

A large bull snake was recently added to our museum of the largest of its species ever found in this part of the country.

Newbranch who is putting all his energy into raising a moustache, was somewhat embarrassed the other day when he was reported for "not shaving."

The faculty continue to think that three years of drill is for the good of the students, the result of which is that a number of chronic kickers carry around a gloomy countenance.

A number of scientific students went out on an excursion last Saturday "specimen hunting." They all came home with the fine intention of carrying a gossamer with them after this.

Prof. Fling will leave for Paris about the 25th where he will remain for three months working over some unpublished manuscripts preparatory to getting out his first volume of the life of Mirabeau.

The Senior laws handed their thesis in last week. Four of the best will be read in chapel before the public who will be supposed to judge of the legal knowledge of the class from these productions.

In the recent student's meeting, the suggestion of Prof. Caldwell that the students be largely represented on the various committees to arrange for joint debate with Kansas, was received with loud applause.

The police had a lively run this morning after a man who was running down O street. They overhauled him at 1225 O street. When questioned, he intimated that he was going to get his prescription put up at the new Drug Store, McKenney's, 1225 "O".

Prof. Barbour recently made a trip to Kearney in the interest of the geological department. Some ivory from a large elephant's tusk was brought to surface by prairie dogs and the Prof. followed the course of the hole and finally ran on to a partial remains of a very large elephant.

The medical students have recently formed a class organization and elected the following officers for the present semester: President, J. P. Rowe; vice-president, Miss Carr; secretary, H. H. Orr; Treasurer, Miss Annie Fossler; Class Historian, Miss Hoaw, and sergeant of arms, Mr. Ira. They have taken steps to secure a class pin and colors and will soon be thoroughly equipped as a class organization.

The best flavored soda waters in the city may be had at Rector's pharmacy, N. W. corner of 12th and N streets. The tempting menu that is offered consists of plain sodas of every conceivable flavor, also phosphates, mineral waters and fancy drinks. Rector's ice cream and fruited sodas are the best in the city. A specialty is made of health drinks fancy and plain. Egg drinks of all flavors. Try Rector's sodas once and you will drink no others. Call and get a special menu.

Over her lover she pleadingly leaned,
And he promised for her dear sake,
As he lay in the hammock and saw her tears,
Not another drop to take.

With a thrill of joy the fair girl sprang
To his side, with a loving look,
The vow was broken—likewise the rope,
For another drop he took.

—Brunonian.

I cannot sing the old, old songs,
And when I try the new,
The fellows arm themselves with clubs,
And so my songs are few.

—Brunonian.

One-third of the university students of Europe die prematurely from the effects of bad habits, acquired while at school; one-third die from lack of exercise, and the other third govern Europe.—Ex.

The University of Cairo, founded A. D. 973, has the largest attendance of any college in the world.