

Dr. White, the successor of Prof. Frankferter, arrived on the 2d. The doctor is a graduate of Johns Hopkins University, and comes here very highly recommended.

Prof. Nicholson left for Florida December 14. The professor has been ill for sometime and his doctors decided that a change of climate was necessary for his recovery.

The coming social events of the year are the monthly social gatherings of the first preps and the junior banquet. The preps will soon petition the faculty for credit in this line.

The hissing of Judge Hastings the other day by the academic students, who were studying in chapel, was simply accidental and not intentional, as some of the students seem to think.

The Palladians gave a very successful musicale Friday evening, the 8th. Since their hall would not hold the crowd, the Delians kindly consented to give them the chapel, which was nearly filled.

The new uniforms have arrived. Lieut. Pershing is untiring in his efforts to improve the battalion. This time it is the letters, "U. N." in white on the collars of the coats. Hereafter, we can be distinguished from the numerous Normal school "soldiers" of this vicinity.

If you have any time to spare just step over to the historical library rooms and hunt up your autograph in the big book that you scrawled in at the Nebraska building before the fair was over. There are five immense registers, and if you don't happen to remember the day you signed your name, you'll never be able to prove that you attended the big show.

The meeting of the foot-ball team recently held resulted, after several ballots and considerable excitement, in the election of Dern as captain of the team for the ensuing season. He undoubtedly did splendid work as one of the line men in the recent games, and with the hearty co-operation of all interested in foot-ball he can be relied upon to do his part in "pushing" hard to gain the pennant for the University next fall.

TO STUDENTS.

The HESPERIAN and World Herald delivered at your room for sixty-five cents per month in advance. Give your name to the business managers.

If your eyes trouble you don't delay, but go to Thompson, the optician, at once. Satisfaction guaranteed. 1241 O street.

Everyone knows that Herpolsheimer & Co., Lincoln, are perhaps the largest operators of all kinds of goods in the west. This fact enables them to buy large lots of goods very low, as illustrated by them selling 75c Jap. Dress Silk, that will not pull, at 39c a yard. Navy only.

Did it ever occur to you that we have right here in Nebraska the finest system of stores in the country outside of New York? We refer to Herpolsheimer & Co. A few years ago it seemed a great mistake, but they have built up so good a trade that they have over one-half of the Exposition building, rent free, thus enabling them to save this great item of expense in conducting a business.

Do you want a daily paper with the HESPERIAN? Well you can, this way, by an arrangement with the local management. Students of the Uni. can get the HESPERIAN and the World-Herald by the month at sixty-five cents in advance. The World-Herald gives you all the Lincoln, state and national news, delivered at your door early in the morning. The HESPERIAN does all this in a school way and is issued twice a month. Leave your subscription with the business managers of the HESPERIAN, or at the World-Herald office, 1045.

"Do you love her still?" asked the judge of a man who wanted a divorce. "Certainly I do," said he. "I love her better still than any other way, but the trouble is she never will be still."—Sel.