

ALUMNI AND FORMER STUDENTS.

C. A. Beach is studying law in Omaha.

'88.—F. W. Kramer is claim agent for the B. & M.

H. P. Kerr is engaged in electrical work in Omaha.

'86.—E. H. Eddy is now a practicing physician in Omaha, Neb.

'90.—Miss Jessie Wolfe came in November 17 to visit her many friends.

John Lyons, '92, came in to spend Thanksgiving with his sister Cora.

Paul Burleigh, a student here last year, is now working in a bank in Omaha.

Dr. Lee Edwards came down from Omaha to visit his friends, November 26.

Geo. Palmer, at one time a member of the class of '94, is in business with his father.

Mr. Brevort, a student here some time ago, is a student of the Omaha medical college.

Dr. Warner went to Omaha last Saturday to discuss railroad rates with some railroad officials.

'89.—Professor T. A. Williams of the Ashland schools was visiting the University one day last week.

J. P. Coleman, at one time a student of the University, is studying law in the office of the county attorney, Omaha.

'88.—Jared G. Smith will soon go to Europe, where he will study at some one of the universities, probably at Zurich.

'88.—Miss Grace M. Barrett has given up her position in Sidney, Neb., to accept a situation in the public schools of Salt Lake City.

'81.—At the request of the American Historical Association Miss Mary A. Treeman's thesis "The M. A. degree," will be read before the next meeting of that body. General Birney will discuss the work.

W. W. Robertson has sold the Sidney, (Neb.) Telegraph and has retired from journalism for the present. During the fourteen months that he has had charge of the paper he has not only given the people of Cheyenne county a live, progressive exponent of their interests, but he has also been successful financially. "Bob" is at present in Salt Lake City.

FROST—BONNELL.

At the residence of the bride's parents, corner R and Twenty fourth streets, this city, on Wednesday evening, November 19, 1890, Miss Jennie C. Bonnell was married to Mr. A. L. Frost, Dr. F. S. Stein of St. Paul's church, officiating. Both the contracting parties are well and favorably known in University circles. Both graduated from the University, the bride with the class of '89, and the groom with the class of '80. Mr. Frost is the junior member of the law firm of Sawyer, Snell & Frost of this city, and is rapidly rising to prominence in his profession. THE HESPERIAN extends to the happy couple best wishes for the future.

SOUTHERN TOURS.

The Union Pacific system has in connection with its all the year round tourist rates to Ogden, Salt Lake and Pacific coast points placed on sale winter excursion tickets at low rates to all southern resorts in North and South Carolina, Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana, Florida, Texas, Mexico and to Havana, Cuba. For rates and particulars apply at 1044 O street, or Union depot.

E. B. SLOSSON, City Ticket Agent.

STRAY PICK-UPS.

Who is it that sleeps in the French class?

Fred Gund spent a week home recently.

Miss Getner ate Thanksgiving turkey at home.

Colson had a visit from a brother, November 14.

H. E. Nelson has been appointed quartermaster-sergeant.

Misses Gray and Howard spent Thanksgiving in Fremont.

The Owl intimates that Crete has charms for Rockhold.

A. V. House called at the University one evening last week.

It has been said that Tucker boards at the corner of Q and Seventeenth.

For once the faculty gave us a treat: No school Friday after Thanksgiving.

There is very little danger that Rockhold will stay away from camp this year.

On account of sickness Paul Pizey was absent from school two days last week.

Lieutenant Schell, pointing his sword at trembling cadet: "Say there you feller!"

Lieutenant Griffith now has a class in fencing which is composed of young ladies.

John B. Fogarty, our editor-in-chief, spent Thanksgiving at Beatrice with C. D. Schell.

Messrs. Poiard and Sheldon ate Thanksgiving turkey with their parents in Nehawka.

O. G. Miller went on a trip to Kansas, November 17. He visited at Denver before returning.

In French exam the other morning Barber said: "Professor it is getting pretty warm in here."

Ask Marlay and Barber why they went down on D street so early Saturday morning, November 22.

Prep: "Is Miss R—a relative of Mr. S—?" Sheldon: "You must have had a horrible nightmare!"

Miss Sarah W. Moore served a magnificent Thanksgiving dinner to a select number of University students.

W. C. Dorsey has accompanied his father to Hot Springs, Ark., where he will remain for some time.

The art studio was visited last week by Louis Hamilton, the Omaha Indian who was a student here last winter.

The gymnasium is thrown open every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon for the use of the young ladies.

Mr. Ellis, of Beatrice, a friend of Mr. Tait, visited the University the 10th. Mr. Ellis is now a student at Cotner.

Professors Howard and Warner receive numerous requests to write articles for the historical and political science periodicals.

On account of a sprain received while playing foot-ball W. M. Johnston was unable to go to his classes Friday, November 21.

J. W. McCrosky spent a week recently in showing the authorities of Tecumseh how to operate their electric light plant.

It is amusing to note the different manner in which enamored ones show their affection. Some seek the seclusion of the University halls, others meet on the steps, but Rockhold prefers a quiet stroll around the campus accompanied by the object of his affections.