

THE HESPERIAN.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA.

VOL. XXIII.

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, APRIL 23, 1894.

No. 25

THE HESPERIAN

Issued semi-monthly by the HESPERIAN Association of the University of Nebraska.

BOARD OF EDITORS.

W. CATHER.....MANAGING EDITOR

ASSOCIATES.

G. F. FISHER.....EDITORIAL

F. BULLOCK.....LITERARY

AMY C. BRUNER.....LITERARY

A. C. PANCOST.....ATHLETIC

W. E. KIRK.....ALUMNI

NED: C. ABBOTT.....EXCHANGE

W. H. FORSYTH.....LOCAL

A. B. LYONS.....LOCAL

W. R. HARDY, Business Manager.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

One copy, per college year (in advance).....$1 00

One copy, one semester.....60

ADVERTISING RATES ON APPLICATION.

ALUMNI AND EX-STUDENTS.

Special endeavor will be made to make THE HESPERIAN interesting to former students. Please send us your subscriptions.

Subscriptions on our books will be continued until ordered stopped.

Address all communications to THE HESPERIAN, University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Neb.

EDITORIAL.

THE HESPERIAN regrets that its esteemed contemporary, that virtuous though unhappy circular, the Nebraskan, should be so anxious to vent its spleen upon the actors in the drama recently enacted in oratorical circles. It looks ill to accuse an opponent of "working off bile", and then, in return, to descend to the low level of the common mud slinger. To those who know the editorial backing of the Nebraskan, the course they pursue does not seem strange, however.

THE request made by the Senior class to the regents at their recent meeting, to allow the use of the Armory for the Senior promenade was indefinitely postponed. This action is but a continuation of the policy that led to the forming of a rule, allowing no public dance to be held in the armory. We do not see why a strictly University affair, especially a class affair, might not be held in the armory. There is a reason, of course, in refusing the use of the hall to social organizations in the University, but when the Senior class wishes to have part of their commencement exercises in a University building, we see no valid reason for refusing them.

WE WISH annuals were less expensive luxuries. We cherish a desire to go out from this institution with a few pennies in our pockets. It is authoritatively stated that this annual will be an edition de luxe. We hope so. It costs enough. Objection has been raised to the charge for insertion when coupled with that for space. There seems no way to overcome the difficulty. The business managers say that whoever refuses to pay the charges may not have space. Why this charge is higher this year in some cases, than previously, no one can explain. If the managers do not change a gold-clad rule, the matter will probably sift down to a test of the amount each school organization can pay for a place in the edition de luxe. Later: the charge has been removed.

ADAM McMULLEN says: "The idea of calling our crowd a ring!" That was before the publication of the last issue of the