In order to bring faculty and students into closer touch, and to make the HESPERIAN truly representative of our institution, the management has prevailed upon some members of the faculty to contribute for the paper regularly. We trust that this is an innovation that the students will appreciate.

WHEN our foot ball club carried the scarlet and cream to victory last Monday it demonstrated beyond a doubt that we have a foot ball team better than the most sanguine had dared to hope. One of the very best teams in the west failed to score against our Eleven. This has served to show what excellent foot ball material we have. If our club be supported with the proper spirit and the necessary cash, there is every reason to believe that the University of Nebraska will this season win the pennant.

FOOT BALL is a game necessarily rough, accidents are at all times liable to happen, but liability to accidents is greatly diminished if the game is played in a fair, honest, gentlemanly spirit. The popularity of foot ball is due to the fact that gentlemen, not thugs, have played it. The game of the 24th was characterized by a single exhibition of ruffianism. As the men were rising from a scrimmage, after time had been called, when slugging could not possibly avail, one of the Illinois men deliberately struck a Nebraska player squarely in the face and knocked him senseless. This attack was brutal and cowardly, and wholly without justification. It was the act of a bully whose proper place is the prize ring, not the col-
