

winter. In the spring he will return to the electrical works of the Westinghouse company, of which he has charge.

A. P. Libley, who was an industrious student of the University for three years, is now principal of the High School at Elk Creek.

'93. Paul Pizey returned from his extended eastern trip October 3. He will spend several days at his home, Dakota City, and then enter the Law Department of the University.

June fourteenth, 1892, Miss Hattie V. Ruliffson was married to Mr. Waldo Harris. Both the bride and groom are old students of the University. They were active members of the Union society, and are well known among all college circles. As students they were among the most superior, and socially they were popular and blessed with many friends. They now reside in Oberlin, where Mr. Harris occupies the chair of biology in Oberlin college.

LOCAL.

C. C. Marlay is in Chicago.

Miss Alice Hawes is in Chicago.

C. F. Tucker leaves for Chicago to-day.

Ernest Houghton left for Chicago October 11.

Prof. Edgren has offered a new elective in Sanskrit.

Miss Graham is very dangerously ill with typhoid fever.

The Camera Club starts out with bright prospects this year.

Roscoe Cather, of Red Cloud, is visiting his sister, Willa Cather.

October 6, the Sigma Chis gave a dancing party in their new rooms.

Paul Pizey has returned from the East and is posting in the law school.

October 1, the mother of Miss Jessie and Miss Bertha Law died at her home on M and Thirtieth street.

See the HESPERIAN's prize offer and try literature for the cash there is in it.

Miss Elizabeth Wilder visited her sisters, Misses Kate and Annie Wilder, October 1.

The editors of the '94 annual met on Thursday, October 5, to arrange their work.

New signs have been placed upon the various buildings for the benefit of the uninitiated.

C. L. Tallmadge, business manager of the HESPERIAN, is laid up with typhoid fever at his home in Geneva.

Some time later in the month, Professor Barbour intends going to Chicago to purchase some of the leavings of the great Fair for our museum.

Dr. Edwards, a former student and now a practicing physician, was nominated by the democratic convention for coroner. Every student should assist him.

Prof. Menzendorf seems much pleased with the prospects of his Junior Orchestra. Their practice has just begun with about fifteen members, as many as last year, and there is a possibility of a larger number by the end of the year.

The clearing of the courts and marking out of the lines, assures us that tennis playing will not be one of the lost arts during the coming year. The reorganized Tennis Association starts in with twelve members who intend to devote their leisure to scientific tennis playing.

The HESPERIAN wishes to explain the unfortunate laundry sign which decorated its office door some days ago. The HESPERIAN has not resorted to taking in washing yet, even for the Athletic Association. The sign was a mistake, and we are sorry that it ornamented our door for a few hours.

The musical spirit of the University seems to be unusually buoyant this fall. One of the latest and most successful ventures in that line is a ladies' mandolin club. First mandolins, Miss Lucy Griffith and Miss