The new Cloaks, Clothing and Dress Goods shown by Herpolsheimer & Co. are the choicest lines ever shown in the west.

Students should patronize Carder's New Dining Hall, at the northeast corner of 11th and P streets. W. W. Carder, proprietor.

One of the few beneficial results of the present financial stringency has been the reduction in prices in upholstering. You get hard times prices at Rothschild's, 126 No. 12th street, Burr Block.

Everyone knows that Herpolsheimer & Co., Lincoln, are perhaps the largest operators of all kinds of goods in the west. This fact enables them to buy large lots of goods very low, as illustrated by them selling 75c Jap. Dress Silk, that will not pull, at 39c a yard. Navy only.

Did it ever occur to you that we have right here in Nebraska the finest system of stores in the country outside of New York? We refer to Herpolsheimer & Co. A few years ago it seemed a great mistake, but they have built up so good a trade that they have over one-half of the Exposition building, rent free, thus enabling them to save this great item of expense in conducting a business.
