

STRAY PICK-UPS.

"When a fellow's been sick." S—
 Harry Lord's father visited him last week.
 Skating is the great pastime here at present.
 Flippin—"Which shall it be,—he, she, or it?"
 Rev. Gregory led in chapel exercises January 20.
 "Excuse me, I don't want anything."—Richards.
 Fogarty still insists that the joke on Schell is true.
 Ask Sheldon when he found his shoes Sunday night.
 Messrs. Sheldon and Tefft spent Sunday, the 18th, at home.
 Hall, in the role of professor, was very unexpectedly interrupted.
 Miss Donna Wilson instructs the second preparatory drawing class.
 Miss Treat spent Sunday, January 18, at her home in Weeping Water.
 Mr. R. E. Johnson missed classes from January 9—21. Cause: rheumatism.
 Mr. Sinclair's mother was buried January 1. He is again in school.
 P. L. Hibbard is president, and A. A. Faurot is secretary of the P. B. D. C.
 The band played for Semmons, the clothier, the forenoon of Saturday, January 24.
 Cotner university has school on Saturday, and takes the weekly recess on Monday.
 Fletcher and Thurber flipped dollars for it and Fletcher won in three straight heats.
 George Hall entertained a party of friends very pleasantly Saturday evening, January 17.
 The officers of the U. B. D. C. are: Helvie, squatter governor, and Girard, secretary.
 Miss Nice gave a party to a few of her University friends, Saturday evening, January 17.
 Flippin thinks Professor Hunt always gets the best of a joke. Right you are, Flippin.
 Some of the students were well supplied with apples while the apple exhibit lasted.
 Wednesday, January 21, no chapel exercises. The agricultural society was in session.
 The annual meeting of the state agricultural society was held in the chapel, January 21-2.
 Miss My Lewis, who has been suffering from an attack of scarlet fever, is again in school.
 The high schools of Fairbury and Broken Bow have asked to be placed on the accredited list.
 It was amusing to watch the boys try to light the gas in the reading room last Tuesday morning.
 On account of sickness Professor Barber could not meet his classes on last Thursday and Friday.
 For the enlightenment of our predecessor we will say that the Freshman canes were paid for long ago.
 Miss Marsland entertained a number of Palladians Wednesday evening, January 21. All report a pleasant time.
 Tuesday, the 20th, Professor Fernow, U. S. commissioner of forestry, gave a lecture on the subject of forestry.
 It stands the Freshies in hand to be on their guard. The Sopas are likely to have a ghost dance most any time.

Practice game for Sophomore foot ball players called Wednesday, January 21. Very little kicking was done.

Dr. Stein addressed the young women and young men of the Christian association Saturday evening, January 24.

If you want pointers on how to get books out of the library when you don't dare to go there yourself call on Pizey.

Professor Bessey lectured last Friday evening at the law school on the subject, "How Science Benefits the Lawyer."

Guy Ferguson has quit school. Any mail addressed to him will find him at David City, where his parents now live.

Dr. Geiger was a little bit mad Friday night, January 16. You are all right, doctor. Turn the lights out next time.

Mr. Will Squires is the only student that left the university to go to fight Indians. He is back with an entire scalp.

It does not follow, that because Barber shows a decided preference for the Bryan-ny deep that he intends to be a sailor.

Harry Hicks and J. P. McFarland, after about six months work with a B. & M. surveying gang, are once more in school.

On account of the annual corn exhibit held in the armory, all military duties were suspended during the third week of January.

Squire, who has been lately engaged in the pleasant duty of guarding frontier towns, has resumed his studies at the University.

The Delians, who went to Cotner last Monday evening, did not have to pay for oysters, but instead, payed for their admission.

If you know of a good joke don't keep it to yourself, but tell the local editor all about it. We promise not to tell anyone else.

News boy to Sheldon—"Say, mister, do you go to the University?" Sheldon—"Yes sir." Newsboy—"What reader are you in?"

Doane college foot-ball team has accepted the challenge of our team and a match game will be played at the ball park next Saturday.

The conundrum committee of P. G. D. C. has reported the following: "Why does the electric motor resemble W. T. Brown?"

Rydberg has parted with his whiskers. He has grown tired of having students inquire whether or nothe is the assistant botanist.

A new statistical register has been given the Y. M. C. A. association by Mr. L. E. Tröyer. Heretofore no record of the work has been kept.

L. O. Shrader has been appointed clerk of the house judiciary committee. F. A. Rockhold has captured the same position in the senate.

Union society room, 8:30 p. m., Wednesday, January 14: Sheldon—"Where did you say she lived? Well, there's nothing there but bare lots."

Professor Hodgman, who has been confined to his room for several weeks, on account of rheumatism, expects to be able to meet his classes this week.

One of the new students has been inquiring why the carpet in front of Professor Hunt's door is so well worn. Fred Gund suggests that it is because so many flunk in rhetoric, that the carpet has to do double duty.