MAN'S LITTLE HERE BELOW.

Judge—"Were you drunk when you assaulted this citizen?"

Student (by name of John Smith)—"I must have been for he is twice as large as I am."

When a mother tucks her boy,
Her baby and her joy,
In his little crib and gently then does rock it,

She does not stop to think
That some day he will slink
To "exams," with his crib tucked in his pocket.

"There are many curious things about a dog, one especially."

"What are they?"
"The seat of his pants are in his chest and he always has his pants short during warm weather."

The father asked, "How have you done in mastering ancient lore?" "I did so well," replied the son, "they gave me an encore; the faculty liked me and hold me so dear they make me repeat my freshman year."

Hoster—"Mr. Wagner, does your mother raise much poultry?"

Wagner—"Well, I think she planted some last year, but the chickens ate it up."

DORIS'S SHOESTRINGS.

On Doris's feet
Are the smallest of twos;
But surely some elf
Has enchanted her shoes,
For wherever we go,
If we walk, row or ride,
In church or at tennis,
Her shoes come untied.
At times it is trying,
But what can I do,
When poor Doris murmurs,
"Oh bother that shoestring!"
So down I must flop
In the dust or the dirt
To tie up the shoe
Of that dear little flirt.
The precious girl tyrants
We cannot rebel,
For ever their ribbons
Are filled with their spell.
Since old-fashioned aprons
No longer they use,
They tie a poor man
To the strings of their shoes.

MY FIRST CIGAR—A FRAGMENT.

'Twas just inside the woodshed
One glorious summer day,
Far o'er the hills the sinking sun
Pursued its westward way,
And in my lonely seclusion,
Safely removed afar
From all of earth's confusion,
I smoked my first cigar.
Oh! bright the boyish fancies
Wrapped in the wreaths of blue,
My eyes grew dim, my head was light,
And the woodshed 'round me flew.
Dark night closed in around me,
Rayless, without a star,
Grim death I thought had found me,
And spoiled my first cigar.

Say, I've got a little brother,
Never teased to have him nuther,
But he's here;
They just went ahead and brought him,
And, last week, the doctor brought him,
Wa'n't that queer?
When I heard the news from Molly,
Why, I thought at first 'twas jolly,
'Cause, you see,
I s'posed I could go and get him,
And then mama, course, would let him
Play with me.
But when I had once looked at him,
"Why!" I says, "My sakes is that him?"
Just that mite!

They said "Yes," and "Ain't he cunnin'?"
And I thought they must be fannin'—
He's a sight!
He's so small, its just amazin',
And you'd think he was ablazin',
He's so red;
And his nose is like a berry,
And he's bald as Uncle Jerry
One his head,
Why, he is n't worth a dollar!
All he does is cry and holler
More and more;
Won't sit up, you can't arrange him—
I don't see why Pa don't change him
At the store,
Now we've got to dress and feed him,
And we really don't need him
More'n a frog;
Why'd they buy a baby brother
When they knew I'd good deal ruther
Have a dog?

I wish I had some whiskers
To cover up my face;
Some thick and fuzzy whiskers
That didn't leave a space.
My chin is frozen solid,
My nose is freezing too.
I wish I had some whiskers:
'Most any kind would do.
—I AM WHIS KERLESS.

It is now fully decided that Michigan and Wisconsin will again resume the athletic relations broken off in 1893. Graduate Manager Baird of the Michigan team was in Madison a few days ago, and held a long consultation with Manager Fisher. As a result a game was scheduled for November 4, to be played in Detroit. It was the general desire to play the game at Milwaukee, but owing to Michigan's having scheduled to play two other games outside the state, it was agreed to postpone the Detroit game until next year.

The Great Dissolution Sale

continues to attract crowds of buyers, continues to interest thrifty people and is rapidly attaining the end for which it was created--that is--TURNING MERCHANDISE INTO CASH AT A RECORD-BREAKING PACE.

All departments offer values such as have never been offered to a Lincoln public before, every line of merchandise is priced as low as it is possible for us to reduce it, in fact nothing has been neglected or overlooked in the preparations for this--the most important event in our history.

This week's selling has indeed been most gratifying; the vast armies of buyers that filled the store prove conclusively that people fully appreciate offerings and realize what a saving an event of this kind means to them. Our object is to raise a large sum of money as speedily as possible and to accomplish this we spare nothing; profit and price are alike sacrificed.
