

We call the attention of our readers to the ad of Herpolsheimer & Co. They without doubt carry the largest stocks of dry goods, cloaks, toys, and holiday goods millinery in the West. The place is well worthy of an inspection.

THE COLUMBIA CYCLE CALENDAR.

By far the most valuable business calendar for 1891 is the Columbia Cycle Calendar and stand, issued by the Pope Mfg. Co., of Boston, Mass. It is in the form of a pad containing 366 leaves, each leaf having on it a date, day of week, day of year, and number of days to come, a paragraph pertaining to cycling or some kindred subject. The leaves are fastened only on the end, so that each entire leaf can be exposed. The stand is made of stained wood, brass mounted, with pencil holder and pen rack. Although this is the sixth year of the calendar, the matter is fresh and new, the larger number of paragraphs having been specially written for this purpose.
