

Chancellor Canfield addressed the law students Wednesday evening.

Grinnell beat the Pastime Athletic club of St. Louis by a score of 12-0.

Miss Alma Hasic was called home last week by the death of her niece.

The Co-operative Book Co. will put in lockers for the use of the students.

Dave Mercer is making a hard campaign for congress in the Second district.

The Y. W. and Y. M. C. A. held a joint meeting Sunday the twenty-eighth.

Miss Weston of Beatrice, a former student, is taking music at the conservatory.

Miss Whitley of Yorkshire, England, visited Miss Frankish the latter part of last week.

A limited lot of ladies' fine "sample shoes, [2's to 3½'s B, C, D and E lasts], to close

Rumors are afloat to the effect that the Sophomore class are soon to have a reception.

G. F. Hall was called home the beginning of last week by the illness of his grandmother.

The second Preps held a social last Saturday evening in one of the lodge rooms down town.

Dr. Southerland, president of the Grand Island college, visited the university last week.

Miss Selma Swanson has been to her home at Verona, Neb. to attend the wedding of her cousin.

Fred Larson who is studying law in Omaha with Mahoney, Minahan & Smyth was down to the game.

U-u-u-ni-i-a-pro-a-pro-u-n-i-a-pro-pri-ation is the yell for the coming campaign.

The Chancellor announces that hereafter political meetings in the university are strictly for students.

Mr. Art. Brown, from Fremont, came over to see the Abbott boys and take in the foot-ball game.

Prof. White gave his classes a "lay off" a few days ago, owing to his being called to Omaha on business.

The Seniors met the 30th to decide the momentous subject of cains. They seem to be having quite a time.

Hot and cold soda at Rector's pharmacy. All the latest perfumes at Rector's pharmacy.

Kid gloves, lined or unlined, mittens lined in kid or wool, in profusion at Herpolsheimer & Co.

The Cadet boys have their new suits. As usual there seems to be some trouble in making the boy fit the suit.

Not counting the art and music students there are now a little over 1300 students in attendance at the university.

The Annex barber shop, 117 N. Thirteenth street, or basement Burr block, S. F. Westerfield, proprietor.

The Volenteer band conducted seven missionary meetings the twenty-eight in the young people's societies.

Mr. Avery who was an instructor in the chemical department last year, is now a student at Heidelberg, Germany.

Miss Bell intends to go home the second. A good many are going home to vote. We presume Miss Bell is of that number.

The New Science Review is another periodical. It is what it is reported to be a miscellany of modern thought and discovery.

Students who have rooms or take meals in the conservatory are strong in their commendations of the management of that institution.

Lady students get 10 per cent discount on all shoes at the Raquet store, 1016 P street.

Miss Fannie Woods, a former member of the class of '96 is to be married at her home in Lincoln Nov. 1. A Mr. Granger is the happy man.

C. D. Warner, of the class of '96, went home for a few days to be present at the wedding of his sister. He returned to school duties the 29th.

Miss Mary Tremaine after spending some time sight-seeing in London and other parts of England, and in Paris, is now at Oxford busy with her studies.

Go to Westerfield's barber shop. Established for six years. Elegant bath rooms in connection. 117 N. Thirteenth street or basement Burr block.