

ALUMNI.

'90. T. L. Hall visited University people last week.

'93. Ned Brown has been admitted to the bar at Grant, Neb.

'92. Bruce Yates is surveying in Montana in the interests of the B. & M.

'87. Dr. Dean T. Smith was married about January 1st at Jackson, Mich.

'93. E. A. Pollard was looking after his interests at the University a few days ago.

'93. Juergen Albers has gone to Montana with a corps of B. & M. surveyors.

'93. Miss Vesta Gray is the lively secretary of the Women's Literary club at Fremont.

'90. Rev. W. L. Marsh is teaching in the Congregational Theological school at Chicago.

'90. Miss Jessie Wolf, who is teaching at Butte, Montana, will return to Lincoln in about a week.

'92. T. F. A. Williams will deliver the Decoration Day oration at Shelby, Iowa, his old home.

'93. Miss Abbie Burns, who is teaching modern languages in the York college, was the guest of Miss Nellie Falkner not long ago.

'93. H. S. Lord was handshaking around the University last week. He has gone to Montana where he is employed in railroad work.

'90. The announcement of the engagement of T. H. Marsland to Miss Ruby J. G. Jones, was recently made in the Lincoln papers.

'84. Rev. R. L. Marsh, who is a Congregational minister at Wichita, Kan., visited friends in Lincoln recently. He is working up a company to go to Africa in about two years.

LOCAL.

Ten dollar line of suits at Browning King & Co's.

Browning King & Co. have the agency for Youman's Hats.

Messrs. Sutton, Paine and Carr joined the Delian society a week ago.

The Cameo club held its last meeting for this year Tuesday evening.

For the best of everything in the drug line call at Chas. McKenney's, 1225 O St.

Competition drill will take place on the 26 of the month just before the cadets go to camp.

Five of our girls went out and aired their voices in a mission Sunday school last Sunday.

John Kuhns and A. W. Seville spent a few days in Omaha last week, celebrating their birthdays.

The Kansas-Nebraska debate committee will soon have a set of rules formed to submit to the student body.

Hon. W. H. Munger of Fremont, delivered a course of ten lectures before the Senior class on "Corporations."

Browning King & Co., use better material in their clothing and better workmanship than any other house in the west.

Skirmish drill was one of the features of last week. They say the people of west Lincoln were somewhat frightened.

The Delian and Palladian societies adjourned Friday night, as they wanted to see the Union boys do up those Cotner people.

Some of the speakers of the mass meeting Monday afternoon did themselves proud, and had not arranged prepared speeches either.

The Senior class are preparing a German play for class day. This is something new and no doubt they will prove themselves great actors.