

LOCALS.

The chancellor sports a new black hat;
The Lasso is in the soup;
The students are working the profs to death,
And everything's on the whoop.

Keep your eye on the bulletin boards.

We are promised three new janitors this fall.

Boon the tennis association! Join and play!

Ladies and gents should play tennis every day.

Mr. Rhodes, formerly of '95, is again in school.

Mr. Van Burg has been compelled to leave school.

New students should join the tennis association at once.

Miss Josephine Tremain is now instructor in the first year of Latin.

Charlie Chandler is with the B. & M. engineering gang at Huson, Wyo.

Mr. Fling, one of '94's enterprising students, is now teaching school at DeWitt.

The greenhouse now has quite a rarity in the shape of a palm tree in blossom.

About 2,500 persons visited the halls of the university during the week of the fair.

Messrs. Canfield and Chandler surveyed for the B. & M. in the western part of this state.

Professor Nicholson has resigned his position as the director of the experiment station.

All cases of sickness or accident should be reported at once to Mr. Bowen or Miss Wilder.

Miss Merta Moeller, who was in the preparatory department three years ago, is again in school.

Mr. Fletcher has been in Colorado doing assaying work, and is now at the Norfolk sugar factory.

There will be a meeting of the tennis association on Wednesday, 1:30 p. m. Everybody come.

"Middy" Maghee has concluded to give up school and has gone to work in a drug store at Rollins, Wyo.

A large crowd attended the reception given by the university Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. on the evening of the 15th.

The herbarium is now full of specimens collected during the summer. These are being classified as rapidly as possible.

Students now get credit for attending chorus and orchestra rehearsals. Now give the editors of The Hesperian a chance.

The notice blanks for students' meetings will be a great improvement over the old scraps which used to be posted on the boards.

We notice by the catalogue of the Western Normal university that Percy Walters is an instructor in military science at that place.

Professor Fling delivered one of his illustrated lectures before the freshman history class on the evening of the twenty-second.

Art. Anderson, of '93, will not be in school this semester on account of the sickness of his father. This is bad news for the foot ball enthusiasts.

Rev. Dr. Harsha of Tecumseh delivered the opening address in the chapel on the morning of the 16th. He spoke for over an hour to a large audience. Dr. Harsha is an interesting speaker and made many friends at the university.

It was an excellent idea of the powers that be to place a wooden palisade and shut off the view of the building and excavating for the new library.

The crowded condition of the university is felt by the botanical department. The department is badly in need of more instruments for laboratory work.

The registration list shows that about 750 students are now working at the university aside from those in the law school and the music and art departments.

The Ulysses ladies cornet band, which took first prize at the grand army reunion at Curtis, Neb., was piloted through the halls by Lord, Stroman, and Larsen on the 17th.

Perhaps the crowded condition of the university is nowhere more noticeable than in the chapel. Nearly one hundred students are compelled to stand every morning.

All who desire photographs should consult the manager of The Hesperian, as you can get your photos at reduced rates and of the best photographer in the city of Lincoln.

Mr. Swindle of the agricultural division of the botanical department at Washington visited this university on the 14th and made many acquaintances among the university botanists.

Messrs. Barber, Troyer, Kenyon, Rydberg, and several other university students spent six weeks of the vacation in northwestern Nebraska and southern Dakota, collecting bugs for the university.

Messrs. Pollard and R. E. Johnson went to Peru on the twenty-eighth for the purpose of organizing a republican club at the normal school, and of enlightening the people on the political issues of the day.

During the state fair the botanical department received several presents from the friends of the university. Among these were several cacti from Mr. Roberts and a cycad from Mr. E. C. Erfling of Omaha.

Among the many improvements are the baskets placed in various portions of the halls for waste paper. We hope the students will remember the purpose these baskets are meant to serve and thus save the janitor much labor.

The following is a clipping from a letter received during the summer from the Black Hills: "Saw Lehmer the other day. He looks well and has whiskers all over his face in spots. He and his violin are the pride and wonder of the country.

The band started out this year with twenty-four playing members. Five or six more are waiting to join as soon as instruments can be provided. Professor Easterday will wield the baton and make it the best and largest band ever organized by the university.

The chancellor was just in the nick of time last Saturday to be of great service to one of the new co-eds. She was endeavoring to mail a letter in one of the city's fire alarm boxes, but by the timely appearance of the chancellor the letter was saved from the flames.

The French seminar was organized last week by Professor Fling. The members are Lulu M. Greer, Nellie Faulkner, Mattie Hutchinson, and J. J. Sayer. Their work will be original investigation of the "Fronde." They will meet on Thursdays from 4 to 6 o'clock p. m.

The republican club met on the evening of the twenty-second and elected the following officers for the ensuing semester: President, R. E. Johnson; vice president, W. H. Sawyer; secretary, R. H. Johnson; treasurer, A. McMullen; historian, Burt Forbes; sergeant-at-arms, W. P. Rowe.