

tory of Music, March 5th. Dancing and games were the pastimes of the evening. Both classes were well respected and all report an enjoyable time.

Last Saturday night, the Y. M. C. A. elected the following new officers: president, Mr. W. T. Elmore; vice-president, Mr. Davis; recording secretary, Mr. W. H. Rhodes; corresponding secretary, Mr. R. P. Teele; treasurer, Mr. Lunn.

Petitions are numerous in this institution. Miss G—— received one not long ago signed by some score of names. We can't say at the present moment whether she stopped chewing or took the hint in the proper way and treated the crowd.

The Y. W. C. A. elected their officers for the next association year, to begin April 1. Miss Boose was elected president; Miss Burrows, vice-president; Miss Wheeler, recording secretary; Miss Bruner, corresponding secretary; and Miss Anman, treasurer.

The Senior law boys have organized a moot court and are trying cases without the aid of the faculty. Hatch, Skiles and Edwards have each served as judge. As much earnestness is shown in some of the pleas to the jury as would be shown in actual trials.

The space in Union Hall was inadequate to hold the crowd that flocked there to hear the "Ghost Program." The music was especially good. The two songs, "The Lay of the Jobberweck," by Mr. Lehmer, and the "Erl King," by Mr. Albers, were well appreciated by the audience.

The Senior party was in every way a success. This was mainly owing to the ingenuity of the hostess, Miss Oliva Pound. Everyone was well entertained and pleased. The artistic talent displayed during the evening was simply marvelous and the conversation profound. After this feast of reason and flow of soul, other more materialistic refreshments were daintily served. The company returned home very near Sunday morning.

The graduating class of the Beatrice High School were in Lincoln March 14. They came for the express purpose of looking over the University. It is a compliment to our institution that they did not think to look further for a good school. They knew we had the best that could be had.

(Law class. Judge Reese citing case and commenting upon it):

Edwards.—Well, Judge, the man who wrote that opinion certainly knew very little about common law pleading.

Judge—Perhaps so, I wrote it.

Edwards—Ah, well! ??

The Omaha Club at the regular monthly meeting, March 6, passed the following resolution and ordered that it be given the college papers for publication:

Resolved, that the thanks of the Omaha Club be extended to all those who kindly aided us in making successful arrangements for the Washington's birthday celebration.

□ The joint missionary meeting of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. meet Sunday, March 24, at 3 p. m. At 4 p. m. the Y. M.'s will hold their meeting in Palladian Hall. The meeting is to be a typical band meeting, such as they held during the winter vacation. The Y. W.'s meet at the Conservatory at the same hour.

Get that new style hair-cut at Westerfield's.

See Drs. Hodgman & McNay for first class dental work at very low prices.

Dental parlors of Drs. Hodgman & McNay over Harley's. Reduced price to students.

Luther J. Abbott jr. and the editors are the only authorized agents for the HESPERIAN.

Students should patronize Westerfield, the tonsorial artist. He will cut your hair in the latest style.

Dr. Lee W. Edwards a former University boy is located in rooms 90 and 91 Burr Block, Phone 305.

Patronize Westerfield. He is up to date on hair cutting.