

Lieutenant Pershing has organized a cavalry company.

The best day board in the city at the Conservatory restaurant.

O. F. Lambertson, 1205 O street, up stairs, dentist. all work guaranteed.

Translating French stories instead of writing orations makes seniors smile.

The Y. M. C. A. has added some handsome furniture to its room in the conservatory.

Mr. Niles formerly of '95 is working for a lumber company in the Big Horn mountains.

Lady students get 10 per cent discount on all shoes at the Raquet store, 1016 P street.

Mable Dempster was in Lincoln visiting her friend Miss Chappell during the last week.

"Ascent of Man" by Henry Drummond, $1.69 at Herpolsheimer & Co's book department.

S. F. Westerfield, proprietor barber shop basement Burr block. Students trade solicited.

While Professor Bruner is away his assistant, Mr. Barber, has been filling his place very ably.

Go to Westerfield's barber shop. Established for six years. Elegant bath rooms in connection.

The mandolin, Clarinet and all instruments taught by special instructors at the University Conservatory.

The Annex barber shop, 117 N. Thirteenth street, or basement Burr block, S. F. Westerfield, proprietor.

The Pals. will have a feed on the night before Thanksgiving. They are going to begin the celebration early.

Professor Barrett has invited his class in American History to the historical rooms to eat apples and popcorn.

Ninety dollars for foot-ball! Who said University spirit had evaporated? That was when the Chancellor was gone.

You should have seen Oberlies trying to vault upon his charger in the first drill of the new cavalry company.

When you go to the foot ball game at Omaha Thanksgiving take the Burlington Route. Special low rates.

From latest reports we may judge that the Devil is not obeying military orders or taking military exercises.

Professor Richards gave an old-time party to the members of the Faculty at his home, on Wednesday 23rd.

The quarterly concert by Conservatory students will be held in the chapel next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Of course the university folks would beat Kansas. We always knew they would. Hurrah for our boys!

A chapter of the Delta Delta Delta fraternity was organized last week under the leadership of Miss Muir.

Miss Fannie Woods was married November first. Thus the students of the university commit nominal suicide.

Miss Hardan has had to stop work on account of sickness. Her friends in the university will miss her greatly.

Mr. Redman has found a very novel way to tell orientation in botany specimens, something new, simple and original.

Professor Fling's class in the French Revolution are engaged on some original material that has never been worked over.

The University Bible classes in the central churches are very popular, from fifty to seventy-five attending some of them.

Take the Burlington Route for the Thanksgiving excursion to Omaha. Special rates have been arranged for the students, Walter Clyde Davis, D. D. S., Dental office in Richards block, northeast corner 11 and O streets. Fine gold filling a specialty.

Everybody joins in praising the special program of the Palladian girls. When the girls take hold of a thing it is bound to succeed.

The Ewing Clothing Co., has just received another invoice of the very latest styles in overcoats. They are up to date. Step in and see them.