

The class of '96 is keeping up with other classes in the university. They met for organization October 16, and are now organized with the following officers: President, Adam McMullen; vice-president, Wm. Benjamin; secretary, Grace Prey; treasurer, Florence Stockton; historian, A. Roberts; sergeant-at arms, L. M. Overstreet. Don't be surprised at any time to hear a new class yell ringing through University Hall.

The man who plays the clarionet,
The man who blows the horn,
The man who makes the flute his pet,
And wakes you up at morn;
The man who plays the tenor drum
May put the soul on thistles,
But the one who oftenest makes you glum
Is the blooming wretch who whistles.—Ex.

EDITOR'S EASY CHAIR.

CORA TO CHARLIE.

DEAR CHARLEY—Come tomorrow evening, sure. Papa is at home, but is laid up with a sore foot. See?

CHARLEY TO CORA.

DEAR CORA—I can't come tomorrow evening. I am laid up on account of your papa's sore foot. See?—Ex.

Literary student to bookseller.—“I want a Chaucer.”
Bookseller.—“We don't keep tobacco, sir.”

One of our young men went out to call,
Sporting a bran new prince;
He placed his heel on a banana peel,
And he hasn't bananawhere since.—Ex.

Deep-thinking Senior.—“Say, Bullard, is life worth living?” Bullard (assuming a very wise and scientific air).—“Well, er-r. It depends on the liver.”—Ex.

A first class butter—the Rocky Mountain goat.—Smiles.

An ancient Roamin' maiden—the female book agent.—Ex.

Guppy, (as he investigated the quarter of limberger).—“Do you know what famous council of the Reformation this cheese makes me think of?”

Tuppy.—“No, what's that, Guppy?”

Guppy.—“The Diet of Worms, me boy.”—Smiles.

Prep (to zoological senior).—“Hogs die of insomnia down in Arkansaw.”

Senior.—“How is that?”

Prep.—“Mud conglomerates upon their tails so they cannot close their eyes.”
