The UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA.

CHARLES E. BESSEY, Ph, D., Acting Ciancpllor.[Terms begin Sept. 17, 1890, Jah. 2, and Mar. 30, 1891.]

The University is the head of the public educational system of the State. It aims to continue and complete the work begun in the public schools, and secure to all an opportunity of liberal culture in literature and science, and in such techalcal and professional courses as shall from time to time be added. These advantages are offered to all freeof charge for zuition, without regard to sex or race, or place of residence, on the sole condition of, possessing the intellectnal and moral qualifications requisite for admission to such an institution.

TIIE LATIN SCHOOL

JAMES T, IRES, PH. D., PRINCIPAL.

In this school preparation is afforded for all the Undergrad nate Cuurses in the Colffag of Literature, Science ani the Arts, and also for those in the University.
The preparatory studies run through two years. Applicants for admission to the First Year will be examined on the following subjects: English Grawmar Arifkwedic, Geography, and History of the United States. Griduates of high schools sccredited for the Minor Course (now including Aarorn, Columbus, Kairmont, Friend, Gibbon, Harvard, Hebron, McCook, North Loup, Ord, Red Cloud, Sutton, Tecumseh, Holdredge and Wilber) are admitted to the Second Year class on presemtation of diplomas.

THE COLLEGES.

The University consists of two colleges, or undergraduate departments. Graduates of the Latin school, or of the high schools accredited for the major course (including now Alma, Ashland, Auburn, Heatrice, Edgar, Fremont, Granif Island, Kearney, Lincoln, Nebraska City, Plattsmouth and Ulysses) are admitted into the Freshman class of eidier college on presentation of diplomas.
Students in both colleges attend classes in conmon, as far ns possible, and baye every advantage afforded by contact with thase studying in other departaneuts and the instruction of traiued and experienced University protessors.

* For catalogues or fuller informntion apply

Tcan hivenread At our XEWH woofwerk, nom van do the w.ik kate to liam. antart yoa. Ao nisk. Y

sil your ilue la the work. sour sporn macurs,解

Shaving 10 cts
Hair Cut 25 cts

a:Working Men's Barber Shop,i-

 D I FORD, PropThe only first-ctiss ten cent shap in the cily. Nove but First-class workmen employed. Call and see us and the will please you.
BET. If and North Side O, No. 4336 O STREET

THE COLLEGE OF LITERATURE, SCIENCE, AND THE ARTS.

CHARLES E, BESSEV, PII. D, DEAN.
The Criassical Course, leading to the degree of Bachelon of Arts, affords a training in the Ancient Languages and Literatures.
Thr Iftrpary Course, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Letters, offers a training in History, Literature and the Modern Languages.

TIIE INDUSTRIAL COLI.EGE.

J. stERLING KINGSLEYY, D. MC., DEAN.

The course in Generil. Scrency, leading to the degree of Rachelor of Science, offers a liweral education, in which the Modern Sciences and the Modern I, anguages are given most prominence. The Etective Courses in Sciences, leading to the same degrce, afford a training in special lines lead. ing to Agricultural, Electrical or Scientific work.
The coursc in Civil. Engineering offers such training as will fit a young man for the practice of Civil Engineering.
For those who cans spend but a year or two in study, an Elementary course in Agriculture has been arranged.
Students in the Industrial College may obtain remunerative employment at rates ranging from 15 to 25 cents per hour, depending upon the quality of work.

SCHOOL OF TIIE FINE ARTS.

MSs MOORE AND MRS, MENZESDORF,
Instruction given in drawing and painting from the flat, casts, still lite, nature, and models in the progressive order. Pupils are required to provide easels and material; an ample selection of easts and studies is furnished in the studio. The charge for daily lessons during 12 weeks is $$ 25.00$ payable in advance. Free instruction is given to classes in Art History, Plastic Anatomy and Perspective.

The Coutse in Slusic includes instruction on the Pinno Forte, Organ and Violin. Voice training and Musical Theory. Fees for individual or class instruction are moderate.
o the sieward, J. S. DALIBS, Lincoln, Neb.
 (ench ruy fairiy inteligent pethon of cilihy
ex, who van wad sud write, and whis,

Sayer & Miller,

