

LOCAL.

H. S. Lord is in town again.

Pedigree on tap, inquire of Mallalulu.

Did you notice Tallmadge always bobs up serenely?

J. W. Morrow visited his home in Bloomington last week.

Ida Boonell '91, now of Chicago, visited the University yesterday.

Miss Watson entertained the Unions at her home some time ago.

Miss Margaret Prey is rivaling her uncle Lehmer of old in whistling.

Young Price went up to Omaha Monday, to see Kelly and his immortal army.

The new members are to give the program at the Union Friday night.

A splendid collection of red seaweed has been received in the botanical department.

The batallion drill before the Board of Regents was a fine exhibition of military skill.

Messrs. Hart and Walker entertained friends at their room at the Ideal Hotel last Saturday.

Chancellor Canfield visited Syracuse and Auburn inspecting the schools and lecturing last week.

Prof. Fling was absent part of last week working among the high schools in the interest of history.

Mr. F. F. Tucker attended the District Convention of the Christian Endeavor Association at Hastings.

Mr. Mallalulu will fittingly celebrate Charter Day by placing his family tree on exhibition on the campus.

The Union society has granted the State Medical society the use of their hall during their annual meetings in the first part of May.

Prof. Adams was absent from his classes last week. He was visiting the schools of Odell with the idea of raising the standard of their work.

Miss Becker, who has been absent from school for the past year, is again with us and expects to graduate with the present Sophomore class.

Mr. Young, editor of Christian Advocate of St. Louis, visited the University, Tuesday, April 16, and conducted Chapel services that morning.

The outgoing and incoming officers of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. were entertained at the home of F. F. Tucker, Saturday evening the 7th.

Misses Lewis and Marsland, and Messrs. Barber, Reed and Manley went home with Etta Gray to spend their vacation. A very enjoyable time was reported by all.

The Annual went to press on Monday. The printers expect to get it out near the first of May. It is hoped that they will, for the students are getting anxious to see the book.

The joint program of the literary societies will take place Saturday evening June 9. arrangements are being made for one of the best programs ever presented in the University.

About 150 students went out to Cotner to hear the joint debate on "Sectarian vs State Education." The debate was a lively one and, needless to say, state education had loyal support.

On Thursday evening the 5th the outgoing officers of the Palladian Society tendered the incoming officers and the society a reception at the home of Miss Grace Thompson.

Hon. G. M. Lambertson recently delivered a lecture before the Political Economy club on Money from the Standpoint of Gold. Mr. Lambertson showed clearly wherein Mr. Bryan was wrong.

A Girls' Glee Club has been organized. Some of the best musical talent of the University is interested in the organization and there seems to be a chance that it will be something more than an organization.