

EXCHANGE.

The pride of the Vassar girls is that none of their graduates have ever been divorced.

—Ex.

How many have had an opportunity?

In olden times the lovelorn youth,
Who held life not worth living,
Would plunge a dagger in his heart
And die, his love forgiving.

The modern youth who, soured by love,
Seeks shorter paths to heaven,
His sweater dons, eats raw beefsteak,
And joins the football 'leven.

—Sequoia.

The first woman in the world to receive the degree of electrical engineering is Miss Bertha Lamendr. of Springfield, Ohio. She is a graduate of the Ohio State University, where she led her class throughout the entire course.

When you see a Freshman going to chapel in the midst of a crowd of smiling upper class men, it is safe to presume that said freshman is being "rushed."—Ariel.

The state of Iowa has spent $3,000,000 on her insane asylum, fifteen times as much as on her University. How is it with Nebraska?

Oberlin was the first College in the world to admit women on an equal plane with men, and opened its doors to negroes twenty-eight years before their emancipation.—S. U. I. Quill.

Two students attending the Normal School at Valparaiso, Ind. attempted to rob the banking department the other day at 3:30 p. m. One is dead, the other is lying wounded behind the bars.

Don't let the other students out-strip you in literary work and extemporaneous speaking. If ex-college men tell us rightly, this feature of college life is of very great importance. Join one of the literary societies and receive all the benefit to be gotten from it.—Ex.

'Mid pleasures and palaces,
Though we may roam,
We think of our mammas,
We'd like to go home.
Abroad it's so different,
No one seems to care
For the tears we are weeping;
We don't want to stay there.
Home, home, home, home, home,
I want to go home, I want to go home.

—Ex.

It is hard for an empty bag to stand upright, as J. said when he saw the sleepy student's head gradually sink down on his Greek book.—Ex.

* New Student—"How much is the Cosmos a year?"

Business Manager—"One dollar."

N. S.—Is it intended for any special faction of the student body?"

B. M.—"Yes, sir. For the faction that has a dollar."

In Latin and Greek
He was quite a streak;
In dress he was fopish and tony
The latter was due to his being an ass,
The former was due to his pony.

—Harvard Lompoom.

College journalism originated at Dartmouth in 1880.

The HESPERIAN contains many excellent literary productions.—Mulhenberg.

When people complain that they are universally accused of all kinds of meanness, we may safely take it for granted that the major part of the charges are true. The world's estimate is usually correct.—Ex.

Do you want a daily paper with the HESPERIAN? Well you can, this way, by an arrangement with the local management. Students of the Uni. can get the HESPERIAN and the World Herald by the month at sixty-five cents in advance.

Take your shoes to Walt's for repairs.
Good work guaranteed.