The Nebraskan will be sent to any address upon receipt of the subscription price, which is one dollar a year.

Contributions are solicited from all News items such as locals, personals, reports of meetings, etc., are especially desired. The Nebraskan will be glad to print any contribution relative to a general university subject, but the name must accompany all such.

Address all communication to the Nebraskan, University of Nebraska.

In Williams the foot ball team will have a splendid captain for next year. During his two years upon the Varsity he has proven himself well fitted for the position he is to hold. With the aid of a good coach there is no reason why Nebraska should not have a winning team in 1899.

Every good and loyal student ought to attend the foot ball vaudeville next Friday night. The entertainment will doubtless be good, of its kind the very best. Anyone who loves fun can have an evening's entertainment at a very moderate cost. But even more important than all this is the fact that every cent made will go toward wiping out the debt of the board. Several public-spirited students have given liberally of their time and talent to make the show a success. Their efforts should be appreciated. The least the rest of the student body can do is to buy the tickets and fill the house to overflowing.

Captain Melford, who has now played his last year upon the team, deserves much credit for what he has done for foot ball here. He has always been a steady, thoroughly reliable player, and was always in his place at critical times. Nebraska has never had a better center. As captain he has handled his men with consummate skill. He never engaged in petty squabbles with the umpire. He knew the rules, and when there was anything to complain about he talked to the proper official. If the decision was against him he accepted it and played foot ball the harder. Had we more such captains foot ball, every where, would be in better repute.

Next week's Nebraskan will be a special Christmas number. It will be the sweetest thing of the kind ever published at the University and every student and friend of the University should have a copy to read and preserve. It will contain a complete review of the foot ball season by those who are competent to write about this greatest American college sport. It will contain also a write-up of the University, its changes, graduates, school, law school, clubs and organizations of all kinds. It will be profusely illustrated, containing pictures of the foot ball and base ball teams, some of the individual players and teams of former years. There will also be pictures of the chancellors from the founding of the institution, and some new views of the buildings and interiors. It will in fact be the nearest paper you ever saw. You will want to show it to your friends here and send it to those at a distance that they may know what kind of a University it is that you are attending.

The Nebraskan is surprised at the lack of public spirit shown by the young women of the University. The instance which has been most apparent, of course, is the one connected with the Nebraskan's subscription list. Of the five hundred subscribers not more than fifty are girls. It may be that one takes the paper and passes it to her friends, but that does not encourage a struggling enterprise. It takes a good deal of time and money and effort to publish a college newspaper, and if it is deserving at all it would seem that the least any student could do would be to subscribe for it and read it. A college without a newspaper would indeed be a strange institution in these modern times. A college, of the size of the University of Nebraska, without a good newspaper, would be nearly as bad. And yet every student must realize that it is simply impossible to publish a good paper without the hearty support of the whole school. To be sure, students can do much in other ways, but they can do most by subscribing. Fifty cents or even a dollar is not much to each individual, but if the Nebraskan had 2,000 subscribers it could furnish a paper the equal of any weekly magazine in the country, one in which every student could well be proud.

The following paragraphs clipped from K. U. Weekly would indicate that they reason down there very much as they played the game—rather loosely: "It is much to be regretted that Mr. Leland was unable to arrange a better series of games for the team. All but two of the games were purely local. We would have wished that our team might have been pitted against those of some more eastern schools. The value of the games as an advertisement would be inestimable."

"The foot ball season is over and we have demonstrated that we have the best team in the west. Only one defeat mars the otherwise glorious record of the Varsity. Nebraska came upon us when we were in the midst of hard luck, but we still insist that we have the superior team, despite the fact that she defeated us by a score of 18 to 6."

"All but two of the games were PURELY LOCAL." They showed their great prowess then in the two games not PURELY LOCAL. Those games were with Missouri and Nebraska. Their recollections of the Nebraska game are surely not very happy; so really it was by beating Missouri with a score of 12 to 0 that "we have demonstrated that we have the best team in the west."

Our score with Missouri was 47-6.

BASKET BALL GAME.

The 8 o'clock and 5 o'clock divisions met in a game of basket ball last Monday evening. The 5 o'clock team had the best of it from the start, the score standing 25 to 2 in their favor. The 8 o'clock men did not hang together and team work was not attempted. The game was very rough and the umpire's whistle played a leading part. Cortelyou and Walker threw a number of goals each for the 5 o'clock class. Ahern of the 8 o'clock class threw one from field which, however, did not count. The line up was as follows:

Cortelyou (C) forwards...Ahern (C) Walker..... ".....Hunter Clinton.....Center.....Stall Smith.....backs.....Ness Morton..... ".....Turner
Officials: Referee—Pryce.
Umpires—Benedict and Berry.
Time keeper—Luckey.
Scorer—Hewitt.

The third game of the schedule was played on Wednesday night and resulted in a victory for the 5 o'clock division. The game was not close, but exciting. There were a number of fouls, but the game was considerably cleaner than the previous ones. The score stood 18 to 3 against the 3 o'clock division. The 3 o'clock team was composed of the following men: Morrison (captain), Pebbles, Macdock, Marrell and Berry. The 5 o'clocks were Cortelyou, Walker, Morton, Heard and Smith. Referee, Stebbins. Umpires, W. E. Anderson and Ahern. Time-keeper, Swallow.

Delta Tau Delta gave a most brilliant party at Courier hall last Friday evening. It was strictly a University function, and nearly all of the fraternities were represented. Music was furnished by Miss Willoughby's orchestra. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Summers; Misses Watkins, Tukey, Cole, McMennemy, Macomber, Bridge, Jaynes, Jackson, Hammond, Hayes, Macomber, Hargreaves, Winger, Richards, Houtz, Whedon, Outcalt, Crowell, Macfarland, Jessie Macfarland, Vancil, Miller, Douglas, Morgan, Clark, Douglas, Harper, McMillen, Schwartz, Wiggenshorn, Randall, Wirt, Cunningham, Wilson, Custer, Wilson, Andrews, Hamilton, Burt, Gulle, Graham, Getner; Messrs. Yoden, Wehn, Weeks, Paul Weeks, Cleland, Pancoast, Adams, Bowman, Marley, Van Vallin, Clements, Barnes, Sheldon, Shedd, Atwood, Sumner, Atwood, Abbott, Stone, Harmon, Tukey, Orlo Brown, Sherman, Collett, Folsom, Kennard, Crandall, Christenson, Manchester, McCreery, Schick, Sawyer, Hayes, Hauker, King, Manley, Kind, Whipple, Farrett, Ruiny, Monsfelde, Burt, Whitman, Brown and Weaver.

Northwestern University is reported to have recently adopted an "honor system" which is a scorcher. If detected in cheating the student is to be expelled from the University, his credits cancelled, and his name published in the college papers, copies of which are to be sent to the faculties of other colleges.

An exchange gives us this bit of statistics: In Germany one man in 213 goes to college; in Scotland one in 520; in the United States one in 2,000, and in England one in 5,000.
