

LOCALS.

All cadets have been ordered to appear in full uniform this week.

Subscribe now for the Nebraskan. Fifty cents for the rest of the year.

Alpha Tau Omega entertained its friends Friday evening, December 17.

Verne Hedgo was initiated by Kappa Sigma, Saturday evening, December 18.

Dr. Peters has a bulletin on the corn-stalk disease in this state, now in the press.

Roy Carter, of Norfolk, was initiated by Beta Theta Pi, Friday evening, December 17.

Miss Lulu Merrill gave an afternoon tea to some of her friends, Saturday, December 18.

Miss Phoebe Doty, of David City, visited with her Pi Beta Phi sisters just before the holidays.

See Dr. Leonhardt's ad in this issue.

J. E. Fechet has been promoted from third sergeant to the position of sergeant major of the second battalion.

Prof. F. W. Fling read a paper before the American Historical Association, at Cleveland, O., during the holidays.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon gave a banquet and smoker, Monday evening, December 20, in honor of William Reed Dunroy.

Professor Card has just issued a bulletin on the codling-moth that will be of interest to the farmers and fruit growers of the west.

The art exhibit will be open this week. By getting tickets at the Chancellor's office, the students have to pay only fifteen cents for admission.

Mr. Cliff Wescott, who was at the University last year, came down from Plattsmouth Saturday evening and stayed in town until Monday morning.

In order to enlarge the orchestra pit the manager of the Oliver will take out the first row of seats. And the question now is, What will Phil Russell do?

The Misses Cropsey, Hargreaves, and Winger, and Messrs. Chapin, Shedd, and W. C. Reed, reported fine skating at Lincoln park, but they intimate that walking was terrible.

Jack Hitchman has accepted a position with the Burlington railway. The electrical work he has been doing for the University will hereafter be in charge of Charles True.

Miss Clara Conklin, of the department of romance languages, spent her holiday vacation with friends in Indianapolis and attended a conference of teachers of modern languages.

Graham Taylor informs the committee who have been in communication with him that it will be impossible for him to spend a day here and give a talk before the end of the school year.

The Anti-Saloon League will meet in Lincoln the end of this month and has offered a gold medal for the best oration given by a student of any college in the state. One student in each college may contest for it.

The instructors and readers in European history have become so indignant because of the lack of wormth in the office and lecture room, that they held a meeting on the stairs and decided to resort to desperate measures of some kind.

If you are a well-posted student, you must read the news, and the only place where you will find all the news is in the Nebraskan. Don't borrow your neighbor's paper when you can get the Nebraskan for the rest of the college year for fifty cents.

The Union society held an election of officers Monday afternoon, December 21. Harry Evans was elected president; Miss Eva McCune, vice-president; Miss Muman, recording secretary; Miss McGuffey, corresponding secretary; Perse Morse, treasurer; W. G. Kinton, sergeant-at-arms; Miss Chappell, critic.

Students will find it to their advantage to patronize the book and stationery departments of Herpolsheimer & Co., for note books, history paper, history covers, university tablets fountain pens, dictionaries, French German and English, Latin and Greek translations and all university supplies. Our list of 5 cent sheet music contains names of over 4,000 pieces both vocal and instrumental. Our music department sells all musical instruments and supplies at lowest prices.

David Kilpatrick of Ann Arbor, paid a short visit to his Phi Kappa Psi brothers last Monday.

William Hawley Smith is expected at Wesleyan university January 17, when he will give a reading during the entire evening.

O. R. Bowman, '95, has resigned his position as principal at Nehawka, Neb., and accepted the principalship of the Waverly schools.

O. H. Allen, J. H. Lieu, J. H. McGuffey, J. A. Maguire and J. D. Dennison attended the Travelling Men's banquet to Hon. W. J. Bryan at the Lincoln hotel Tuesday evening.

Orlo Brown, while spending the holidays in Omaha, was very unexpectedly called home to Talmage by the very sudden death of his father, December 27, resulting from heart disease. Mr. Brown has returned to his work in the university.

Men's rubbers 17 cents up, ladies' rubbers 14 cents up. Gent's fine Vicid kid shoes, worth $5.00, go at $3.50. One lot men's French enamel Bulldog toe, extension sole, worth $6.00, for $3.00 for a few days only. Nebraska Shoe Co., 1126 O st. M. H. Brown, Manager.

Alpha Theta Chi gave its annual banquet at the Lincoln New Year's eve. The guests of the fraternity were: Dr. Sherman, Professor Hodgman, Messrs. Gifford, Wakely and Gordon Clark. The members present were: Messrs. Broady, Cortelou, Cutter, Dales, Erwin, Humphrey, Hiltner, Randolph, Ricketts, Sherman, Martin, Town.

Mr. Haecker gave a sleigh ride on the evening of December 23, to a few of his friends in honor of his sister, who is visiting him from Minnesota. Those present were: Messrs. Barber, Haecker, White, Chapin, Polke, Brown, Christie; the Misses Haecker, Daisy Minor, Anne Minor, Webster, Winger, Wilson, Woods, Lansing, and Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Peters.

SCHOOL OF MUSIC.

Miss Treat spent the holidays in Chicago.

Mr. Randolph made his parents a visit in the old Kentucky home.

A grand piano has just been placed in the recital hall for the benefit of pupils who appear at students' weekly recitals. These are largely attended and interesting.

The glee club is getting down to better work, and with the prospect of a fine home concert and a trip that will take them into an adjoining state, there will be no lack of enthusiasm, and promptness at rehearsals.

The Philharmonic orchestra gave a special concert for visiting teachers last week. Harriet Dement Packard being the soprano soloist. The ladies' quartet sang a number with much expression at the music carnival, inaugurated by the state teachers' association. They ought to be heard frequently.

Work is pursued with much vigor since the holiday recess, and all departments show an increase. If one has an idea that to study music is a mere pastime, he should go into the school of music during recitation hours and be would soon be convinced of the serious purpose and ambition of the mature young people in attendance.

Bumstead & Tuttle devote their entire attention to tailoring and furnishings, and do not sell ready-made clothes.

Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pen.

ALUMNI.

R. H. Graham, '97, of Arapahoe, attended the association.

A. C. Fling, '94, of the Nebraska City high school, was an association visitor.

Miss Amy Bruner, '96, now of Wisner, was a visitor during the Christmas vacation.

N. C. Abbott, '96, was home from the Institute of the Blind, where he is teaching.

Miss Helena Redford, '97, of the Plattsmouth schools, was in Lincoln for Christmas.

Mr. J. V. Z. Cortdyon, '97, came down from Omaha to attend the Alpha Theta Chi banquet.

J. J. Hunt, '96, came down from Palmyra where he is teaching, to attend the association meetings.

D. L. Killen, '96, law, now superintendent of schools in Julesburg, was a Lincoln visitor last week.

Miss Olivia Pound, '95, who is teaching in the Seward high school, came home to spend the holidays.

Norman Shreve, '97, who is teaching at North Loup, Neb., visited the University just before the holidays.

Miss Myrtle Wheeler, '96, and Miss Laura Pfeiffer, '97, of the Omaha high school, were visitors in Lincoln during the past week.

Hugh Wilson, '97, formerly captain of Company C, was an interested spectator at the cadet drill two weeks ago.

County Superintendent Rhodes, '96, was greeted by many of his friends while in attendance at the teachers' association.

Miss Mabel Ricketts, '97, entertained the assistants in the department of European history, Saturday evening, December 18.

Geo. L. Towne, '95, at present principal of Junction City, Kan., high school, spent Christmas in Lincoln visiting relatives and his fraters in Alpha Theta Chi.

Alli Randolph, '97, who has been teaching at York college, spent the holidays in Lincoln. He has just accepted an offer as principal of the West Point high school.

The current number of the Law Review, of the University of New York, contains the thesis of Mr. Goodner, '97, law, who won first honors at this university with the same thesis.

A. F. Woods, '89, was a visitor at the University for several days last week. Mr. Woods now holds the position of assistant chief in the division of vegetable physiology in Washington. He is also an old member of the Sem Bot.

Worthy P. Sterns, A. B., '95, A. M., '97, U. of N., has an article in the December issue of "The Journal of Political Economy," published by the University of Chicago, on "International Indebtedness of the United States in 1789."

If bilious or costive, eat a Cascaret, candy cathartic, cure guaranteed, 10c, 25c.

Northwestern University Medical School.

The regular course is four years; with conditions for advanced standing. This school claims superiority in the extent and thoroughness of laboratory courses and in the great variety of its clinical material and the methods by which it is used in teaching. For circulars of information address the Secretary,

DR. N. S. DAVIS, JR.,
2413 Dearborn St., Chicago.

YOUNG MEN...

Don't fail to look at the fine line of Men's Suits and Overcoats from $7 to $20, at the

EWING CLOTHING CO.

1115-17 O STREET.

It's Cold.

Buy Underwear while you can get what you want.

Buy Cloaks while the assortment is complete.

We think we have what you want.

Come and see us.

MILLER & PAINE.

When You Travel Always Take The

The Best Route from Lincoln, Neb.

To OMAHA—All points East. KANSAS CITY—East and South. DENVER and all Colorado points. OGDEN and SALT LAKE. BUTTE and HELENA. PORTLAND, SEATTLE, SAN FRANCISCO and LOS ANGELES.

Has the best modern equipment. Pullman Palace and Tourist Sleepers. Dining and Free Reclining Chair Cars.

For time schedules, tickets, reservation of births, call on or address E. B. SLOSSON, Gen. Agt., 1044 O street, Lincoln, Neb. J. T. MASTIN, C. T. A. S. H. H. CLARK, Pres. E. DICKINSON, Gen. Mgr. E. L. LOMAX, G. P. & T. A. Omaha, Neb.

The University of Nebraska. SCHOOL OF MUSIC.

Offers Complete Courses in the Following Branches:

Pipe-Organ, Piano Forte, Voice Training, String Instruments, Wind Instruments, Harmony, Counterpoint, History, General Theory, Sight Reading.

Offers Free Advantages not found Elsewhere.

Free Scholarships in all Departments, Orchestral Training, Military Band Training, Concerts, Lectures, Recitals.

If You are Thinking of Studying Music Investigate the Merits of this School

WILLARD KIMBALL, Director.

Mr. Albert Turpin's DANCING SCHOOL

Now open for Season 1897-98.

Adult classes, every Tuesdays and Thursdays Juvenile, Wednesday 4 p. m., Saturdays, 2 p. m. Assemblies every Thursday Eve. Hall for rent. Special rates to clubs and fraternities. 1132 N St., for terms, etc. Office hours 9 to 11:30 a. m., 2 to 5 p. m.

OLIVER ERWIN, J. E. ERWIN
The Antelope Valley COAL CO.,
LINCOLN, NEB.

Yards 25th and J Sts. Office 113 N. 11th St. Phone 505.

Table Board, $2.50. Meals, 15 cts.
MEAL TICKETS, $2.50.
THE MODEL DINING HALL,
MRS. ROBT. FREELAND, Proprietress.
316 So. 12th Street. Lincoln, Neb

H. W. BROWN, Druggist.

Books and Stationery, College Text Books. And a complete stock of Standard and Miscellaneous Books.

127 SO. ELEVENTH ST.

C. EHLERS,
The Tailor.
SUITS MADE TO ORDER.
Cleaning and Repairing also Done.
126 So. 11th St.
Over Wohlenburg's Cigar Store.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE
PATENTS
TRADE MARKS, DESIGNS, COPYRIGHTS & C.
Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents. Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.
MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

HEART AND NERVOUS DISEASES
are just as curable as other diseases. Treated exclusively by J. S. LEONHARDT, M. D.
OFFICE, 1427 O Street, Lincoln, Nebraska.
HOURS, 9 to 5 daily, except Sundays.