The freshmen have postponed the choosing of a class pin.

Oscar Woods, a last year's student, visited the University last week.

Roy Marshall visited Weeping Water friends examination week.

Prof. House was not able to attend his classes the early part of the week.

Miss Johnson, formerly of the class of '94, is visiting friends in the city.

Lieut. Pershing and sister, from Texas, are here for a visit of a couple of weeks.

Miss Treat is in the city. She is thinking of resuming her work in the University.

"NO NEBRASKAN this week. (Editor's flunked.)" As if we didn't know it, Riley!

Miss Wort returned from Peru, to take up her work with the beginning of the semester.

A number of classes were excused last Monday at 5 o'clock, on account of faculty meeting.

Mrs. Chas. Cather, of Red Cloud, was visiting her daughter, Willa, for a few days last week.

H. S. Lord, '93, is spending a few days at the University. Mr. Lord has been at Fort Custer, Mont., with a surveying party.

Feb. 8 the Delians had a Holmes program. One of the pleasing features of the evening was a debate upon the merits of the University cavalry.

Geo. Campen, an old U. of N. student, was married at Hillsdale, Mich., during the Xmas holidays. He is at present deputy city engineer of Lincoln.

Will C. Hall, assistant in the zoological laboratory, has been compelled to leave school on account of poor health. Mr. Orr takes his place in the laboratory.

The reception held at Prof. Caldwell's, shortly before the examinations, was in every way delightful, and will long continue to be a pleasant memory to those present.

Many University professors and students attended the Mendelssohn anniversary exercises, given by the University Conservatory at the Universalist Church, Sunday, Feb. 3.

A meeting of the Omaha Club was held Wednesday afternoon. A committee was appointed to confer with the chancellor and offer the assistance of the club in securing legislation favorable to the University.

The students of the medical association had a social gathering Feb. 1, at the home of Miss Horn. The meeting was held in honor of Mr. U. C. Hall, who has been obliged to stop school.

The Unions were anxious not to be outdone, so that Saturday night the irate street car driver had another body of students to take out to Oak creek, in spite of the fact that he had sworn "He'd never do so any more."

Examinations are bad for the best of us, and, to say the least, are very uncomfortable, unless one is blessed with a contented spirit. Such a one is reported. He had flunked in everything but chapel, but got conditioned in that.

Friday, Feb. 1, the Palladians and Delians had a skating party in place of the ordinary literary programs. Everyone enjoyed their skate, though some few had a sad time finding the ice. It is surprising how students will climb up perpendicular banks, jump ditches and wade snowdrifts for a few minutes skating.
