

ants and visitors, will be charged this year. The list of events which are to take place Field Day will be placed on the bulletin board so that all wishing to enter any of the contests can begin training at once. It is to be hoped that many will enter and closely contest each event. The winners of the different events, besides receiving prizes at our social contest, will represent the University at the Inter-Collegiate Field Day, which is to be held at Kansas City on the 30th of May. The expenses of the delegate to Kansas City are paid by the K. C. Athletic Club.

The Association agreed to the program of Inter-Collegiate Field Day as arranged by the Kansas City Club; but strongly recommended the addition of a 220 yard run and a hurdle race and requested that the bicycle race be changed from a one mile to a two-mile run. The list of events of the Inter-Collegiate Field Day as arranged by the K. C. Club are as follows: 100 yard run, 440 yard run, and 1 mile run; running high jump, running broad jump, standing high jump, standing broad jump; putting 16 lb. shot, throwing 16 lb. hammers; 1 mile relay race, four men, one-fourth mile to each man; Pole vault, height; pole vault, distance; 1 mile bicycle race; base-ball throw.

The events of local Field Day will be similar to those given above. Everyone expecting to enter should commence training soon because the contest takes on the first Saturday in May.

ALUMNI.

John Stenteville, once of '97, is teaching at Brownville, Neb.

'92. E. P. Brown is cashier of the Grant Bank, at Grant, Neb.

Mr. McClave, a last year's student, is teaching at Western, Nebr.

'93 Jas. J. Sayer is city reporter of the Daily Tribune at Sioux City, Iowa.

'89. Edna D. Bullock has been employed as a cataloguer in the University library.

Percy E. True, formerly of '96, is in the mercantile business with his father at Schuyler, Neb.

William Boose, who attended the University last year is teaching near Falls City, this state.

'93. John Cecil Graham visited the University during the recent vacation. He is a "rural pedagogue" at Filley.

George Avery, lately of the class of '97, was compelled to leave school on account of poor health. He is now in New Orleans.

Chas. Beach, formerly of '89, visited Thos. Allen, of Lincoln, recently. Mr. Beach has been living in Washington for some time.

'91. William J. Taylor, principal of the South Omaha High School, is visiting his parents in Lincoln. He will return next week and resume his work.

Miss Veda Sheppard of '95, who left school some time ago on account of sickness, visited friends in the city last week. She expects to return to the University in the fall.

'88. H. P. Barrett and wife visited the University during the Charter Day services. Mr. Barrett resides at Council Bluffs, Iowa, and is the Council Bluffs editor of the Omaha World-Herald.

'89. Thomas S. Allen, of the well-known law firm Talbot, Bryan & Allen, has been appointed assistant-postmaster of Lincoln, Mr. Allen is an energetic, industrious young man and eminently qualified for the duties that will fall upon him.

'83. A. A. Monroe is superintendent of the schools of South Omaha, where he has been for nearly eight years. He has showed considerable enterprise in building up the South Omaha schools and has been instrumental in establishing a city library.