Y. M. C. A. ENTERTAINMENT.

Last Tuesday evening the Y. M. C. A. gave an entertainment in the chapel, the proceeds of which went toward fitting up the new room in the basement of the Main building that was recently allotted to them by the board of regents. A moderately large audience was present, the lower floor being comfortably filled, with many in the balcony besides. For the most part the numbers were of a high standard and were well received. Nearly all were considered sufficiently good for an encore. In the competitive military drill at the close Sergeant E. A. Pearce of Company A was given the decision as the best drilled man. The judges were Captain Hastie, Captain Stebbins and Lieutenant brown.

Those upon the program deserving especial mention were Miss Vera Wattles, in a reading "Making Them Feel at Home," Miss Maude Oakley in a vocal solo, "Swallows," and a reading by Miss Crawford of the school of oratory. The Telyn quartet also rendered an excellent number and encore. The club swinging of Joel Stebbins called forth repeated applause after each difficult feat. Miss Belle Warner again appeared in a vocal solo. The program complete was as follows:

- "Mystery" Marston
- Telyn Quartet.
- Reading—"Guinevere" Tennyson
- Miss Rena Alderman.
- Club Swinging (with colored lights) Mr. Joel Stebbins
- Piano Solo—Staccato Etude Rubinstein
- Miss Emily Perkins.
- Reading—"Making Them Feel at Home" Miss Vera Wattles
- Vocal Solo—"Swallows" Cowen
- Miss Maude Oakley.
- Reading—"Swore Off"
- Miss Crawford
- Vocal Solo—"Sweetheart"
- A. L. Powell
- Miss Belle Warner.
- Reading—"Rhyme of the Duchess Mae" Browning
- Miss May Wallace.
- Cornet Solo—"Nimrod Polka" Casey
- Mr. Earle Wehn.
- Competitive Military Drill by three of the best drilled men from each company. Judges: Major Weeks, Captain Stebbins and Lieutenant Brown.

A double quartet and a mandolin club are being formed in the university. The probable membership of the first is: First tenors, Sherman Perkins; second tenors, J. Sumner, Manchester; first basses, C. Sumner, Cursenden; second basses, Reed Gillespie. The mandolin club is still in a much more unsteered condition. It is probable that it will have about eleven members.

The senior class met last Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The election of officers was the principal thing accomplished. Informal ballot for president stood: Boomer 45; Doran, 30; Sumner, 15; Lansing, 5; Warner, 1; Landis, 1; Turner, 1. The formal ballot resulted in the election of Mr. Boomer, 55 to 45, over Mr. Doran. Other officers: "Doc" Landis, vice president; Addie Lewis, secretary; Frank Rain, treasurer; Hattie Cook, historian; Otis Whipple, sergeant-at-arms.
