnasium there. Jessie Jury is teaching at Wilbur and Anna Brady at De Witt, both in this state.

Those in the University are Mariel Gere, Florence Winger, May Waitting, Ellen Gere, Francis Gere, Cora Crosey, May Colson, Lottie Whedon, Mabel Richards, Addie Whiting, Clara Hammond, Laura Houtz, Maud Rissler, Dora Harley, Emma Outcalt, Margaret Winger, Eleanor Raymond, Grace Broady.

The active members of Delta Gamma are: Edna Polk, Selma Noren, Helen Welsh, Joy Webster, Nella Cochran, Clara Watkins, Mable Ricketts, Katherine Woods, Mary Davis, Grace Bridge, Laura Bridge, Georgia Case, May Prentiss, Helen Woods, Jessie Lansing, Blanche Garten, Ann Minor, Clara Mulliken.

Miss Georgia Camp, '97, is instructor in German in Madame Staret's school, Oak Park, Ill.

Miss Alice Richter has charge of the art department in Southwest Virginia Institute, Virginia.

Miss Clara Parks is at home this year in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

The fraternity of Delta Delta Delta begins the year with an active membership of ten: Daisy Bonnell, Ada Du Bois, Belle von Mansfelde, Anna Vore, Mamie Miller, Edna Gund, Winifred Bonnell, Ellen Frankish, Teda Wilson, Nellie Dean. Three of the four graduates, Miss Mansfelde, Miss Frankish and Miss Dean will be at the University again this year, working for a second degree. Miss Frankish has a scholarship in mathematics and is instructing a class in preparatory mathematics. Miss Taylor is teaching in Omaha.

The national convention of the fraternity met in Minneapolis the latter part of August. Miss Frankish was the delegate, going to Minnesota on her way back from Michigan, where she had been spending the summer.

Miss Bonnell and Miss Winifred spent the summer at Manitou. Miss Miller was in Colorado also for a couple of weeks. Mrs. Bacon went to California after college closed in the spring and this fall enters Leland Stanford, Jr., University. Miss Sada Taylor, who taught last year in Omaha, and Miss Bryant, who taught in Anaconda, Mont., were in Lincoln during the summer. Miss Duty Mansfelde is teaching in Ashland this year and Miss Jo in the Omaha High School.

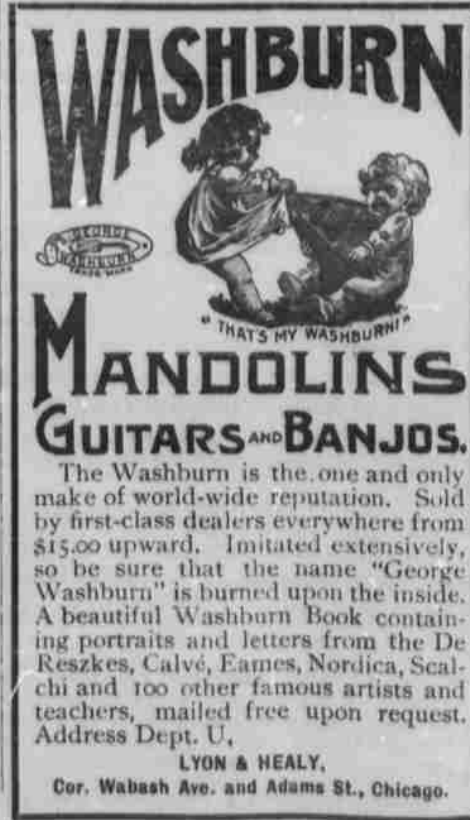

The fraternity greatly mourns the loss of one of its most esteemed members, Ada Butler, who died last Sunday at her home, 1728 N street. She had been a resident of the city for many years and was well known both in the University and elsewhere.

Pi Beta Phi starts the opening of the college year with unusually bright prospects. The members who are now in the city are Annie Stuart, Lennie Stuart, Darleen Woodward, Adeline Quaintance, Bertha Quaintance, Anna Lytle, Jennie Barber, Edna Caracaden, Quete Haskell, Mary McGahey, Oda Closson, Mae Lansing, Belle Reynolds, Grace Reynolds, Kate Walker and Bessie Turner.

Neva Morris is expected to return in time to renew her studies at the beginning of the second semester.

Gertrude Wright, Amy Robinson, Ada Waugh and Nita Bunting will not be in the University this year.

All the Kappa Alpha Thetas who were active last year will be in college again. Emily Weeks, who was obliged to quit work on account of ill health, is now well enough to resume work. Charlotte Clark is prolonging her summer vacation in Ohio, but expects to return in October. Mrs. Fling is back from a six months' trip to Europe and will continue her studies in the graduate school. The present roll of active members is Mrs. F. M. Fling, Jane Macfarland, Jessica Morgan, Leola Vanell, Nelle Randall, Edith Schwartz, Grace MacMillan, Jean Tuttle, Emily Weeks, Charlotte Clark and Lida Millar, while Ella Harper and Frances Cunningham are wearing the black and gold.
