Let every student "stand up" for the University in the coming state contest. "Our" style is bound to win(g).

At a recent meeting of the Oratorical Association a motion prevailed, whereby all surplus monies in the hands of the Treasurer, with the exception of five dollars, should be turned over to the Athletic Association. The athletes are appreciative of this generous assistance and rejoice over the fact that they can make preparations for the spring work untrammelled by indebtedness.

Last evening there was held an informal reunion, in Grant Memorial Hall, of the legislators, the University, the faculties of other colleges, the alumni, and a few invited guests. After the reunion, all adjourned to the chapel; orchestra and chorus entertained them for a short time by rendering a musical program which was well received by the visitors. Then followed a general inspection of all buildings.

Mr. George Kennan, who spoke last year on "An East Siberian Convict Mine," will again speak under the auspices of the Palladian society next Tuesday, February 21, at the Lansing theatre. His lecture is to be on "Russian Political Exiles," and is to be finely illustrated by stereopticon views obtained by Kennan himself, when in Siberia. The committee having the lecture in charge authorizes the announcement that all students may obtain special student's tickets in any part of the balcony for fifty cents each, at the HESPERIAN office after Friday morning. This rate is to students only, and is a step in the right direction.
